

ISSUES PROGRAM LIST

Quarterly Issues Programs List

KEYW-FM - KFLD-AM - KONA-FM - KORD-FM - KXRX-FM

January 1, 2024 through March 31, 2024

Section I. Issues

The above stations have identified the following issues as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

- A. Drug Policy: Cannabis dispensaries have become commonplace in Tri-Cities and has grown to become a thriving industry. The stations discussed the inequities between the small shops and large corporations and how the current models aren't helping populations who have been impacted by the war on cannabis.
- B. Education: The Tri-Cities area has a large conservative population and removing inappropriate books from schools has become an issue. Parents are concerned some books are unsuitable for young readers. The stations presented both sides of the debate, highlighting the differing perspectives.
- C. Finance and Inflation: School districts in the station coverage areas are experiencing an influx of resignations from teachers. The stations presented information on how schools are handling the issue and the large-scale exodus. From working conditions to pay, the profession is in crisis mode and local schools are offering attractive packages and benefits to recruit and retain educators.
- D. Technology: The Tri-Cities climate varies greatly from season to season with extreme heat in the summer and extreme cold in the winter. These large temperature swings have an impact on electric vehicle performance. The stations presented information on how this not-so-known issue has created operational issues with EVs and what manufacturers are doing to prevent a crisis in the future.
- E. Housing: Like most communities in the United States, home prices continue to remain high. Couple high prices with high interest rates and it makes it very difficult for the average Tri-City resident to afford a home. The stations aired advice and insight from two real estate housing experts and presented a time frame for expected relief for home buyers.

Section II. Responsive Programs

The responsive program is titled "Viewpoints", which airs weekly on each station at the following times:

|       | Synopsis: For years, the media has covered teacher burnout and how more and more teachers are resigning. Yet, despite this increased coverage, little has been done to improve pay, working conditions and autonomy on a large-scale for educators. Now, many schools across the country are reaching a breaking point and lower-than-average student scores are reflecting this systemic breakdown. |       | Synopsis: As an academic advisor, Ana Homayoun has had many conversations with students, parents, and administrators. With so much competition and so many pressures, what's always top-of-mind is grades, college admissions and how to stand out from everyone else. But what often falls by the wayside are the fundamentals of how to create a healthy and successful life. We speak with Homayoun about why so many teens (especially in the last 10 years) seem to really struggle post-high school and how parents can better prepare their kids before they hit this breaking point.Host: Gary Price.
