

KPNT - FM

ISSUES/PROGRAMS

FOR

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

Placed In File On:

October 6, 2014

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
7/6/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Today's Issues: Reviving the ART of Rock and Roll	Scott Rinaberger/Owner of School of Rock and Danielle Sulley – Programs Manager with KidsSmart.Org.	In recent years, I've heard more people indicate that the art of Rock and Roll is dead and that the younger generation doesn't understand what means to make memorable and meaningful music. Today we'll tell you about an institution of education that is reviving the ART of Rock and Roll with our youngsters and how you can see what they're doing for yourself during the Under 19 years old Music Fest. After that it's a look at our community calendar, followed by Missouri Viewpoints. It's all coming up next on Today's Issues.
7/6/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Online Dangers/Internet Predators	Guests: Sgt. Chris Bosley from the Missouri Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force	Sgt. Chris Bosley from the Missouri Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force provides surprising information about the dangers to children (pre-teen and teenagers) from sexual predators that use online and mobile app technology.
7/13/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Today's Issues: The Ultimate Movie Watching Experience/Bikers for Babies	Bill Menke –Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Wehrenberg Theatres, Shannon Doreo, March of Dimes Senior Community Director and Robin Pfershy – Bikers for Babies Ambassador Family	Who knew that a trip to the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis would turn out to be the inspiration behind a young man's journey to becoming the largest family owned theatre company in the country? Today we'll tell about new technologies and amenities that going to change the way you view your favorite block buster on the

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
7/13/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: The EPA's proposed carbon regulations & the impact on Missouri	Guests: Andy Knott Sierra Club and Ray McCarty with Assonated Industries of Missouri	big screen. After that; a mother's story of heart break and triumph; how the March of Dimes helped save the life of 2 of her of triplets and how motorcyclists in the Metro East are helping to ensure every baby has a healthy start. The EPA has unveiled a new set of proposals to address carbon emissions in America. The Missouri chapter of the Sierra Club (Andy Knott) and Associated Industries of Missouri (Ray McCarty) offer different perspectives on the environmental and economic impact these would have on Missouri.
7/20/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Today's Issues: Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation	Guests: Norm Riekema – St. Louis Task Force Leader for PBTF Ride for Kids	Their working to eliminate the challenges of childhood brain tumor and holding events across the nation to help raise awareness and find cures. Today we'll learn more about Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation and a great event coming up that you may enjoy participating in. After that it's a look at our community calendar followed by Missouri Viewpoints.
7/20/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: The need for & the importance of volunteers in Missouri	Guests: John Sondag - AT&T Missouri President and Katlind Rhode -United way St. Louis	AT&T Missouri President John Sondag and the United Way's Katelind Rohde offer two perspectives on the importance of volunteers in Missouri. Angles covered include: the benefit to charitable and other nonprofit groups, the benefit to communities as a whole and the benefit to volunteers who

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
7/27/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Investing in St. Louis' Most Innovative Entrepreneurs	Guests: Dr. Jerome Katz – Director of Billiken Angels Network and David Schenberg- Co-Found of BusyEvent.com	may be gaining professional experience, professional networks and other career opportunities. The Billiken Angels Network has invested $1 million in just 400 days to help fund and grow startups here in St. Louis. While there are other angel investor networks in STL, this one is just one of 24 that are university-based angel networks that exist nationwide
7/27/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Missouri Election - Amendment 7	Guests: Former State Rep. Jeanette Mott Oxford (D) and Former State Rep. Jewell Patek (R)	Former State Rep. Jeanette Mott Oxford (D) and Former State Rep. Jewell Patek (R) offer different (and opposing) perspectives on Amendment 7, which Missouri voters will decide on August 5th, 2014.
8/3/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Pesky St. Louis Pests. The Financial Temperature of St. Louis	Guests: Mike and Gary Rottler of Rottler Pest Control, Rick Bagy – President of First National Bank St. Louis	Squirrels, Bed Bugs and Spiders Oh My...when it comes to pest control, St. Louis is a particularly tough environment. Today we'll tell you about some common and some uncommon pest problems and the solutions with Rottler Pest and Lawn Solutions. After that...M.O.N.E.Y....you need if you are going to buy a home, a car, pay for college or have a comfortable retirement. We'll talk to the president of First National Bank of St. Louis and get his opinion and reading of the financial temperature of St Louis.

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
8/3/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Right To Farm Amendment	Guests: Missouri Farm Bureau's Blake Hurst and Former State Representative Wes Shoemyer	The Missouri Farm Bureau's Blake Hurst offers opinion in support of a proposed amendment to the Missouri State Constitution. The "Right To Farm Amendment" will be decided August 5th. Former State Representative Wes Shoemyer offers an opposing viewpoint.
8/10/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: The journey to becoming a Better Man, Father and Employee, Ride for Kids, MoVpts	Guests: Steven Thomas – FSC Graduate, Halbert Sullivan – President and CEO of FSC, Don Durham- FSC Board Member, Norm Riekema- St. Louis Ride For Kids Task Force	A young St. Louis father of two shares how one particular program helped him become a better man, father and employee. He now inspires other to join the program with the hope of increasing the number of successful urban families. The program not only impacts the participants but the administrators and board members. We'll tell you how on today's program. After that, we'll share additional information about the upcoming Ride for Kids to benefit the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation followed by Missouri Viewpoints.
8/10/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Domestic Violence	Guests: Colleen Coble, the Chief Executive Director of the Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence	Colleen Coble, the Chief Executive Director of the Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence, explains the range of behaviors that are considered abusive in relationships. She also discusses the scope of the problem and addresses common misconceptions. She also provides advice on helping a victim escape an abusive situation and explains where resources for victims

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
8/17/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: SLU Billiken Angels Network	Guests: Dr. Jerome Katz – Director of Billiken Angels Network and David Schenberg-Co-Found of BusyEvent.com	are available.  The Billiken Angel Network. Our goal as investors is to provide infusions of expertise and capital to firms that show promise to make a difference for our economy and our region
8/17/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Electronic Cigarettes	Guests: Former Missouri Health Department program manager Stan Cowen and James Head Aqueous Vapor Owner	This week's program gets two perspectives on the growing trend of electronic cigarettes ("E-cigs"). Former Missouri Health Department program manager Stan Cowen, who specialized in tobacco use prevention, and James Head from "E-cig" business Aqueous Vapor offer two viewpoints on the safety of the products and how they should be regulated.
8/24/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Urban Fishing Program, St. Louis Author Writes about Mental Health and Missouri Viewpoints	Guests: Kevin Meneau, the Fisheries Management Biologist, Pearlie Wood –St. Louis Author and Retired R.N.	What do Race Relations and Fishing have to do with each other? I'll tell you as I feature an interview that was recorded earlier this summer with the Missouri Department of Conservation. After that a St. Louis Author writes a fictional book about the often taboo subject of Mental Health, followed by Missouri Viewpoints.

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
8/24/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Title: Mental Health Services in Missouri	Pat Mobley of Legal Services of Eastern Missouri and Jermine Alberty of the Missouri Institute of Mental Health	Pat Mobley of Legal Services of Eastern Missouri explains how mental health challenges can impact individuals and their families. He also offers advice for low income Missourians who are dealing with mental health concerns in regards to finding legal advice and resources. Also, Jermine Alberty of the Missouri Institute of Mental Health describes Mental Health First Aid, how it compares to physical First Aid, how it can help in a crisis and how to access the training to become certified. This week's program includes a report from MU Extension on a "Family Impact Center" that uses MU students to help low income residents in Columbia, MO access basic health screenings, financial advice and other services they, otherwise, may not be able to afford.

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
8/31/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Job Corps Celebrates 50 Years/ MoVpts	Guests: Reginald Young – St. Louis Job Corps Center Director, Peggy Wagner – Career Transition Specialist, Sheila – program participant, Carleatha – program participant	In 1964, as a part of the War on Poverty Act, Lyndon B Johnson initiated the Job Corps program to help young people between the ages of 16-24 acquire the education and skills necessary to increase job opportunities. Today the program has 125 centers across the country and offers a variety of training programs a no cost to participants. The St. Louis Job Corps program recently celebrated the anniversary with a special gathering with notable guests that included Senator Roy Blunt, representatives from Matthews Dickey's Boys and Girls Club, University Missouri St. Louis and many others.
8/31/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Animal Welfare Issues in Missouri	Guests: Brent Toellner, board president of the Kansas City Pet Project and Katie Barnett of Kansas City Pet Project	Brent Toellner, board president of the Kansas City Pet Project, discusses the problems caused to entire communities when pet animals are lost, abandoned and/or abused. The interview discusses public safety, public health and public expense related to dealing with animals. Also, Katie Barnett discusses the controversies of "breed specific legislation" that bans or increases regulations of certain breeds of dogs.

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
9/7/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Light the Night Event w/LLS and MOVPTS	Guests: Richard Mark – President and CEO of Ameren Illinois, Phil, Cass and Hailey Tracey- LLS Honored Hero Family	September is Blood Cancer Awareness Month and today we'll talk with friends of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society who'll share information about the disease, treatments and programs. We'll also share information about the upcoming Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Light the Night event taking place on Saturday, September 27th.
9/7/2014	5:30a	30 Min	Missouri Viewpoints: Update on Ferguson & Impact on Missouri	Guests: Senator Maria Chappelle-Nadal and Chris Arps, co-founder of Move On Up	State Sen. Maria Chappelle-Nadal (D) and Chris Arps, co-founder of Move On Up (a network of black conservatives) discuss the recent unrest in Ferguson, MO and the ongoing impact of that on the entire state. The discussion includes public policy, police procedure, race relations and economic matters.
9/14/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Today's Issues: What Really Happens Behind Church Doors/Sheldon's Fall Line-up/MoVpts	Guests: Pastor Willie D. Brown – Author of "What Really Happens Behind Church Doors" and Chris Piemann, Marketing Director for the Sheldon Concert Hall and Art Galleries.	Description: Are churches still considered cornerstones of the community? Have churches gone too commercial? And why are Sundays still one of the most segregated days of the week? Today we'll speak with Pastor Willie D. Brown, Author of "What Really Happens Behind Church Doors" and Senior Pastor of Faith United Baptist Church of O'Fallon, Illinois. He'll also address the role of the church in social issues such as that which is taking place in Ferguson, Mo. After that we'll keep share of few of

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
9/14/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Update on Ferguson & Impact on Missouri	Guests: Senator Maria Chappelle-Nadal and Chris Arps, co-founder of Move On Up	the highlights being featured this fall at the Sheldon Concert Hall and Art Galleries followed by Missouri Viewpoints. State Sen. Maria Chappelle- Nadal (D) and Chris Arps, co- founder of Move On Up (a network of black conservatives) discuss the recent unrest in Ferguson, MO and the ongoing impact of that on the entire state. The discussion includes public policy, police procedure, race relations and economic matters.
9/21/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Second Wind Lung Transplant Association/MOVpts	Guests: Dr. Hachem –Pulmonary Specialist at Washington University/Barnes Jewish Hospital, Ben Akers – Board Member of Second Wind Lung Transplant Association and husband of a transplantee, Tom Archer – President of Second Wind Lung Transplant Association and transplantee.	It's a very invasive procedure and oftentimes what happens before and after the procedure is just as touch and go as the surgery itself. And it's truly a matter of having the Breath of Life. The first lung transplant surgery was performed more than 50 years ago, but why aren't more patients having this life-saving surgery? We have the answer as we talk with friend of the Second Wind Lung Transplant Association of St. Louis. After that it's a look at our community calendar followed by Missouri Viewpoints. It's all coming up next on Today's Issues.

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
9/21/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Impact of the veto session & what's ahead for Missouri	Guests: State Rep. Vicki Englund (D) and Speaker of the House Tim Jones (R)	State Rep. Vicki Englund (D) and Speaker of the House Tim Jones (R) offer differing perspectives on the impact the recent veto session will have on Missourians. Both guests also discuss the upcoming elections and what issues they believe will impact Missouri the most in 2015.
9/28/2014	5:00a	25 Min.	Title: Henry Plumbing Jewelry for Charity/Second Wind/MoVpts	Guests: Murray Fishman – Owner of Henry Kitchen and Bath Galleries, Shannon Birch – Designer and Carrie Gobble, Lung transplantee and treasurer of Second Wind St. Louis	Henry Plumbing has been a part of this community for more than 70 years. Today, Murray Fishman and Shannon Birch talk about how they're helping local charities by making beautiful jewelry for bath and tile remnants. After that it's a special community calendar featuring Second Wind Lung Transplant Association of St. Louis, followed by Missouri Viewpoints.
9/28/2014	5:30a	30 Min.	Missouri Viewpoints: Free Speech Issues in Missouri	Guests: Daniel Rubenstein from F.A.C.T. Compass and Constitutional Attorney David Roland	Two aspects of free speech are discussed in this episode. First, Constitutional Attorney David Roland from the Freedom Center of Missouri discusses the recent unrest in Ferguson, MO and how police addressed the protests following the shooting death of Michael Brown. He also outlines what citizens' free speech rights are in multiple areas. Also, Daniel Rubenstein from F.A.C.T. Compass discussed that organization's efforts to hold political candidates' accountable for the content of

KPNT- FM

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT July 1, 2014 – September 30, 2014

DATE	TIME	LGTH	TITLE	GUESTS	DETAILS
					               their campaign ads. He talks about the impact on government and our culture when there is a breakdown of trust between the public/voters and politicians.             