SUPPLEMENTAL CHILDREN'S TELEVISION PROGRAM SHOWING OF THE TRINITY BROADCASTING NETWORK COVERING ITS MULTICAST CHANNELS

The following listing of the Children's Television Programming provided by the noted stations of the Trinity Broadcasting Network ("TBN") on their multicast channels confirms each station's compliance with the CORE requirements provided in Rule 73.671. This submission shows that on average, based on the representative weeks presented, there was no less than twelve (12) hours of CORE Children's Television Programming broadcast by the noted stations on their multicast channels throughout the license term. None of TBN's stations aired more than four (4) multicast channel streams during their license term. This submission covers the Children's Programming that aired on the multicast streams.

In addition, TBN also confirms that the programs included in each station's originally filed quarterly Children's Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398/2100 Form, Schedule 398) provided the programming that aired on the main broadcast channel of the station, and met the requirements of Commission Rule 73.671 to provide no less than three (3) hours per week of CORE Children's Programming on a station's primary channel.

This submission covers the following stations of the Central Time Zone:
