Re: Response to Broadcast EEO Audit Letter
WRNN License Company, LLC
Station WRNN-TV, Kingston, NY
Facility ID No. 74156

EEO Staff:

On behalf of WRNN License Company, LLC, licensee of the above referenced broadcast station, a single-station station employment unit based in Kingston, New York, the undersigned submits the station's response to your letter of February 6, 2015 concerning compliance with the Commission's Equal Employment Opportunity Rule, 47 C.F.R. § 73.2080. In accordance with your request, this submission consists of a sworn statement by Christian French, Chief Operating Officer of WRNN License Company, LLC.

Should any questions arise concerning this submission, kindly contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth E. Goldin

Counsel to WRNN License Company, LLC

cc: Christian French

Declaration of Christian French, Chief Operating Officer

I, Christian French, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am the Chief Operating Officer of WRNN License Company, LLC, the licensee of WRNN-TV, Kingston, NY (Fac. ID #74156), which is a single station employment unit based in Rye Brook, NY (the "Station"). This Statement and relevant attachments are being submitted in response to the February 6, 2015 letter of Lewis C. Pulley, Assistant Chief of the Policy Division of the Commission's Media Bureau, concerning a random audit of the station's EEO compliance (the "EEO Audit Letter").

2. This Station employs five or more full-time employees as the term is defined in the Commission's broadcast EEO rule, 47 C.F.R. § 73.2080(e)(1).

3. In response to Question 3(a) of the EEO Audit Letter, the Station's two most recent EEO public file reports, as described in 47 C.F.R. § 73.2080(c)(6), are appended at Attachment A.

The web address of the Station is www.rnntv.com. A copy of the Station's current report is included on this website.

The date of each full-time hire listed in the Station's most recent EEO public file reports, as required by 47 C.F.R. § 73.2080(c)(5)(vi), is included in the internal business records appended at Attachment B.

4. In response to Question 3(b) of the EEO Audit Letter, the licensee acknowledges that it is required to retain records documenting outreach to its recruitment sources to fill its full-time positions, including those used during the period covered by the above EEO public file reports. However, pursuant to the EEO Audit Letter, only one such notice per position is required at Attachment B in addition to notices to all entitled sources.

5. In response to Question 3(c) of the EEO Audit Letter, the internal business records appended at Attachment B provide data, where available, concerning (a) the total number of interviewees for each vacancy and (b) the referral source for each interviewee for each particular full-time vacancy filled during the period covered by the above EEO public file reports.

6. In response to Question 3(d) of the EEO Audit Letter, documentation of the Station's performance of recruitment initiatives as described in §73.2080(c)(2) is appended at Attachment C. Station personnel involved in the recruitment initiatives are noted in Attachment C as well. This Station employs a total of 33 full-time employees and is located in a market with a population of more than 250,000. Accordingly, the Station is required to perform at least four recruitment initiatives during a two-year period.

7. In response to Question 3(e) of the EEO Audit Letter, the licensee affirms that it is not aware of any complaints alleging unlawful discrimination in the employment practices of this Station filed during the current license term.

8. In response to Question 3(f) of the EEO Audit Letter, the licensee affirms that the Station has created and deployed an EEO compliance plan, with the assistance of our outside communications counsel, Wiley Rein LLP (“Wiley Rein”). We have obtained and disseminated copies of Wiley Rein’s “EEO Basics Binder,” which contains advice on how stations are to engage in broad recruitment for job vacancies and undertake recruitment initiatives and provides sample forms for collecting and maintaining the necessary recruitment data. Due to turnover in key human resources personnel in the time leading up to and during the period covered by the above EEO public file reports, the Station’s vacancy-specific outreach was not as robust as in years past and certain interviewee data was not maintained. The Station recently hired a new Vice President, Human Resources, Hector Reyes, who brings a wealth of understanding about the importance of promoting employment opportunities to minorities and women, creating a workplace that recognizes the value of diversity to maximize the potential for all as well as the responsibility to conduct local recruitment efforts to further broaden the Station’s workforce diversity. Further, Mr. Reyes plans to capitalize on the Station’s culture of promoting learning and development by establishing leadership development programs, implementing EEO training (interviewing, discrimination, and harassment) as well as communicating hiring processes and procedures that further enhance our leaders’ education. The Station has already enhanced its outreach to the community by advertising in the local Journal News publication, reaching out to DOL New York offices in Hempstead, Hicksville, Massapequa, Spring Valley and increasing leadership representation at local career events at local colleges and universities. It is currently formalizing strategies to develop existing programs, such as an internal job blast to promote internal promotions, communicating the benefits of a structured internship program as well as enhancing existing training programs, e.g. a Master Control Operator apprenticeship program and videographer training. The Station appreciates the value of interns and apprentices and intends to strengthen the part they play in building a talent pipeline. This Station’s compliance efforts include identifying our efforts to afford equal employment opportunities to employees through statements disseminated in job applications and posted in conspicuous areas within the workplace.

9. In response to Question 3(g) of the EEO Audit Letter, the licensee affirms that the Station understands that it must periodically analyze the effectiveness of its EEO recruitment program by reviewing the productivity of sources on its recruitment lists and the outcome of its recruitment initiatives. Mr. Reyes recently added a full-time Recruiter to the Station’s human resources staff, Ms. Evangelista-Wynne, who shares responsibility for recruitment outreach. Together, Mr. Reyes and Ms. Evangelista-Wynne have thoroughly analyzed the Station’s master recruitment source list, color coding the different types of local recruitment outlets and evaluating the benefits of each in maximizing the Station’s diversity and culture. The Station also invested in applicant tracking system software to assist with recordkeeping and the process of recruiting and attracting candidates. And, the Station hopes to partner with reputable journalistic organizations such as NABJ, NAHJ, AAJA, NAHJ and NLGJA to engage minority and women-specific audiences in its recruitment efforts as well as continue to emphasize the importance of local engagement to promote broadcast employment such as encouraging Station personnel to speak at career events sponsored by community organizations and educational institutions. These strategies as well as periodically analyzing the individual components of the Station’s recruitment program will help ensure its outreach program is more robust and compliance remains a top priority for Station leaders in the future.

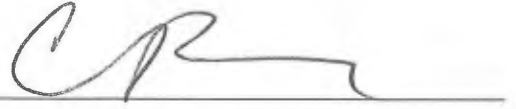

10. In response to Question 3(h) of the EEO Audit Letter, this SEU strives to comply with all federal, state and/or local laws regarding pay, benefits, seniority practices, promotions, and selection techniques and tests to ensure that the unit provides equal opportunity and does not discriminate against employees or applicants

III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity & Scope of Broadcaster's Participation
1.	Job / Career Events	The station participated in the Manhattanville College Job and Internship Fair on April 2, 2013, interviewing students and graduates interested in broadcasting positions and internships. Station participants included our HR Coordinator. The station participated in the Columbia J School 2013 Career Expo on March 30, 2013 in New York, NY, interviewing graduate students interested in broadcasting positions and internships. Station participants included our VP HR, an HR Assistant and two Executive Producers. The station participated in the Fordham, Manhattan Campus College Job Fair on May 22, 2013, interviewing students interested in broadcasting positions and internships. Station participants included our HR Coordinator.
2.	Internship Program	WRNN-TV's internships are structured to teach young adults the skills needed to help obtain a position in the broadcast industry. Participants in WRNN internships are community members or college students who receive college credit for their time spent at the station. WRNN accepts interns in all departments—News, HR, Finance, Traffic, Operations, Graphics, Production, Broadcast Engineering—throughout the year, accommodating both local college students primarily during the spring and fall semesters and area residents attending out-of-state colleges during winter and summer breaks. During this reporting period, WRNN hosted a total of (10) interns from the following educational institutions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• SUNY New Paltz University (2)</li> <li>• Boston University</li> <li>• Purchase College-State University of New York</li> <li>• The University of Texas</li> <li>• Loyola University – Maryland</li> <li>• Quinnipiac University</li> <li>• Connecticut School of Broadcasting</li> <li>• Blind Brook High School</li> <li>• Hofstra University</li> </ul>
3.	Training Program	Cross Training: WRNN staff who express interest are cross trained in those positions, which allows employees to gain skills that could qualify them for promotion within our organization, or general advancement in the broadcasting industry. Our receptionist is provided with Human Resources training, including onboarding of new employees, employee relations and job recruitment. Our engineers are provided with technical direction training, including recording programming/spots. Videographer Training: A videography training program was established in 2012 to provide instruction to interested employees in storing and toting camera equipment, shot composition, manual shooting as well as editing. During this reporting period, a floor operator received the training.

She spoke extensively about her job and employment opportunities in broadcast news. On August 15, 2014, an anchor participated in a retreat for the Unstoppable Girls organization, speaking to young women about self-esteem and how to pursue their dreams. This was opportunity to speak about the broadcast news industry and its employment opportunities.

	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity & Scope of Broadcaster's Participation
1.	Job / Career Events (contd.)	On October 22, 2014, one of the station's reporters participated in Media Mingle 2014 at New York University School of Journalism, speaking to students about careers in broadcast news and career opportunities in our business. On October 27, 2014, an anchor and videographer spoke to the Advanced TV Production class at SUNY Old Westbury, addressing the business of television news, answering questions and participating in a class production. On November 24, 2014, one of our Executive Producers spoke to a production class at the University of Arkansas about his career as well as employment opportunities in broadcast news.
2.	Internship Program	WRNN-TV's internships are structured to teach young adults the skills needed to help obtain a position in the broadcast industry. Participants in WRNN internships are community members or college students who receive college credit for their time spent at the station. WRNN accepts interns in all departments—News, HR, Finance, Traffic, Operations, Graphics, Production, Broadcast Engineering—throughout the year, accommodating both local college students primarily during the spring and fall semesters and area residents attending out-of-state colleges during winter and summer breaks. During the reporting period, WRNN hosted a total of (8) interns from the following educational institutions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>William Paterson University</li> <li>SUNY Plattsburgh</li> <li>Fordham University</li> <li>Pace University</li> <li>Ithaca University</li> <li>Iona College</li> <li>SUNY Westchester Community College (2)</li> </ul>
3.	Training Program	Cross Training: WRNN staff who express interest are cross trained in those positions, which allows employees to gain skills that could qualify them for promotion within our organization, or general advancement in the broadcasting industry. Our receptionist is provided with Human Resources training, including onboarding of new employees, employee relations and job recruitment. Our engineers are provided with technical direction training, including recording programming/spots. Videographer Training: A videography training program was established in 2012 to provide instruction to interested employees in storing and toting camera equipment, shot composition, manual shooting as well as editing. During this reporting period, a floor operator received the training.

About this job

Job description

RNN employs more than 200 award-winning journalists and multi-platform producers, reporters and editors, and supplemental video resources from regional, national, and international news partners and continues to recruit highly skilled and highly engage staff to further its mission.

The RNN Traffic Coordinator is responsible for the completion of the daily log assembly process, managing the digital and physical media inventory and providing customer service to clients of the channel RNN.

- The RNN Traffic Coordinator is responsible for maintaining a positive work relationship with our clients and ensuring the success of day-to-day programming and ad sales components on RNN. Responsibilities include:
- Primary liaison between RNN ad sales and the advertising community in the stewardship of advertising deals that guarantee all liability on the aforementioned deals are met.
- Managing the delivery and purging schedule as well as providing technical support for advertising clients and programming partners.
- Approving and entering data into the traffic system for long form and short form traffic instructions, T.V. guide listings, reconciliation, copy instruction reports, format construction, airing verifications, and working with the correct internal departments to respond to client inquiries in a thorough and timely manner.
- Flexibility and understanding of the overall procedure that goes into the sale and execution of a broadcast order. The Coordinator must be able to assist where and when needed, functioning as an assistant to other departments when necessary.
- Training traffic employees on how to back up the channel, should you be out of the office as well as managing efficiency of the RNN workflow is it pertains to the traffic assistant.
- The Traffic Coordinator must be a meticulously detail oriented individual with the ability to multi task and communicate effectively to clients and internal employees at all levels of management. Problem solving and thinking "outside the box" is a must for this position as it will enable the coordinator to integrate last minute changes and corrections, maximizing the daily revenue.

Desired Skills and Experience

From: Jacqueline DeLaFuente [jmd2221@columbia.edu]
Sent: Monday, March 25, 2013 5:58 PM
To: Michelle Seabrook
Subject: Welcome to the 2013 Columbia J-School Career Expo
 Monday, March 25, 2013

Michelle Seabrook:

We look forward to seeing you this Saturday, March 30, at the 2013 Career Expo. Your participation has made this a record-breaking event with more than 250 editors, producers and other hiring managers from 125 news companies scheduled to attend. We hope your visit to campus will be enjoyable and productive, and we know you'll meet great candidates to fill positions now and in the future.

Here are a few items for your attention:

- On Saturday you will receive your interview schedules. We worked hard to match you with students whose interests and skills align with the needs you indicated on your registration. However, with 336 students attending, you are certain to meet many excellent candidates during unscheduled portions of your day. Many students hope to meet you during your unscheduled time and are planning accordingly.
- If you have any changes to make to your Saturday schedule, including the people from your organization who are coming, please inform Jacqueline DeLaFuente, the event coordinator, as soon as possible. She's at jmd2221@columbia.edu or (212) 854-4422. If you have a last-minute emergency and have to cancel your attendance after 5 p.m. on Friday, please call Jacqueline at (908) 436-8688.
- Your schedule and table assignment: The students have received their interview schedules. Unless you've specified otherwise, your first interviews start promptly at 9 a.m. Check-in begins at 8 a.m. When you arrive, you'll receive an interview schedule unless you requested walk-ups only. For the most part these 20-minute interviews are scheduled until 3 p.m., and after that, the format will convert to walk-ups for everybody. We'll also give you your table assignment, room map and other materials.
- Breakfast / lunch: Continental breakfast and coffee/beverage service all day will be provided in the Green Room behind Roone Arledge Auditorium starting at 8 a.m. Signs and volunteers will show you the way. You will have brief morning and afternoon breaks for coffee/coffee and snacks, also in the Green Room. We'll serve lunch at 12:10 at The Journalism School directly north of Arledge, hosted by The Journalism School's Dean of Student Affairs Ernest R. Sotomayor, faculty, administrators and student body representatives.
- Getting to campus: Our event is located on Columbia University's main campus, also known as Morningside campus. From Penn station, take the 1 train Uptown to 116th Street. From Grand Central, take the Shuttle (S) to Times Square, and transfer to the #1 Uptown train to 116th St.-Columbia University. If you're driving, there is a parking garage on West 114th between Broadway and Amsterdam. To get there you must enter 114th from Broadway as 114th is an eastbound one-way street. We discourage street parking because meters in the neighborhood must be fed every two hours on Saturday. For visitor information and maps, go here.
- Where to ship materials in advance: Please ship magazines, newspapers, giveaway items, or other materials to the attention of Julie Hartenstein, Career Services, Columbia Journalism School, 2950 Broadway, Room 104, New York, N.Y., 10027 for arrival by 5 p.m. Thursday 3/28. We will have FedEx boxes/ mailing labels at the Expo in case you'd like to ship materials home. You're responsible for the shipping costs; we'll arrange the pick-up.

- The Career Expo begins at 9 a.m. and ends at 5 p.m.

If we can assist you in any way this week, please let us know.

Thank you and we'll see you Saturday.

The College of Communication recognizes the importance of internships in their ability not only to give applicable experience but also in building strong character. For these reasons we encourage all of our students to seek out and participate in whatever internships they can. Combined with the classroom experience they receive here at Boston University we feel that the students who intern hold a great advantage regarding their future success.

We offer the One-Credit Internship program because we understand that you must be registered for internship credit in order to participate in your chosen internship program. This internship will not be graded or evaluated by the College of Communication or Boston University and will not count toward graduation.

Please provide the name and address for our proof of registration letter to the internship provider:

_____
_____

Please submit one copy to Student Services (COM room 123) so we may register you for the one-credit internship course and mail the letter of proof.

**Please note a copy of this form will be sent to your internship. By turning in this form you are allowing us to share your information with your internship provider.****

Currently, all departments allow rising COM juniors who have at least a 3.0 in COM to participate in an internship program for academic credit.

The one-credit internship program supplements academic internships by awarding non-graded, one credit internships for those students who do not meet the academic internships criteria.

Students can be freshmen, sophomores, juniors or seniors that are in good standing (at least a 2.3 overall and at least a 2.3 in COM) but do not meet other requirements as outlined by their department. Students must complete one full semester in COM prior to registering for this program.

The one credit internship will not count toward graduation requirements in any way. However, this is a billable credit.

The contract/registration form outlines the perimeters of the internship credit. A separate letter will be sent to the internship provider which will offer proof of credit. There will be no evaluation of the internship. By completing this form, students are aware that they do not meet the more rigorous academic internship requirements. However, the College of Communication understands for insurance and/or union purposes that said student must be registered for an internship course. This generally limits the company's liability while giving our students the opportunity to obtain applicable experience in their chosen field.

Additionally, students (even those students who qualify for academic internships) may use this form to register for a one-credit internship if they have already used their allotted internship credits.

**Please make a copy of this form for your records before submitting it.

Subject: Andrea "Kelli" Higgs' Intern Application

Dear Ms. Zekanovic,

I am writing to confirm that Andrea [redacted] is currently enrolled at Purchase College-State University of New York, located at 735 Anderson Hill Road, Purchase, NY 10577, in the program that confers a Professional Certificate in Social Media Marketing.

Based on my years of experience teaching at Purchase College, and having observed [redacted] as a student in my classroom, I am confident she is qualified to serve as an intern at RNN-TV. In addition to her in-class commitment at Purchase College, an additional commitment of at least 5-15 hours/week of theoretical use and practical application with RNN-TV would complement Ms. [redacted]'s plan to pursue a career in the field of social media. Recognizing that the internship is offered without monetary consideration speaks highly about Andrea's level of maturity and commitment to developing a level of expertise.

I applaud Ms. [redacted]'s efforts to receive an invitation to participate in RNN-TV's internship program. Her legal and business experience, and cordial demeanor, would be an asset in any professional environment. I wish her success!

Sincerely,

Linda Solomon
Professor, Purchase College School of the Arts Social Media Manager, Purchase College

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter as verification that Mr. Justin [redacted] will meet the pre-requisites for the summer internship course in Radio-TV-Film, assuming he successfully completes his Spring 2013 coursework. Mr. Bregman must submit our application for a credit-based internship, and register for the course; both systems are available through early June. At that time, his academic record and the internship position will be assessed to determine if he will be given final approval to receive credit for the internship.

Please contact me if you have any questions or would like further information. You may reach me at [redacted] or lauren.brown@austin.utexas.edu.

Dear Internship Coordinator,

This letter is to confirm that the following student is permitted to enroll in an internship course at Loyola University Maryland upon confirmation of an approved internship. If the student registers, he/she will receive academic credit upon the successful completion of the internship.

Student: Brendan

Please e-mail me if you have questions about our internship program.

DETAILS: Permission to register for CM 421/CM 423 is granted on the assumption that student and advisor both understand the following:

1. ONCE PERMISSION IS GRANTED after the review of this sheet, you must register for CM421 (3 credits) or CM423 (one credit) via WebAdvisor or the Records Office.
2. Students must pay for summer internships via the Business Office, in addition to registering for the course.
3. It is Loyola University Maryland policy that only junior and senior students may receive academic credit for taking an internship.
4. Only one internship (communication/marketing, etc) may be counted toward graduation.
5. CM421 can be counted as an Intermediate Course or a Free Elective Course for the Communication Major or Minor.
6. Internship credit requires at least 150 hours (10-15 hours per week) over the semester.
7. Faculty in the Department of Communication can give advice about places to do internships, but finding and arranging the internship is the responsibility of the student.
8. During the semester that the internship is taking place, there may be one-hour class meetings each week. Students will communicate with the internship coordinator regularly via e-mail and Moodle.
9. Students will be responsible for communicating with the internship coordinator, submitting a self-evaluation at midterm, a 3-page experience paper, a portfolio/journal and arranging an exit interview at the end of the semester. A supervisor evaluation is required at the completion of the internship.

Dear Ms. Zekanovic,

My name is Marlee [redacted] and I am a graduating senior at Blind Brook High School. I will be attending Pennsylvania's State University's School of Communications in the fall. As part of my high school graduation requirement, I need to complete a five-week unpaid internship this spring.

I am keenly interested in pursuing a career in journalism. I am an active contributor to my school newspaper, as well as the Business Editor of my school's yearbook. I am not exactly certain what aspect of journalism I wish to pursue, but would welcome any opportunity for meaningful and hands on experience in the field.

My high school requires a twenty-hour commitment per week to begin early in May, and last through the first week of June. Should you have the need, I am also available to work at RNN in an unpaid capacity through the summer.

Please contact me if you would like to schedule an interview. Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Marlee [redacted]

Hi Brian!

Thank you so much for supporting this event! It would be amazing to have you there. Last year we had about 60 careers represented, and the kids gained so much from it!

I attached the letter for you to review!!! If you know anyone else who you think would be willing to come down and speak with the kids, please let me know. I'm going through Chambers of Commerce, and contacting colleges to recruit people.

Have a great day!!!

Subject: Celebration of womanhood: Girls Today, Leaders Tomorrow 5/31/14

Date: Wed, 5 Feb 2014 07:55:08 -0600

Hi Giovanna,

Congratulations again on your Emmy nomination. How cool is that?!

I was wondering if you would be available to emcee the United Way Celebration of Womanhood Conference on Saturday, May 31 at The Renaissance Hotel in Elizabeth, New Jersey. As the emcee I'll need to join us for the entire day. As a matter of fact you may want to come to NJ the evening prior to the event and spend the night in the hotel.

Let me provide you with some information regarding the conference.

For the fifth consecutive year, United Way of Greater Union County has been selected as the recipient of the 2014 Linking Juvenile Females to Resources and Services Grant from the New Jersey Juvenile Justice Commission. On Saturday, May 31st, 2014 the United Way will host our annual "Womanhood Conference" at The Renaissance Hotel for 350 at risk female youth (ages 13-17). This group of young women will represent seven different counties across the state of New Jersey.

The United Way of Greater Union County 's mission is to ensure that the health and human service needs of the community are identified and addressed in ways that create a better future for the residents of Union County. This includes working to advance the common good for all in the areas of Education, Income, Health and Family Strengthening.

In 2012 we were fortunate to have reality TV Star, business owner and New York Times best selling author, Antonia "Toya" Wright as our Key Note Speaker as well as the first female Lieutenant Governor, Kim Guadagno. Last year, actress, author, radio personality, TV talk show host, and star of The Wendy Williams Show, Wendy Williams was our Key Note Speaker with actress, comedian, author and star of FOX's comedy series, Living Single, Kim Coles. Ines Rosales, from FOX 5's Good Day acted our emcee last year.

We also had Della Crews from News 12 New Jersey cover the entire event. She interviewed Wendy Williams, Kim Coles, Debbie-Ann Anderson, COO and Senior VP for United Way of Greater Union County as well as the young girls and other speakers. I thought perhaps you would like to provide a camera crew to cover this year's appreciate your time and consideration and look forward to hearing from you. Hope you can join us as our 2014 emcee!

Desiree Tyler
Vice President of Human Resources
Fios 1 News
800 Westchester Avenue
Rye Brook, NY 10573

Dear Ms. Tyler:

This letter is to certify that Taylor G [redacted] is currently a sophomore in good standing at Fordham University and that she is eligible to receive one point of academic credit for a summer internship at Fios 1 News or any of the RNN stations. I would be her advisor and supervise her work. She is applying to work in the news department on the recommendation of John [redacted], one of our Fordham alumni.

Taylor is well worth accepting into your internship program. I have not had Taylor in a class, but I have gotten to know her very well over the past year and a half, as she has served as my research assistant on a book about how watchdog reporting is faring in the Internet era. Please note that she volunteered to work for me, simply because she wanted to know more about journalism. Working with Taylor has been a real pleasure. She is extremely bright and picks up complicated tasks and concepts in an instant. She is hard working, consistent, and mature beyond her years. She's been the kind of worker who does more than expected all on her own, without any prompting. She jumps into tasks with 100 percent effort and with a 100 percent positive attitude. Her dependability and intelligence have really stood out to me over the past year. Other student assistants have not always done what they promised. But Taylor always, and I mean always does what she says she will do, when she says she will, with exceedingly high quality to her work.

My research has been examining whether newspapers are still able to dedicate resources to deep watchdog reporting in this era of tight money and small staffs. For this part of my project, Taylor has been examining and coding newspaper reports from around the country to see what kind of enterprise reporting newspapers are able to do. She also examined a full month of reporting by the website CTMirror to help me determine the extent to which new nonprofits are able to undertake watchdog reporting. So she now has a good grounding in news.

As a television producer myself (I spent nine years as Moscow Bureau Chief for CBS News before moving to Fordham, and still freelance for the network), I believe that I have a good idea of the skills and temperament necessary in a good intern in television news. Although Taylor doesn't have that much news experience yet, she is intensely curious about the world, anxious to learn about the television news process, and understands the importance that news can make in a community. Moreover, she has good news judgment already, as demonstrated by her work on my research. Her sky-high average while working for me and interning at another news organization speaks to her being well organized and capable. She can be giving tasks like logging tapes, making calls or doing research, and will definitely get the job done impressively well.

I sincerely hope that you will offer Taylor a summer internship. She's wonderful. Please do not hesitate to contact me at knobel@fordham.edu or by telephone at } if I can provide any information.

With best regards,

Dear Olga,

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to apply for an intern position at RNN this summer.

I think that I am a perfect match for this position. My passion is in television and entertainment and I have just completed my freshman year at Ithaca College in the Roy H. Park School of Communication.

RNN has so much to offer me while simultaneously, I can offer RNN my strong devotion and creativity to this field. As you can see from my resume (below), I am very active in front and behind the cameras. My two most outstanding accomplishments were starring in Blind Brooks High School's performance of Seussical The Musical and working on both the production and editing of the guest commencement speaker's graduation video for my high school.

After looking on your website, I find it very impressive that you produce over 30 hours of programming and news daily. I assume that is more than 24 because different content goes to different providers.

As my father explained to Christian, I am up for anything for this internship.

I really look forward to meeting you.

Please feel free to call me at any time.

Thank you.

To: Wade Parsons, Executive Producer and News Anchor, RNN Verizon Fios News

Subject: Letter of Support from Iona College for Anthony

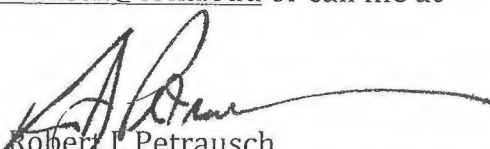

Dear Mr. Parsons:

I am writing this letter of support and recommendation for Anthony [redacted], a highly-talented student in the Mass Communication Department at Iona College. Although Mr. [redacted] will not be receiving college credit for the time spent this summer at RNN (Verizon Fios News1), Iona College is in support of this wonderful educational opportunity. Our hope is that you will provide a mentorship experience for Mr. Carlo that will contribute to his educational process at Iona and help him gain valuable news experience with a highly-regarded news professional such as yourself and others at RNN (Verizon Fios News).

The department has come to know the excellent work of Anthony during the time he has spent at Iona. I have known him in the role as chair of the department and consider him one of the best students in our department. As a student, he has excelled both inside and outside the classroom and has become an exemplar of what Iona wants from its students. He has received the highest evaluations from other organizations.

In my view, Anthony stands out as someone who has a serious dedication to the broadcast media field, is a valuable team player, and scholar who will be an asset to your organization.

Along with my endorsement, I would be happy to provide department support for him while he is at your organization this summer. You can reach me at rpetrausch@iona.edu or call me at [redacted].

This is to certify that Allie has officially qualified for our Internship Program for the Summer 2014 semester. She will receive college credit. Allie may start and end her internship at anytime that is mutually agreeable to both parties. She realizes that the total hours that are agreed upon will depend on the needs and available time of the internship site and her available hours. She must put in a minimum of 45 hours to receive credit. These hours will be considered like "a job" -- if she will be late or cannot make it in for any reason, she will call in and let you know. Hours during school "breaks" and/or holidays will be discussed with the site supervisor. The supervisor at the internship site will be asked to sign a Time Sheet to verify the completed hours.

Allie also realizes that normally no pay is involved, although some sites may help with transportation costs, lunch, etc.. If a student does get "hired" on a part-time (or full-time basis) this will not void her internship.

We look for this internship program to be mutually beneficial to both parties -- Allie will provide "free labor" while hopefully performing some useful and helpful tasks. Thank you for considering Allie. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at the college or at my home during the summer months.

Sincerely yours,
