

Disposition of Equal Opportunities Requests

On January 8, 9 and 15, 2016, the NBC Television Network provided air time without charge on the stations listed below to Sen. Rand Paul, who is seeking the Republican nomination for President in the 2016 election. Sen. Paul was provided a total of fifteen (15) minutes in satisfaction of his request for equal opportunities following the appearance of Republican Presidential candidate Donald Trump on the November 7, 2015, episode of "Saturday Night Live." The attached chart provides detail on the date and time that Sen. Paul's spots aired.
