20/20

Friday, January 11, 2008

HAPPINESS

The pursuit of happiness is a fundamental human endeavor – it seems as if human beings are hardwired to contemplate, chase and cherish this complex and often elusive emotion. Americans place tremendous value on this pursuit; after all, it's a primary feature of the U.S. Constitution. '20/20' explores the myths and misconceptions about this essential emotion.

Friday, January 18, 2008

EATING DISORDERS

Experts have warned of a raging epidemic of eating disorders among older women, many of them mothers. Treatment centers across the country report that adult women are seeking help in record numbers. Learn more about the struggles people with eating disorders face.

Friday, January 25, 2008

ANGER IN AMERICA

Is venting anger healthy? Are men angrier than women? How can you curb family anger? "20/20" investigates why we're all so angry and what we can do about it.

CHEATING DEATH

From a man whose heart stopped for hours after plunging into an icy lake to a woman who says she remembers the details of her surgery during a surgeons' induced clinical death, "20/20" previews a National Geographic Channel documentary entitled "I Came Back from the Dead."

Friday, February 1, 2008

KNOX FAMILY

In an exclusive interview with 20/20's Elizabeth Vargas, the family of Amanda Knox, the American student suspected of murdering her roommate in Italy, claim the media has it all wrong. They end their silence and provide insight to the person she really is.

BITTER BATTLE

A young Chinese girl, in the middle of a custody battle between her American parents and biological parents, in a dramatic ruling, is ordered to leave the only home she knows and go live with her biological parents whose Visa's have expired and must return back to their homeland of China. "20/20" has exclusive interviews with both families.

Friday, February 15, 2008

REAL HUMAN BODIES

ABC News Correspondent Brian Ross investigates plasticized bodies. Millions of people have paid to see these carefully preserved bodies, in ways that were not possible before. But with the popularity have come troubling questions about the bodies. Are the exhibits educational and scientific, or are these cadavers just being used for entertainment?

MIRACLE GIRL

12-year-old girl who miraculously survived a plane crash in Panama just a few weeks ago, speaks with Elizabeth Vargas about the 52 harrowing hours she spent hanging upside down in the plane's wreckage.

MEDICAL MYSTERIES

"20/20" reports on some of the strangest and rare cases known to medicine.

FOUL PLAY

Was the untimely death of a Baptist preacher's wife really a suicide, as the justice of the peace first ruled, or was the perfectly healthy mother of two murdered...by her husband? In an exclusive interview, ABC News Correspondent Jim Avila asks Matt Baker, the Baptist minister from Texas, why wife, Kari, would commit suicide.

TORI SPELLING

In her first television interview since writing her tell-all autobiography, TORI TELLING, actress Tori Spelling speaks candidly to ABC News' Elizabeth Vargas about her childhood, how her famous father spoiled her, and the lifelong strained relationship with her once-estranged mother, Candy Spelling.

Friday, March 14, 2008 (2 Hrs)

MEDICAL MYSTERIES

"20/20" reports on some of the strangest and rare cases known to medicine.

AGE OF CONSENT

Are kids clueless about the legal consequences of teenage sex? "We tell them you could get pregnant, you could get a disease. But we don't tell them they could be locked up for the rest of their life." John Stossel reports, as so often happens with many laws, there are unintended consequences.

Friday, March 21, 2008 (2 Hrs)

PROSTITUTION IN AMERICA: WORKING GIRLS SPEAK

In a rare and intimate look at the oldest profession in the world, Diane Sawyer goes inside both the legal and the underground businesses of prostitution in America. From expensive New York penthouses to Nevada's legal brothels to the tough streets outside Philadelphia and Reno, Sawyer speaks candidly with America's "working girls." Who are these women, what drives them to sell sex and what is like to work as prostitute?
