

1500AM WASHINGTON, DC
103.9FM HD-2
107.7FM HD-2

COMMUNITY COMMITMENT REPORT
3RD QUARTER 2016
JUNE 26TH • SEPTEMBER 24TH

MOLLY WELTON
NEWSROOM ADMINISTRATOR &
PUBLIC AFFAIRS SPECIALIST

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section I	ASCERTAINMENT
Section II	PROGRAMMING
Section III	PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMMING
Section IV	SPECIAL PROGRAMMING
Section V	COMMUNITY OUTREACH
Section VI	PUBLIC SERVICE CAMPAIGNS

ASCERTAINMENT

As part of our continuing effort to serve our listeners, WFED Federal News Radio talked with various governmental and community leaders about the issues facing our area. The Top Three concerns were: Employee Pay & Benefits, Executive Branch Management and Cybersecurity.

The Top Issues were:

1. 2017 pay raises for civilian, military
2. Cybersecurity
3. Budget requests and Continuing Resolutions to fund the government
4. Longterm care insurance
5. Federal employee viewpoints on agency management
6. Federal Life Insurance options
7. Security clearances
8. Military health benefits
9. Thrift Savings Plans
10. Telework

PROGRAMMING

WFED Federal News Radio 1500 AM provides comprehensive coverage of the Federal Government. WFED reports the business of government: management, procurement, technology, security, policy, pay and benefits. In addition to daily coverage of the operations of the Federal Government, WFED features the following programs:

THE FEDERAL DRIVE

Tom Temin host's The Federal Drive, which airs weekdays from 6-10 a.m. The show reports and analyzes the latest news affecting the federal government, government contractors, and the community in which they operate.

AMTOWER OFF-CENTER

Hosted by nationally-known speaker and consultant Mark Amtower, Off-Center highlights the good, the bad, the ugly and the just plain silly of doing business in the government market. Every Monday at noon, experts join Mark for a lively discussion of current issues facing the government contractor community.

WOMEN OF WASHINGTON

Women of Washington features interviews with Washington D.C.'s ambitious and influential female executives; role models for the next generation Washington leader. Every Monday and Wednesday at 1 p.m., hosts Aileen Black and Gigi Schumm interview the most accomplished women in Washington, who share their life lessons and secrets to success. Contact Aileen and Gigi via email at gigi@accelgovstrat.com and aileen@accelgovstrat.com.

PENTAGON SOLUTIONS

Pentagon Solutions is a deep-dive conversation series that calls on defense experts both inside and outside of DoD to share ideas that will solve the big challenges the defense community faces. Federal News Radio's Tom Temin hosts Mondays at 2 p.m.

OFF THE SHELF

Hosted by Roger Waldron of the Coalition for Government Procurement, Off the Shelf interviews federal contracting experts from both inside and outside of government on the issues that matter most. Off The Shelf airs Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11 a.m.

FEDERAL TECH TALK

Federal Tech Talk looks at the world of high technology in the federal government. Host John Gilroy of Lectromec speaks the language of federal CISOs, CIOs and CTOs, and gets into the specifics for government IT systems integrators. Every Tuesday and Thursday at 1 p.m., John covers the latest government initiatives and the latest technology news for the federal IT manager and government contractor. Follow John on Twitter @raygilray.

YOUR TURN WITH MIKE CAUSEY

Senior Correspondent Mike Causey takes calls and emails live for an hour Wednesdays at 10 a.m. on Federal News Radio. Mike discusses everything from pay, benefits and retirement, to buyouts, COLAs and pay freezes. Questions can be sent to mcausey@FederalNewRadio.com or by calling during the show: 202-465-3080.

ON DoD

The one-hour show focuses on the programs and policies that affect the Defense Department. Each week, defense reporter Jared Serbu speaks one-on-one and in depth with the people responsible for managing the inner workings of the federal government's largest department, and those who know it best. On DoD airs Wednesdays, 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

ASK THE CIO

The Chief Information Officer is responsible for information technology policies and strategies that govern how individual Federal Government networks are managed. Every Thursday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., host Jason Miller interviews federal agency CIOs about the latest directives, IT challenges and successes.

FED ACCESS

From how to win government jobs and contracts, to effectively managing your government career, learning about interesting federal agencies, workers and jobs, and best utilizing government services, host Derrick Dortch explores the world of the federal government and provides you the access needed to succeed. Fed Access can be heard Fridays at noon.

AGENCY OF THE MONTH

Agency of the Month examines the many important facets of government agencies. Each month, Federal News Radio speaks with top executives from a specific agency about the issues most important to its mission. Agency of the Month airs Fridays at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

INTERNATIONAL EDITION

VOA's International Edition delivers insight into world news through eye-witnesses, correspondent reports and analysis from experts and news makers. It also keeps you in touch with social media, science and entertainment trends.

ISSUES IN THE NEWS

Prominent Washington correspondents discuss topics making headlines around the world in VOA's Issues in the News.

PRESS CONFERENCE USA

This weekly program provides listeners with information and insights on a wide range of topics spanning U.S. politics, foreign policy, global health, science and culture. Carol Castiel and other panelists interview bestselling authors, analysts, U.S. government officials, ambassadors and foreign heads of state about critical issues.

ENCOUNTER

VOA's Encounter brings depth, perspective, and insight to the world around us. Each week, host Carol Castiel is joined by two advocates from the world of politics, culture, public policy, or academia. Critical issues in the news that affect our lives and global stability are debated and discussed in a free-wheeling, unscripted discussion of fact and opinion.

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Hosted by noted jazz expert Dick Golden, this educational series presents traditional jazz and the stories behind the music. GW Presents American Jazz is produced by The GW Global Media Institute in association with Tony Bennett's Exploring the Arts Foundation, The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and The Duke Ellington School of the Arts. It airs on weekends.

THE KALB REPORT

Moderated by legendary journalist Marvin Kalb, The Kalb Report is an award-winning public television, radio and online series exploring the transformation of journalism in the 21st century and the vital role of the press in our democracy. It's produced jointly by the George Washington University, the Shorenstein Center at Harvard University, the National Press Club Journalism Institute, University of Maryland University College, and the University of Maryland Philip Merrill College of Journalism. It airs on weekends.

THIS JUST IN

Hosted by CBS Anchor and Reporter Sam Litzinger, This Just In brings you the story of news and the people behind the headlines. This Just In is presented by The GW Global Media Institute in association with The Newseum and the National Press Club and airs weekends.

MUSIC AND THE SPOKEN WORD

"From the crossroads of the West, we welcome you to a program of inspirational music and spoken word." Those words, from more than eight decades ago, still open the program. Today, Music and the Spoken Word has become the world's longest-running continuous network broadcast and is carried on more than 2,000 radio and television stations and cable systems. It can be heard Sundays at 7 a.m.

CBS WEEKEND ROUNDUP

CBS News national correspondent Dan Raviv presents a compilation of interviews with CBS News radio and TV correspondents and various newsmakers, reports through the week that have aired both on CBS-TV and CBS Radio, and commentary from actor and TV personality Charles Grodin. CBS Weekend Roundup airs at 5 p.m. Sundays.

MEET THE PRESS

For almost as long as there has been television, there's been "Meet the Press." The hour long public affairs program features interviews with U.S. and world leaders, and reviews, analyzes and discusses the news of the week -- all while looking toward the week ahead. Hosted by NBC's Chuck Todd, Meet The Press airs Sundays at 8 p.m.

MOTLEY FOOL MONEY

A team of Motley Fool analysts discuss the week's top business and investing stories, interviews, and take an inside look at the stocks on their radar. Hosted by Chris Hill, Motley Fool Money airs Sundays at 9 p.m.

OF CONSUMING INTEREST

Of Consuming Interest focuses on consumer issues, offering tips on everything from selecting health care programs to avoiding telemarketing scams. Shirley Rooker, Director of Call For Action, is the host and Of Consuming Interest airs Sundays at 10:30 p.m.

SPORTS PROGRAMMING

Federal News Radio is home to sports teams in the Washington, D.C. region airing games for American University Sports, George Washington University Sports, Navy Athletics and the Washington Nationals.

THE FEDERAL FOOTBALL REPORT

Join Claude Jennings and Kevin Stanfield at 7 p.m. the day following a Washington Redskins football game to get highlights, analysis, and a unique perspective on all things Burgundy and Gold.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMMING

PENTAGON SOLUTIONS

-  New DoD rules for contractors aim to limit impact of insider threat
Pentagon Solutions looks at how the Defense Department is trying to tackle insider threats within the contract space. Jim Harris, senior counsel for the law firm Holland and Knight, shares all the details on Pentagon Solutions. Also, what's congress doing to address the bid protest problem? For analysis, Pentagon Solutions turns to Stuart Turner, a counsel at the law firm Arnold and Porter.
Monday, June 27th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes
-  Independence Day – MLB Washington Nationals vs. Milwaukee Brewers
Monday, July 4th w 12:05 p.m.
-  Pentagon needs more data to save money
Defense Department officials have identified tens of billions in potential savings, but a lack of data is hampering their ability do anything about it. John Pendleton, director of defense capabilities and management issues at the GAO, has more on Pentagon Solutions. The race is on in NIPRNet/SIPRNet Cyber Security Architecture Review. Pete Dinsmore, the risk technology executive at DISA, explains the goals for NSCSAR and how they'll get there.
Monday, July 11th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes
-  Lawmakers skeptical about DoD, VA health records interoperability
The departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs certified to Congress that their electronic health records were finally interoperable. That was three months ago. And lawmakers aren't satisfied with that assertion. Federal News Radio's Jared Serbu reports on Pentagon Solutions; Worldwide defense spending is on the rise - That's the assessment from Deloitte in its annual performance study, according to Retired Air Force General Chuck Wald, vice chairman and senior advisor at Deloitte.
Monday, July 18th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes
-  DoD moves away from subjectivity in procurement evaluations
DoD's newest procurement system attempts to walk the line between best value and lowest-priced, technically acceptable. Attorney Sharon Larkin, a partner at Steptoe and Johnson, explained that Pentagon Solutions. Defense Department officials say they need more flexibility to hire, fire and pay employees in critical cybersecurity jobs. Federal News Radio's Jared Serbu reports, DoD is about to launch a new personnel system to help them do that.
Monday, July 25th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes
-  Navy hopes to find training solutions in virtual environments
It's all part of the long term effort known as Sailor 2025. Captain Bill McKinley, commanding officer of the Center for Surface Combat Systems, discussed the current state of this project on Pentagon Solutions. The Pentagon's 3rd offset strategy is a way of restoring the competitive edge the U.S. military has had for several decades. Dan Goure, vice president at Lexington Institute says one of the armed services is doing a better job at it.
Monday, August 1st w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

Updated DoD data policy means changes for intelligence community

The Defense Department is changing its policy on collection and retention of privacy-related data about U.S. citizens. That means changes for the way the intelligence community does business. Federal News Radio's Scott Maucione spoke with some experts on Pentagon Solutions to find out exactly what this new policy means in practice; The Air Force is reorganizing its entire space workforce and adding new training programs. Colonel Dean Sniegowski is the total force lead for the Space Mission Force and talks about the changes. Monday, August 8th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

Lawmaker taps new sources for female and minority DoD leadership

A new bill in the House would take a novel approach to increasing the numbers of women and minorities in high ranking positions in the Defense Department, both uniformed and civilian. It would use grants to fund organizations devoted to leadership development and mentoring. The sponsor, Rep. Marc Veasey (D-Texas), discusses the bill on Pentagon Solutions; There are problems getting it built and perfected, but the Littoral Combat Ship is going to be an important part of the Navy's fleet. Retired Navy commander Jim Feldkamp, now an adjunct professor at George Mason University, discusses. Monday, August 15th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

Michael Roark: Is the Army consistent in measuring past performance on contracts?

Vendor past performance is a big factor in awarding federal contracts. Or it should be. It's a smart practice and at the Defense Department, it's also a requirement. That's why the DoD inspector general looked at 56 Army contracts awarded by five Army contracting shops to see whether the Army was consistent in evaluating past performance. Michael Roark, DoD's assistant inspector general for contract management and payments, joins Federal Drive with Tom Temin with the results.

Monday, August 22nd w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

How DISA shifted from exclusive cloud provider to facilitator

For nearly 10 years, the Defense Information Systems Agency has been working to provide secure cloud computing to DoD agencies. DISA now helps agencies use commercial providers in a secure way. John Hale, the cloud portfolio manager at DISA, explains more on Pentagon Solutions; It's no secret that the Pentagon's wartime budget is now funding a lot of day-to-day requirements, but DoD accounting systems can't tell how much. Andrew Van Ah, GAO's acting director for Defense Capabilities and Management talks to Jared Serbu about the O&M accounting problem.

Monday, August 29th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

Inside DISA's new cybersecurity command center

Scott Airforce Base in Illinois is home to the Global Operations Command of the Defense Information Systems Agency, 164,000 square feet devoted to cybersecurity. Colonel Paul Craft, the commander, described the new center in an interview with Federal News Radio's Jared Serbu on Pentagon Solutions; J. V. Venable, senior research fellow for defense policy at Heritage, talks about his findings in a comprehensive assessment of the Air Force's F-35 fifth generation fighter.

Monday, September 5th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

Pentagon's IG explains delays in whistleblower reprisal investigations

The Pentagon's acting inspector general tells Congress budget shortfalls are to blame for delays in investigating whistleblower reprisal claims. Federal News Radio's Jared Serbu has more about it on Pentagon Solutions. The Defense Department has a byzantine process that's meant to ensure it only acquires what it really needs. But there's no comparable set of guardrails to make sure it doesn't get rid of things it does need, and it has. John Pendleton, director of Defense capability and management issues at GAO, talks about it.

Monday, September 12th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

McCain criticizes administration's handling of cyber defense

The chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee lashes out at the Obama Administration — accusing officials of failing to consult with Congress on important cyber defense topics. John McCain says the administration has failed to deliver a strategy on deterring hackers; The Army has had success with robots in the last few years. But you could characterize Army robotics as version 1.0. The next generation of robots must be better.

Sandra Erwin, editor of National Defense magazine, shares more on Pentagon Solutions.

Monday, September 19th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

YOUR TURN WITH MIKE CAUSEY

When to retire and other pearls of retirement wisdom

Tammy Flanagan, senior benefits director at the National Institute of Transition Planning, answers your questions about transitioning into retirement.

Wednesday, June 29th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Social security & military benefits

NARFE's Jessica Klement and John Hatton join host Mike Causey on the first half of today's Your Turn to discuss reforms to the Windfall Elimination Provision or WEP. Later in the show. Brig. Gen. Mike Meese (Ret.) will talk about what's pending in the Defense Authorization Act and a change to the military TSP plan.

Wednesday, July 6th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Is there an "age gap" in your office?

Federal News Radio reporters Nicole Ogrysko and Meredith Somers join host Mike Causey to discuss a recent FNR report of the impact of millennials on the federal workplace.

Wednesday, July 13th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Why are LTC premiums going up?

Long term care premiums are going up. So what should you do? Paul Forte and Joan Melanson with Long Term Care Partners, will answer that question when they join host Mike Causey on this week's Your Turn radio program.

Wednesday, July 20th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Protecting your TSP nest egg

What can you do to protect and grow your TSP account? Financial planner Arthur Stein has some ideas and will share them when he joins host Mike Causey on this week's Your Turn radio program.

Wednesday, July 27th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

The “bad” side of publicity

What happens when a government agency receives bad publicity for something it is doing? Find out this week when Federal News Radio reporters Nicole Ogrysko and Meredith Somers join host Mike Causey on Your Turn.

Wednesday, August 3rd w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Social Security & TRICARE

John Grobe, president of Federal Career Experts will answer your questions about Social Security, and the best day for you to retire from the federal government.

Wednesday, August 10th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

What are your options with LTC premium hike?

Paul Forte and Joan Melanson of Long Term Care Partners, the company that administers the FLTCIP, join Senior Correspondent Mike Causey on Your Turn to answer questions about long-term care coverage and benefits.

Wednesday, August 17th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Senior executives & presidential transitions

How will the presidential transition affect you? And what are you likely to face in January? Find out when SEA acting president Jason Briefel joins host Mike Causey this week on Your Turn.

Wednesday, August 24th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

Pathways Program & open season

Federal News Radio's Jason Miller, Meredith Somers, and Mike O'Connell join host Mike Causey to discuss the Pathways Program, the upcoming health and life insurance open seasons, and the nearly useless factoid that appears in Mike's daily column.

Wednesday, August 31st w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

FEGLI open season & WAEPA

Federal News Radio reporter Nicole Ogrysko joins host Mike Causey to discuss the Federal Employee Group Life Insurance program open season and Shane Canfield will discuss the Worldwide Assurance for Employees of Public Agencies program.

Wednesday, September 7th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

FEGLI & FLTCIP

John Grobe, author of “The Answer Book on Your Federal Employee Benefits”, joins host Mike Causey to discuss what feds should consider when making decisions about their group life insurance packages.

Wednesday, September 14th w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

 Answers to your long-term care questions

What, if any, changes should you make to your coverage in the federal long term care insurance program? Paul Forte and Joan Melanson with Long Term Care Partners will answer that question and explain the long-term care insurance dilemma when they join host Mike Causey on this week's Your Turn radio show.

Wednesday, September 21st w 10 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

On DoD

 On DoD: time to end 'abuse' of Pentagon's wartime fund

A new report from a Washington-based think tank points to an ever-widening disconnect between the size of the Defense Department's Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO) fund and the troop levels it was originally meant to pay for, citing that fact as one reason to eliminate the separate OCO budget once and for all. Laicie Heeley, a fellow at the Stimson Center and a coauthor of the report discusses it with Jared Serbu.

Wednesday, June 29th, July 6th & July 13th w 11 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

 Air Force Profession of Arms Center of Excellence

For the past two years, the Defense Department has been heightening its focus on the subject of professionalism: In 2014, then-secretary Chuck Hagel appointed DoD's first-ever senior advisor for military professionalism in the wake of a handful of high-profile ethics scandals. On this week's edition of On DoD, Federal News Radio's Jared Serbu talks with Col. Jeffrey Smith \(ret.\), the director of the Air Force Profession of Arms Center of Excellence (PACE).

Wednesday, July 20th w 11 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

 Army says logistics IT system has saved at least \$6 billion

The Army Logistics Maintenance Program eliminated $2 billion in costs for old systems maintenance and cut $4 billion in "spare" parts the Army doesn't need. Lt. Col. Robert Williams, the product manager for LMP and Joshua Call of Army Materiel Command discuss the program's progress.

Wednesday, July 27th w 11 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

 On DoD: Pentagon needs to shore up JIE cost, scope, GAO says

By the end of this calendar year, the Defense Department plans to deliver new assessments of the cost and scope of the Joint Information Environment, the ambitious, four-year-old project to unify an estimated 15,000 IT networks and improve its security posture. Carol Harris, GAO's Director for IT acquisition management issues talks about it. DoD's perspective is noted in a 2015 interview recorded with David Cotton, DoD Deputy CIO for Information Enterprise.

Wednesday, August 3rd w 11 a.m.w 54:00 minutes

-  Air Force reorganizes its space forces in preparation for ‘thinking adversaries’
The Air Force is in the midst of a significant reorganization of its space workforce. Under a new construct termed the Space Mission Force, Air Force Space Command is overhauling the training and duty rotations of most of its uniformed workforce to reflect the fact that potential enemies might want to knock out the satellites that just about every modern-day military mission depends on. On DoD today, Colonel Dean Sniegowski, the total force lead for the Space Mission Force; Paul Stockton, former Assistant Secretary of Defense for Homeland Defense discusses a new Presidential policy directive aimed at better coordination of the U.S. response to cyberattacks.
Wednesday, August 10th w 11 a.m. & 2 p.m. w 54:00 minutes
-  Army says logistics IT system has saved at least \$6 billion
The Army Logistics Maintenance Program eliminated $2 billion in costs for old systems maintenance and cut $4 billion in “spare” parts the Army doesn’t need. Lt. Col. Robert Williams, the product manager for LMP and Joshua Call of Army Materiel Command discuss the program’s progress.
Wednesday, August 17th, August 24th & August 31st w 11 a.m. & 2 p.m. w 54:00 minutes
-  Air Force reorganizes its space forces in preparation for ‘thinking adversaries’
The Air Force is in the midst of a significant reorganization of its space workforce. Under a new construct termed the Space Mission Force, Air Force Space Command is overhauling the training and duty rotations of most of its uniformed workforce to reflect the fact that potential enemies might want to knock out the satellites that just about every modern-day military mission depends on. On DoD today, Colonel Dean Sniegowski, the total force lead for the Space Mission Force; Paul Stockton, former Assistant Secretary of Defense for Homeland Defense discusses a new Presidential policy directive aimed at better coordination of the U.S. response to cyberattacks.
Wednesday, September 7th w 11 a.m. & 2 p.m. w 54:00 minutes
-  On DoD: Finding a different approach to buying and building software
Software is hugely important, not just because the department spends billions of dollars to buy and build it, but because it’s increasingly a vital part of every piece of equipment DoD buys. Ben Fitzgerald, senior fellow at the Center for New American Security, joins Jared Serbu via Skype.
Wednesday, September 14th & 21st w 11 a.m. & 2 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

ASK THE CIO (CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER)

-  Air Force Office of Special Investigations to make jump to enterprise-wide network
Chuck Elmore, the chief information officer of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, said he expects to move most of the agency’s 240 locations to the Air Force Network (AFNET) over the next year. But Elmore said the transition to Windows 10 will not be as easy.
Thursday, June 30th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

-  Train derailment highlights need for better IT collaboration among feds, local govts.
Ed Leonard, the Washington D.C. Fire and EMS Agency chief information officer, said when a recent CSX train went off track, the lack of interoperability hampered some of the information sharing between his office and his federal counterparts.
Thursday, July 7th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes
-  Technology helps NIH bureau solve foodborne mysteries
Ivor D'Souza, the chief information officer of the National Institutes of Health's National Library of Medicine, said an interagency effort to cut the time it takes to connect the dots during an outbreak is paying off.
Thursday, July 14th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes
-  Collaboration, cloud leading to consolidation of 17 USDA networks
The Agriculture Department will be among the first large agencies to use the next-generation telecommunication contract currently going through the procurement process. USDA is looking to the General Services Administration's NS2020 umbrella vehicle to finally consolidate more than 15 disparate networks. Jonathan Alboum, USDA's chief information officer, said this initiative is more of a network modernization effort than consolidation effort.
Thursday, July 21st w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes
-  HHS, DoT making the buzz around innovation a reality
The Transportation Department and the Department of Health and Human Services are taking the buzz out of innovation, Transportation CIO Chris Gerdes and Entrepreneur-in Residence program at HHS Julie Schneider tell Ask the CIO with Jason Miller.
Thursday, July 28th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes
-  SSA, VA finding people are the path to IT modernization
Few agencies have bigger hills to climb to modernize their technology infrastructures than the Social Security Administration and the Department of Veterans Affairs. Rob Klopp, the SSA chief information officer, and Rob Thomas, the deputy assistant secretary and principal deputy CIO in VA's Office of Information and Technology, talk to Ask the CIO with Jason Miller.
Thursday, August 4th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes
-  FERC finding a way to modernize IT with, without extra funding
Christina Handley, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's chief information officer, tells Ask the CIO with Jason Miller the agency recently upgraded parts of its network backbone.
Thursday, August 11th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes
-  Pentagon relying on a different kind of FBI to fight cyberattacks
Dave Mihelcic, the chief technology officer at the Defense Information Systems Agency, tells Ask the CIO with Jason Miller, "One of the biggest applications today is called Fight by Indicator (FBI). It has improved our effectiveness in being able to detect, diagnose and mitigate attacks by 500 percent."
Thursday, August 18th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

Labor's BLS is shrinking its IT footprint

Carol Mullins, associate commissioner for the Office of Technology and Survey Processing for the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics, tells Ask the CIO with Jason Miller the bureau's effort to reduce its servers, applications and other IT components is coming to fruition over the next year.

Thursday, August 25th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

Collaboration, cloud leading to consolidation of 17 USDA networks

The Agriculture Department will be among the first large agencies to use the next-generation telecommunication contract currently going through the procurement process. USDA is looking to the General Services Administration's NS2020 umbrella vehicle to finally consolidate more than 15 disparate networks. Jonathan Alboum, USDA's chief information officer, said this initiative is more of a network modernization effort than consolidation effort.

Thursday, September 1st w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

Navy takes on demand side of cyber workforce

The Department of the Navy released new guidance with the goal of expanding the number of and type of cybersecurity worker. The idea behind the policy is to accept more certifications and qualifications from sailors, seamen and civilians instead of the one-size fits all approach of yesteryear. Rob Foster, the Department of the Navy's chief information officer, and Jennifer Harper, the Navy CIO's cyber IT and cybersecurity workforce program join Jason Miller.

Thursday, September 8th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

HUD takes control of IT from program offices

The Department of Housing and Urban Development is correcting years of technology neglect. In the past, the program offices throughout the agency had little regard for technology architectures or standards, and shadow IT was running rampant. But over the last two years, Rafael Diaz, HUD's chief information officer, has turned up the HEAT—the HUD Enterprise Architecture Transformation initiative. Diaz said HEAT is changing the agency's IT environment.

Thursday, September 15th w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

Bureau of Engraving and Printing clearing way for cloud, better data analytics

Harry Singh, the deputy associate director and deputy CIO of Treasury's Bureau of Engraving and Printing, talks to Jason Miller on Ask the CIO.

Thursday, September 22nd w 10 a.m. & 2 p.m.w 54:00 minutes

AGENCY OF THE MONTH

JULY: UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

Postal inspectors stamp out crime

Most people don't know that the U.S. Postal Inspection Service is one of the oldest federal law enforcement agencies, tracing its roots back to Benjamin Franklin, the first Postmaster General. Most people don't even know it exists. That's why it's looking for new and innovative ways to reach out to the public, make its existence known, and inform the public about mail-based threats to law and order. Guy Cottrell, chief postal inspector, is this week's guest on Federal News Radio's Agency of the Month program, featuring the U.S. Postal Service for the month of July.

Friday, July 1st w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

USPS launches tech-savvy customer service pilot program

Informed Delivery is a new pilot program launched by the U.S. Postal service to keep customers up-to-date with parcels coming to their homes while they're away or at work. The program, which is running betas in both New York City and the Northern Virginia area, was pioneered by Gary Reblin, vice president for new products and innovation. Reblin wants to make Americans more aware of what mail comes to their door every day, and he joins us for week two's episode of Federal News Radio's Agency of the Month program, featuring the U.S. Postal Service for the month of July.

Friday, July 8th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

From e-commerce to drones, USPS looks for competitive edge

The U.S. Postal Service has always been known for its mail service, but in recent years it has grown in new ways to survive. More recently, it has been integrating e-commerce and shipping by becoming competitive with other shippers. "We have some distinctive advantages in the marketplace," said Jim Cochrane, Chief Marketing and Sales Officer for the postal service on week three's episode of Federal News Radio's Agency of the Month program, featuring the U.S. Postal Service for the month of July. "We go everywhere — we knock on 153 million doors every day to deliver the mail."

Friday, July 15th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

4 keystones of USPS' reform wish list

The United States Postal Service exists in a strange limbo: it does not qualify as a federal agency because it is completely self-funded, yet it is subject to congressional oversight. That can be a frustrating situation for executives who must figure out how to function under the restrictions imposed by lawmakers. Jeff Williamson, chief human resources officer at USPS, outlined four key changes he would like to see in postal reform legislation on week four's episode of Federal News Radio's Agency of the Month program, featuring the USPS for the month of July.

Friday, July 22nd w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 Postal inspectors stamp out crime (Encore presentation)

As long as there's been a postal service, there's been a Postal Inspection Service to make sure nothing illicit gets mailed. It's one of the oldest federal law enforcement agencies and most people don't even know it exists. Guy Cottrell, chief postal inspector, is this week's guest on Federal News Radio's Agency of the Month program, featuring the U.S. Postal Service for the month of July.

Friday, July 29th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

AUGUST: NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

 Park Service growing forests without growing maintenance backlog

The National Park Service has a deferred maintenance backlog equal to the price of an aircraft carrier: $11.9 billion. Make a list of all the different types of projects that need attending to at more than 400 park units nationwide, and you have the facilities maintenance task list of a major city. Bob Wilbur, chief of the Park Facility Management Division of the National Park Service, says there isn't enough funding to address everything.

Friday, August 5th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 How a new type of contract helped one agency save green by going green

A new contracting project from the Department of Energy is helping the National Park Service save thousands of dollars a year in its smallest region by becoming more energy efficient. The project has been so successful, DoE has recognized it with an award. Doug Jacobs, deputy associate regional director for Lands, Planning and Design on week two of Agency of the Month, featuring NPS for the month of August.

Friday, August 12th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 NPS ensures no one left out at national parks

When people think about national parks, "handicap accessible" is probably not one of the first things they think. But the National Park Service wants to change that, says Jacob Buzzell, chief of the National Accessibility branch at NPS, on week three of Agency of the Month, featuring the National Park Service for the month of August.

August 19th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 NPS pursues partnerships to boost international, digital presence

The National Park Service is celebrating its centennial by going international, embracing digital culture and exploring new ways of fundraising and promoting itself. Johnathan Jarvis, director of NPS, laid out just a few ways his agency is achieving that goal on week four of Agency of the Month, featuring the National Park Service for the month of August.

August 26th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 DoD's ongoing O&M accounting problem

It's no secret that the Pentagon's wartime budget is now funding a lot of day-to-day requirements, but DoD accounting systems can't tell how much. Andrew Von Ah, GAO's acting director for Defense Capabilities and Management talks to Jared Serbu about the O&M accounting problem.

Friday, September 2nd w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

SEPTEMBER: AIR FORCE

 Inside DISA's new cybersecurity command center

Scott Airforce Base in Illinois is home to the Global Operations Command of the Defense Information Systems Agency, 164,000 square feet devoted to cybersecurity. It's the Global Operations Command of the Defense Information Systems Agency. Colonel Paul Craft, the commander, described the new center in an interview with Federal News Radio's Jared Serbu on Pentagon Solutions.

Friday, September 9th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 GAO disagrees with Air Force's plan to divest 'iconic' plane

The Government Accountability Office is not convinced that getting rid of a 40-year-old fighter jet is as good an idea as the Air Force seems to think. "Let's talk a little bit about what the A-10 is, and what all it does," said John Pendelton, director of defense capability and management issues at GAO, on week two of Agency of the Month, featuring Air Force for the month of September. "I mean, it's iconic, right? It's a flying tank; it's got the Gatling gun in front.

Friday, September 16th w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

 Air Force sets up task forces for big future changes

The Air Force is considering serious fundamental changes as a means to prepare for the 21st century. That includes a possible change to the makeup and structure of Air Force squadrons, said Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. David Goldfein during a Sept. 20 speech. Goldfein announced he would set up three task forces, which will work over the next four years to come up with answers for the Air Force.

Friday, September 23rd w 2 p.m. w 24:00 minutes

PROGRAMMING FROM THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

 THE KALB REPORT

45 Words: A Conversation with U.S. Supreme Court Justices Antonin Scalia and Ruth Bader Ginsburg on the First Amendment

On this edition of The Kalb Report, Supreme Court Justices Antonin Scalia and Ruth Bader Ginsburg join journalist/scholar Marvin Kalb to offer their views of those 45 words in a rare glimpse behind the gavel and inside one of our nation's vital branches of government.

Sunday, June 26th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

 GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, July 2nd w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

 THE KALB REPORT

The American Story: A Master Class with David McCullough

On this special daytime edition of The Kalb Report, moderator Marvin Kalb and David McCullough, the renowned author and historian, discuss our founding fathers (and mothers), freedom of the press and the challenges facing our democracy today.

Sunday, July 3rd w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, July 9th w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

THE KALB REPORT

The Sound of News: An Evening with NPR

Each week, an average of more than 27 million people tune in to National Public Radio (NPR) programming, placing listenership at near-record highs. So, in this digital age, what is the secret to the stunning success of America's original electronic medium? NPR icons Steve Inskeep, Mara Liasson, Scott Simon, Susan Stamberg, and Nina Totenberg discuss craft and impact, the art of storytelling, and the magic of radio with journalist/scholar Marvin Kalb on this edition of The Kalb Report.

Sunday, July 10th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, July 16th w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, July 23rd w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

THIS JUST IN

Covering the Capitol: Today and Yesterday

Bret Baier, riding a wave of popularity as host of the Fox News program Special Report talks to Barbara Porter. Special Report is a long time winner in its time slot, noteworthy for its coverage of the news and its panel discussions that attempt to shed light on the major issues of the day. Then John Mayer goes back to a simpler time for a look at an unlikely Washington correspondent, Mark Twain.

Sunday, July 24th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, July 30th & Sunday, July 31st w 25:00 minutes

(MLB - SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS VS. WASHINGTON NATIONALS 3:30 PM)

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, August 6th w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

THIS JUST IN

Photo Finish: The Sports Photography of Neil Leifer

They are our heroes, our rivals, and our champions. Athletes win our hearts in one game, only to break them in the next. And throughout the season, Neil Leifer captures those fleeting moments of triumph and despair on camera. Join the acclaimed sports photographer as he shares his experiences from the hometown bleachers to the Olympic stadium. Lasting images of Mohammed Ali, Secretariat, and the "Miracle" hockey team are just a few of the stops along the way. Shelby Coffey, former editor of The Los Angeles Times, interviews Leifer at the Newseum on a tour of the exhibit, "Photo Finish: The Sports Photography of Neil Leifer." Sunday, August 7th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, August 13th w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

THIS JUST IN

Satchmo at the National Press Club: The Lost Louis Armstrong Session

On January 29, 1971 the late, great Louis Armstrong wowed a crowd of dignitaries and journalists in what would be one of his final performances of his life at the National Press Club's Presidential Inauguration in Washington, D.C. A crew from CBS News captured Armstrong's memorable 30-minute set that night in a recording that until recently, was believed to have vanished. Listen in as journalists and jazz artists alike remember Satchmo and his signature sound.

Sunday, August 14th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, August 20th w 3 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

THIS JUST IN

See You on the Radio: A Master Class in the Art of Storytelling

Charles Osgood has been called the poet in residence at CBS, and one of the last great broadcast writers. The literary icon shared some of the secrets of his storybook success in a special master class conducted by Professor Michael Freedman as part of his George Washington University Media History Course taught at the Newseum.

Sunday, August 21st w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, August 27th w 8 p.m. w 108:00 minutes

THE KALB REPORT

Covering Washington and the World: A Conversation with Judy Woodruff

In a distinguished network television career that began with her coverage of Jimmy Carter's presidential campaign for NBC News, Judy Woodruff has remained at the pinnacle of broadcast journalism for 40 years. On this edition of The Kalb Report, moderator Marvin Kalb and Judy Woodruff discuss an American presidential campaign that has defied conventional wisdom, coverage of today's global news, world press freedom, women in journalism, and the challenges public television faces in a perceived partisan media landscape.

Saturday, August 27th & Sunday, August 28th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

THE KALB REPORT

The American Story: A Master Class with David McCullough

From his Pulitzer-prize winning biographies John Adams and Truman, to his distinctive narration of Ken Burns' seminal documentaries "The Civil War" and "Baseball," David McCullough is perhaps America's most recognized storyteller. On this edition of The Kalb Report, moderator Marvin Kalb and McCullough, the renowned author and historian, discuss our founding fathers (and mothers), freedom of the press and the challenges facing our democracy today.

Sunday September 4th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

THE KALB REPORT

Sunday Talk: A Conversation with Chuck Todd and John Dickerson

For more than 60 years, Americans have turned to network television on Sunday morning for intelligent, insightful discourse on issues of politics and public policy. A proud history, however, does not guarantee future success in a digital world and a dramatically changing television landscape. On this edition of The Kalb Report, moderator Marvin Kalb explores the past, present and future of Sunday talk with the hosts of the two highest rated and longest airing public affairs programs -- Chuck Todd of NBC's "Meet the Press" and John Dickerson of CBS's "Face the Nation."

Sunday, September 11th w 7 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Sunday, September 18th w 12 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

THIS JUST IN

See You on the Radio: A Master Class in the Art of Storytelling

Charles Osgood has been called the poet in residence at CBS, and one of the last great broadcast writers. The literary icon shared some of the secrets of his storybook success in a special master class conducted by Professor Michael Freedman as part of his George Washington University Media History Course taught at the Newseum.

Saturday, September 24th w 2 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

GW PRESENTS AMERICAN JAZZ

Saturday, September 24th w 4 p.m. w 54:00 minutes

MUSIC AND THE SPOKEN WORD

-  Program #4518
Sunday, June 26th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4477: “Best of Independence Day”
Sunday, July 3rd • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4530
Sunday, July 10th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4519
Sunday, July 17th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4520
Sunday, July 24th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4522
Sunday, July 31st • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4523
Sunday, August 7th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4525
Sunday, August 14th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4526
Sunday, August 21st • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program # 4528
Sunday, August 28th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program # 4486: “Forged in Iron”
Sunday, September 4th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program #4278: “Rising Above with Tom Brokaw”
Sunday, September 11th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min
-  Program # 4532: “A Successful Dad”
Sunday, September 18th • 7 a.m. • 28:00 min

OF CONSUMING INTEREST

Sunscreen: what's good and where it falls short

Trisha Calvo of Consumer Reports discusses types of sunscreen, how to use them effectively and what the SPF really means.

Sunday, June 26th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

The privacy of your medical records

Twila Brase of the Citizens' Council for Health Freedom discusses the changes that are being made in the way doctors are reimbursed for services and whether a national data base of medical information can be protected against hacking.

Sunday, July 3rd • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Read the fine print

Edgar Dworsky, founder of Consumer World, discusses sales that aren't really sales, deceptive advertising and the gotchas in the fine print.

Sunday, July 10th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Managing your money

Matt Schulz of CreditCards.com discusses a study on how consumers manage their money based on credit scores and other factors. Marylanders were the worst, followed by D.C., and Virginia was in fourth place. Why is this true and what does it mean for area residents?

Sunday, July 17th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

The Insurance Fraud Hall of Shame

Jim Quiggle of the Coalition Against Insurance Fraud discusses the nonprofit's Insurance Fraud Hall of Shame, which highlights the worst insurance scams of 2015.

Sunday, July 24th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Credit Card Fees

CreditCards.com senior industry analyst Matt Schulz discusses your credit card's fees, including those that may be charged for foreign currency transactions.

Sunday, July 31st • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Lowering Your Taxes

Kay Bell, Bankrate.com's tax expert and author of The Truth About Paying Fewer Taxes, discusses strategies for lowering your taxes and legitimate deductions that people don't know about or don't use effectively. She also discusses various plans for retirement.

Sunday, August 7th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Crowdfunding: The Good and the Bad

Owen Donley with the Securities and Exchange Commission discusses crowdfunding and its pluses and minuses, as well as the concerns about asset recovery companies.

Sunday, August 14th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Best and worst airlines

Jill Gonzales, an analyst with WalletHub, reveals the result of a study that focused on the best and worst airlines in terms of overall quality, comfort, reliability, and customer satisfaction.

Sunday, August 21st • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Making legal help affordable

Tom Gordon of Responsive Law explains the small, but significant developments that are making legal help more available and affordable. He also discusses ways to check out a lawyer and the necessity of a written contract.

Sunday, August 28th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Getting a home loan

David Ginsburg of Loantech describes a new loan calculator that helps consumers compare home loans and find the best deal.

Sunday, September 4th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Common car insurance myths

Laura Adams of InsuranceQuotes.com debunks many of the common myths about car insurance.

Sunday, September 11th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

Disaster Preparedness

Madelyn Flannagan and Sue Nester, representatives of the Independent Insurance Agents and Brokers of America and Trusted Choice, discuss the results of a new study which reveals consumers are not prepared for a natural disaster.

Sunday, September 18th • 10:30 p.m. • 25:00 minutes

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

2016 w Reporter's Notebook

"Reporter's Notebook" is a weekly dispatch of news and information you may have missed or that slipped through the cracks at conferences, hearings and other events. This is not a column or commentary – it's news tidbits, strongly-sourced buzz, and other items of interest that have happened or are happening in the federal IT and acquisition communities. Submit ideas, suggestions and, of course, news to Jason via email.

2016 w DoD Reporter's Notebook

"DoD Reporter's Notebook" is a biweekly feature focused on news about the Defense Department and defense community, as gathered by Federal News Radio DoD Reporter Jared Serbu. Submit your ideas, suggestions and news tips to Jared via email.

2016 w Webinars/Online chats

Federal News Radio online chats give participants a chance to interact directly with government executives and federal experts. During each chat, participants are given the opportunity to submit questions and comments to be addressed during the event.

June 28 – Webinar - Enhancing Govt. Workforce through IT

July 26 – On DoD Chat with Lt. Col Robert Williams of the Army Logistics Modernization Program, Jared Serbu moderates

July 26 – Ask the CIO Chat with Jonathan Alboum, USDA, Jason Miller moderates

August 10 – Military Health Benefits, chat with DHA's Deputy Director for the TRICARE Health Plan, Edward Simmer & FNR's Mike Causey

August 16 – CIO Chat with Alastair Thomson, NIH's National Heart Lung and Blood Institute, Jason Miller Moderates

Week of June 27, 2016 w What Millennials Really Want from Federal Service

Burdened by student debt, the youngest federal employees are entering the workforce later than their predecessors. As part of Federal News Radio's special report, What Millennials Really Want from Federal Service, most young employees said they'd prefer to stay in government, as long as they have opportunities to develop their skills, careers and benefits.

September 2016 w CIOs optimism growing around IT modernization, FITARA

Federal News Radio's exclusive survey of federal chief information officers and deputy CIOs found OMB's IT Modernization Fund has been well-received, but some believe a hybrid approach would better suit agency needs. Part of our executive survey series, the 2016 CIO survey dives into the state of IT in government today.

SEPTEMBER 2016 – ADVANCES IN HEALTH CARE

Federal News Radio looks at ways that agencies are supporting advances in health care.

-  Sept. 6 w High risk projects yield big rewards at NIH
Elizabeth Wilder, Director, Office of Strategic Coordination at NIH
When the National Institutes of Health comes across an idea that seems too big, or too risky, for traditional modes of scientific investigation, the agency turns to its Common Fund program. This is where high risk, high reward programs that no organization would ordinarily take a chance on can find funding. And it's paying off.
-  Sept. 14 w Tracking transplant organs like mail, and other HHS innovations
Greg Downing, executive director for innovation, Health and Human Services
There's no rule that says innovations have to come from within their own industries. In fact, one agency is finding that the opposite is true. One program that came out of the Department of Health and Human Services' Idea Lab originated with a former employee of UPS.
-  Sept. 21 w Developing an innovation playbook through health care advances
David Duncan, senior partner at Innosight
At a cost of over $1 trillion per year, accounting for one-sixth of the U. S. economy, the federal government — and everyone else — is looking for the key to innovating in health care. David Duncan, senior partner at growth strategy firm Innosight, might have the answer. Duncan said the right way to define the problem is by considering the “jobs-to-be-done.” In the case of health care, the patient is the job. Health is the desired outcome.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

JULY

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington (Community Spotlight)

AUGUST

Alzheimer's Association (Community Spotlight)

SEPTEMBER

Bladder Cancer Advocacy Network (Community Spotlight)

PARTNERSHIPS & CHARITY

-  Alzheimer's Association
-  Bladder Cancer Advocacy Network
-  Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington
-  GovEvents
-  Joint Warfighter IT Day
-  Next Generation of Government Training Summit
-  Opera in the Outfield
-  Ride Allegheny

PUBLIC SERVICE CAMPAIGNS

Federal News Radio, in addition to its public affairs programming, broadcasts the following public service campaigns throughout the year.

- 🎧 American College of Cardiologists
- 🎧 Border Patrol Foundation
- 🎧 Boys & Girls Club of Greater Washington & Butler Wyatt (Geico)
- 🎧 CDC / Delmarva Foundation - Vaccines
- 🎧 Consumer Product Safety Commission - Pool Safety
- 🎧 Culpeper Air Fest
- 🎧 Disabled American Veterans
- 🎧 Disaster Preparedness – Ready.Gov
- 🎧 Fisher House Foundation
- 🎧 Food and Drug Administration - Know Your Online Pharmacy
- 🎧 Food and Drug Administration - Sunscreen Protection
- 🎧 Gotcha
- 🎧 HHS Healthbeat
- 🎧 March of Dimes – Heroines of Washington
- 🎧 National Academy of Engineering
- 🎧 Paralyzed Veterans of America - Honor our injured vets
- 🎧 Prince George's County Board of Elections
- 🎧 Profile America
- 🎧 Stand Up 2 Cancer (Ovarian Cancer)
- 🎧 TAPS (Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors)
- 🎧 Today's Military - Become a doctor
- 🎧 United States Patent and Trademark Office
- 🎧 United Soldiers and Sailors of America
- 🎧 Wounded Warrior Project