

October Thru December 2023--12-28-23;Host: Jack Palmer, Victorious Family Living Ministries;Title: Keys to Family Living;Time: 8:32a.m.;Length: 14 minutes--Christmas seems to be a time just to be at home. None of the characters in the first Christmas were at home, though. It was a time of real burden and sacrifice. Even Christ Who made the greatest sacrifice left His home in Heaven. The shepherds and the angels also weren't at home. The wise men also came from home. We're not really at home, either, at Christmas. We aren't home among all the wickedness. Only our loved ones in Heaven are really home for Christmas. Is it Christmas everyday there? We miss them. Will we be with them and with Christ soon when He comes from home to take us home for Christmas?
