Traditional US Patriotism Versus Modern.	Marty McClendon	In My Opinion	07/03/2021 12:30PM	28 Minutes	Host Marty McClendon shared the history of patriotism in our local communities and contrasted it with what some people are advocating.
Race Relations.	Ron Higgins	Liberty And Posterity	07/03/2021 10:00AM	28 Minutes	Program host Ron Higgins discussed the lies, sedition, and blatant racist demagoguery inherent in the New York Times promoted 1619 Project. Five of the most widely read and respected authorities on US history, with a combined 250 years devoted to analyzing the American Revolution, the Civil War and Reconstruction, sent the NY Times a letter requesting that the Times correct the historical falsifications that form the basis of the 1619 Project. Among the statements in their letter, the historians addressed the central falsehood with the following words: “The 1619 project asserts that the founders declared the colonies’ independence of Britain “in order to ensure slavery would continue.” This is not true. If supportable, the allegation would be astounding—yet every statement offered by the project to validate it is false.” What the 1619 Project is doing is “picking the scab” of wounded race relations that occurred decades ago due to the failure of the society to live up to the ethics stated in the Declaration of Independence (We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.) The 1619 Project is part of the mainstream media scheme to get our focus off the current corruption and

					incompetence of the government to direct us to address issues long ago resolved. The 1619 Project is a document that contains numerous erroneous claims and egregious myths about the early history of the English colonies in North America, portraying them as structurally racist, in order to Balkanize the population and foster social discord. The NY Times, the purveyors of the 1619 Project, don't want the wounds inflicted on our society to heal; they want the wounds to fester until our society, and the entire US, collapses, thus removing the last impediment to the implementation of a one-world socialist dictatorship.
Globalism.	Ron Higgins	Liberty And Posterity	07/10/2021 10:00AM	28 Minutes	Program host Ron Higgins compared and contrasted the US Declaration of Independence, written in 1776, with the globalist Declaration of Interdependence that was written in 1975, anticipating the 200th anniversary of the signing of the US Declaration of Independence. There are numerous Declarations of Interdependence beginning at least since the 1930s, nearly all of which urge the end of national sovereignty and its replacement with global government. Ron focused on the Declaration of Interdependence written in 1975 by Henry Steele Commager. The US Declaration of Independence states "that these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do." The Declaration of Interdependence states that "it is necessary for the people of The United States to declare their interdependence with the people of all nations"; that "now we must join with others to bring forth a new world order." The US Declaration of Independence

					concludes with the statement: "And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor." Ron commented that in other words, "we rely on divine Providence (the protective care of God), not on anything else. The Declaration of Interdependence requires us to depend on other men, not on God."
Race Relations.	Ron Higgins	Liberty And Posterity	07/17/2021 10:00AM	28 Minutes	In this broadcast, program host Ron Higgins continued to focus on the New York Times 1619 Project, since it is permeating our school curricula. The objective of the 1619 Project is to foster racial strife among our students while at the same time demonizing the country's founding fathers, thus persuading the next generation to reject our sovereign constitutional republic and embrace a global, tyrannical socialist dictatorship.
Wildfire Control And Prevention.	Marty McClendon	In My Opinion	07/17/2021 12:30PM	28 Minutes	Program host Marty McClendon reviewed the damage being done by current fires in Dishman and surrounding areas and suggestions that have been made to begin an emphasis on prevention and not only after the fact, fire control.
American Heritage.	Ron Higgins	Liberty And Posterity	07/24/2021 10:00AM	28 Minutes	Program host Ron Higgins discussed the importance of maintaining our country's heritage in order to preserve our individual liberty and national sovereignty, the Communist strategy to destroy our country by undermining our culture by eradicating our heritage, and the contempt and antagonism a high-ranking member of the Biden administration has for any efforts to preserve the heritage of the United States; specifically Samantha Vinograd, the Department of Homeland Security's new acting assistant secretary for counterterrorism and threat prevention in the Office of Strategy, Policy and Plans, who said the idea of Americans trying to preserve their heritage makes her "sick."

Education	Marty McClendon	In My Opinion	07/24/2021 8:30AM	28 Minutes	Program host Marty McClendon shared and explained recent legislation that mandated some specific information that must be included in virtually all subject classes and that some Dishman School Board members were objecting to doing so.
January 6th Capitol Riots.	Ron Higgins	Liberty And Posterity	07/31/2021 10:00AM	28 Minutes	Program host Ron Higgins discussed the criminal treatment of the citizens who protested the fraudulent 2020 election at the US Capitol on January 6, 2021 and compared that treatment to Biblical principles and Constitutional requirements. Numerous citizens have been incarcerated and denied their Constitutional rights guaranteed by the Fifth (they were deprived of liberty and property without due process of law), Sixth (they were not accorded a speedy trial), and Eighth Amendments (they were denied bail and subjected to cruel and unusual punishment).
