

KUPS 90.1 FM

PROGRAM/ISSUE LIST

Public File Report

Call Letters:KUPS

Area: Tacoma, Washington

Reporting Period: Quarter 1 2022

(January 2022 - March 2022)

During the previous quarter, the issues listed below have been significant in our community.

This station ran the following programs to address these issues.

Program Title: The Strangest Days of Our Lives

Issue: Community Health

Community Health: Discuss the different effects on the health care systems during the Corona Virus. How healthcare has dealt with the changes of work loads and community needs. Interviewing Dr. Lisa Anderson- Davidson on topics of family work Making the best of the quarantine and the family she sees. Dr. Lisa Davidson has an RN in nursing is an instructor and practicing nurse with over thirty years of experience in the nursing field.

Program Length: 11:50

Program Aired: Mondays @8am

Program Title: The Strangest Days of Our Lives
Issue: Teaching During a Global Pandemic

Community Education: Discuss the different effects on the education system during the COVID 19. How a private school teacher has dealt with the changes of the classroom and teaching online after twenty-three years of teaching in person. Interviewing Malcolm Davidson on topics of how to connect to your students. Playing classic games like three letter Hangman. How to connect to your family. Recipes that bring comfort and warmth to your home. Malcolm Davidson has been a public and private school teacher. He specializes in middle school teaching fifth grade for the last twenty-three years.

Program Length 13:33

Program Aired: Mondays @8am

Program Title: The Strangest Days of Our Lives

Issue: Being a College Student during a Global Pandemic

Community College Students: Discuss the effects on a college during the COVID 19 global pandemic. How attending state college affects students. Living in dorms and the safety that is lacking for students. Taking classes online for the same money that in person costs. Is it worth it? Returning to living with your parents at home. Working as a student artist. Creating art to reflect the time of the corona virus. Inspiring a positive outlook on the world. Luka Huffines is a freshman at the Evergreen State College. He is an actor, visual artist and polymer clay sculpture. Luka sells art online and at sidewalk sales during the pandemic. Updates about his times selling at the Fremont Market.

Program Length: 11:00

Program Aired: Mondays @8am

Program Title: The Strangest Days of Our Lives

Issue: High Risk High School Students during a Global Pandemic

Community Educational Challenges: Discuss the effects on a high school student during the COVID 19 global pandemic. How attending an arts high school effects him. How living with the respiratory disease Cystic Fibrosis during COVID 19. The everyday risks of living with Cystic Fibrosis. What relieves your stress during COVID 19. What a good recipe is that will make you feel warm. What kind of music you enjoy during these stressful times. Long term damage to people at risk and what their survival rate is. Tres Huffines is a junior at Tacoma School of the Arts. He is also an actor, artist, musician and aspiring political activist.

Program Length: 9:09

Program Aired: Mondays @8am