

Quarterly Issues & Programs List for the 2nd Quarter of 2022

WBFO-FM Buffalo, NY | WUBJ-FM Jamestown, NY | WOLN-FM Olean, NY

The following is list of some of the significant issues responded to by the station along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the quarter. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which issues appear does not necessarily reflect a priority or significance.

ISSUE: Racism and Discrimination
Program or Title	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
Buffalo, What's Next? During the entire quarter we presented 24 episodes of this program, each approximately one hour long, and focusing on race and some of the other related issues outlined in this report. A complete program list is at Buffalo, What's Next? WBFO	After Buffalo was targeted by a racially motivated mass shooting, WBFO launched a daily one hour discussion examining inequity and the issues the shooting raised for people of color and an underserved community. This inaugural episode gave an overview of the issues.	May 26,2022 - 10am	59:59
Extremism in WNY: A four part WBFO News series	In wake of the mass shootings in WNY and the propensity of people to say that the shooter imply that racism is a local problem in the region, Reporter Tom Dinki presented four in- depth stories examining right ring hate and antigovernment groups, their ideologies and their political connections	June 20-24, 6:45 am ,8:45 am An extended 25 minute mini documentary expanding on these four reports also aired as part of "Buffalo What's Next?" on June 27	Four pieces: 5:36, 6:41 6:28, 4:36
Buffalo, What's Next? During the entire quarter we presented 24 episodes of this program, each approximately one hour long, and focusing on race and some of the other related issues outlined in individually this report. A complete program list is at Buffalo, What's Next? WBFO	In this episode of "Buffalo, What's Next?" Brigid Jaipal-Valenza digs deep with facilitator and Buffalo writer, Nanette Massey, to talk of white privilege and racial bias .	June 9, 10am	50 minutes

ISSUE: Health Equity for Minority Populations
Program or Title	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
Buffalo, What's Next? During the entire quarter we presented 24 episodes of this program, each approximately one hour long, and focusing on race and some of the other related issues outlined in individually this report. A complete program list is at Buffalo, What's Next? WBFO	Across America, inequities outside the health care system – in terms of measures like poverty, food insecurity, and family wealth, also negatively affect the health of Black families. In this episode , professionals from the Community Health Center of Buffalo share their efforts to address healthy disparity and inequity.	June 28,2022 10am	59:59
Buffalo, What's Next? During the entire quarter we presented 24 episodes of this program, each approximately one hour long, and focusing on race and some of the other related issues outlined in individually this report. A complete program list is at Buffalo, What's Next? WBFO	A segment of this episode featured long program Kelly Marie Wofford, Director of Health Equity in Erie County talks with Brigid Jaipaul-Valenza about health outcomes and the challenges BIPOC communities face	June 27, 2022 10 am	25 minutes

ISSUE: Mental Health
Program or Title	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
Buffalo, What's Next During the entire quarter we presented 24 episodes of this program, each approximately one hour long, and focusing on race and some of the other related issues outlined in individually this report. A complete program list is at Buffalo, What's Next? WBFO	This episode gave an overview of the grief, trauma and gun violence faced by Buffalo's minority population after a mass shooting in the city on May 14	May 27,2022 10 am	60 minutes
WBFO News	Mental health professionals say the trauma of Saturday's shootings at the Tops Friendly Market on Jefferson Avenue will have a lasting effect on many who were both directly involved or had some other connection to the event.	May 16, 2022 6:45 am	5:10
WBFO News	The shooting of Dominique Thomas has renewed questions about the role of police in a mental health crisis, but the larger question seems to be the role of the community.	April 6, 6:45 am	4:55

ISSUE: Disabilities
Program or Title	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
WBFO News	In March, an Elmwood Village resident in a wheelchair was hit by a car . Such accidents are more common than you'd expect, and cities can help reduce them, but sometimes don't.	May 12, 2022 6:45am	3:06

ISSUE: Older Adults
Program or Title	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
WBFO News	Aging is primarily a women's issue': Women face longer lives, less retirement savings	April 1, 2022 6:45am	4:18
WBFO News	Nursing homes argue they can't meet the safe staffing law's standards and have a pending lawsuit against the profit cap, while union leaders and resident advocates are concerned with how the laws will be enforced and still want even stricter laws.	April 5, 2022 6:45 am	3:10
WBFO News	Most prospective and active care workers are low-income women of color balancing family commitments and multiple jobs. So unpaid training can be a barrier for them to join the field, while tuition costs can be a barrier to eventually advancing to higher-paid care positions.	May 4, 2022 6:45 am	4:17

ISSUE: Health and Wellness
TITLE	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
Buffalo, What's Next During the entire quarter we presented 24 episodes of this program, each approximately one hour long, and focusing primarily on race and some of the other issues outlined individually in this report. A complete program list is at Buffalo, What's Next? WBFO	Food deserts on the East Side of Buffalo is an issue that continues. In this episode, Jay Moran welcomed Author Natalie Baszile, whose latest book "We Are Each Other's Harvest" celebrates African American Farmers, the land, and their legacy. The conversation continues with Dave Debo and Allison DeHoney from Buffalo Go Green as they examine urban farming and barriers to food access.	June 21,10am	59:55
WBFO News	Soccer For Success provides local children education in the sport, and in healthy life choices.	May 2, 2022 6:45am	4:00

ISSUE: Business and The Economy

TITLE	Description	Date/Time	Duration In minutes and seconds
WBFO News	Niagara Falls had difficulty retaining workers for its hotels and restaurants because thousands of workers drop out of the industry when they can't get full-time, full-year jobs. And competition from an Amazon facility could make it worse	June 22, 2022 6:45 am	3:50
WBFO News	A look at hospitality training amid Buffalo Niagara's restaurant worker shortage	June, 20, 2022 6:45 am	4:03