

KHKA 1500 AM
Honolulu, Hawaii
3rd Quarter
July 2021 – September 2021

1. KHKA broadcasts numerous public service announcement throughout the day to benefit local non-profit groups and our community. 501c3 groups as the Hawaii Bowl Foundation, Hawaii Speed and Quickness, and National Kidney Foundation. (schedule of PSA's run are attached)
2. KHKA, in its television partnership with Hawaii News Now (KGMB, KHNL, K5), simulcasts on radio Sunrise morning show Weekdays from 5am-9am, and its news broadcasts weekday afternoons from 4pm-7pm (4 p.m. hour was added in September). These news broadcasts cover many including but not limited to education, economy, agriculture/aquaculture, civil rights, politics, communication, finance, Hawaiian issues, Land Use, homelessness, transportation, and health.]
 - a Additionally, special reports featuring press conferences from the governor and mayor were aired on the radio station, courtesy of Hawaii News Now.
3. On May 4th, 2020. KHKA rebranded to CBS 1500. The station carries additional news programming, such as the "CBS Evening News with Norah O'Donnell," a re-air of CBS Television's nightly 30-minute news program. The show covers national and global breaking news and other pertinent stories.
4. Additional news programs include "America in the Morning" (M-F, Midnight-1 a.m. and 2 a.m.-3 a.m. / 1-2 a.m. and 3-4 a.m. when the clocks changed in November) and "First Light" (M-F 1 a.m. – 2 a.m. / 2-3 a.m. when the clocks changed in November)
5. KHKA airs high school sports broadcasts from the Interscholastic League of Honolulu and the Hawaii High School Athletic Association. The below broadcasts are from ILH football season.

Friday, August 27	Punahou vs. Kamehameha-Kapalama
Friday, September 10	PAC-5 vs. Damien
Friday, Sepetmber 17	PAC-5 vs. Iolani
Friday, September 24	Saint Louis vs. Kamehameha-Kapalama

6. Holiday specials from CBS News Radio
 - a Independence Day Special – July 4th (Topics and Guests include)
 - i "The Men Who Lost America" author Andrew O'Shaughnessy: How bad decision making in Great Britain helped us win The Revolutionary War\
 - ii The Broadway reboot will include an all-female cast when "1776, The Musical" re-opens. Broadway and TV

- star Betty Buckley shares her thoughts
- iii Polish General Tadeusz Kosciuszko's role in winning the war & his attempt to buy Thomas Jefferson's slaves to set them free
- iv The Capitol Fourth of July Concert: Behind the scenes with the National Symphony
- v Family safe alternatives to DIY fireworks
- b Labor Day Special – September 6th (Topics and Guests include)
 - i We'll be looking at the past, present, and future of working in America. Automation, artificial intelligence, and the pandemic are changing the dynamics of how we work.
 - ii Research leaders from the online collaboration hub, Slack, identify what workers and management want in the 21st Century workplace.
 - iii MIT Professor David Autor answers the question, "Will automation take away your job?"
 - iv We'll discover the lasting transformational effect that A. Phillip Randolph had on American society through the creation of the Pullman Porter trade union.
 - v And as Fall approaches and the new school year begins, we'll have helpful tips on how your kids can thrive in an academic year unlike any other.

LIVE COVERAGE – 20th Anniversary of the 9/11 Attack (1-7 a.m.)

KHKA, through CBS News Radio, aired live coverage of the 20th anniversary of the September 11th, 2001 attack, titled “CBS News Special Report, 20 Years Later, America Remembers 9/11.” Reporters were based in New York, the Pentagon, and Shanksville, PA, and coverage included special segments, audio and interviews remembering 9/11 and the days and years that followed.

LIVE COVERAGE – BIDEN'S ADDRESS ON AFGHANISTAN (Aug. 31)

KHKA, through CBS News Radio, aired live coverage of President Joe Biden's address to the nation on August 31st regarding the United States' withdrawal from Afghanistan.

LIVE COVERAGE: BIDEN’S ADDRESS ON AFGHANISTAN (Aug. 26)

KHKA, through CBS News Radio, aired live coverage of President Joe Biden’s address to the nation on August 26th regarding the United States’ progress in its withdrawal of troops and American civilians from Afghanistan.

LIVE COVERAGE: BIDEN’S ADDRESS ON AFGHANISTAN (Aug. 24)

KHKA, through CBS News Radio, aired live coverage of President Joe Biden’s address to the nation on August 24th regarding the United States’ progress in its withdrawal of troops and American civilians from Afghanistan.

“IN FOCUS WITH DAVE KAWADA”

“In Focus with Dave Kawada” is a news and interview show hosted by Dave Kawada. The show features interviews with newsmakers, people of influence, and people of impact. It airs on Thursdays from 3-4 p.m. and is archived on the Sideline Hawaii app.

July 1	DARON NISHIMOTO	Director, Advanced Technologies	Pacific Defense Solutions	Space Industry and Hawaii's role
	SEAN TAKAMORI	Realtor	Better Homes/Gardens Realty	Current state of real estate market
July 8	KAINOA DAINES	Director of Culture and Product Development	Hawaii Visitors & Conventions Bureau	New program "Malama Hawaii"
July 22	MARIA BURKE	Digital Dining Editor	Honolulu Magazine: Frolic HI	New openings; trends in foodie industry
July 29	DARYL OSHIRO	Mental Strength/Cond Coach	Positive Focus Hawaii	Simone Biles situation; impact of mental health in high level sports

July 29 (cont.)	CHRISTOPHER CANNON	Asst. Professor of Marketing	UH Shidler College of Business	Sports marketing: Under Armour vs. Adidas for UH Athletics

Aug. 5	MARTIN IOSEFO	OLYMPIAN	USA RUGBY	Olympic experience
Aug. 12	STEVE PETRANIK	Editor	Hawaii Business Magazine	Change Event Series- Govt & Civics
	CHAD BLAIR	Opinions/Politics Editor	HNL Civil Beat	Various article updates
Aug. 19	BLAKE OSHIRO	EVP	Capitol Consultants HI	Legal parameters of Executive Orders; HPD charges re: Iremamber Sykap case
Aug. 26	CHRISTI YOUNG	Editor	Honolulu Magazine	Part of summer "Legends & Stories Series": History series
	BRIAN MCINNIS	Reporter	Pacific Business News	Weekly Check Up - Financial/tech news

Sep. 2	DARRYL OSHIRO	Owner	Positive Focus Hawaii	Mental health for every day
--------	---------------	-------	-----------------------	-----------------------------

Sep. 9	BRIGADIER GENERAL ROBERT LEE	Fmr State Adjutant General	State of Hawaii '03-'11	US pullout of Afghanistan - what has happened over past 20 years
Sep. 16	JOHN BERGER	Entertainment writer/critic	HNL Star Advertiser	Passing of DJ Pratt of Kalapana; entertainment since '70's-80's era
	MARIA BURKE	Digital Dining Editor	HNL Mag - Frolic HI	Places to go to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month
Sep. 23	KEVIN CHANG	Owner	HI Optimum Performance	Diff between strength/conditioning, coaching, performance coaching; theory on being "injury prone"
Sep. 30	GINA MANGIERI	Investigative Reporter	KHON 2	Restriction on fans at UH Sporting events
	CHRISTINA JEDRA	Reporter	HNL Civil Beat	Updates On City/County HNL, HPD, etc.

LONGFORM NEWS/INFORMATION PROGRAMS

“America: Changed Forever” – Saturdays at 4 p.m.

July 10th - January 6th, this week on ‘America: Changed Forever.’ Host Jeff Pegues speaks one on one with Sandra Garza, the girlfriend of fallen Capitol Police Officer Brian Sicknick about her efforts to get Congress to investigate the Capitol insurrection. And Jeff has a special look back at what it was like covering the events that day.

July 31st – As gun violence in the U.S. and deaths break records, we will talk with author and historian Robert Spitzer, America's leading expert on Gun Policy and the author of The Politics of Gun Policy. We will also hear from Boston Police Department veteran Chuck Wexler, the Executive Director of the Police Executive Research Forum on the effectiveness of gun task forces. Emergency medicine Expert Dr. Mel Herbert will explain the rise of the Delta variant and how families and policy makers should respond.

And we will take a look at the January 6th Commission and listen to what the police officers who were there during the Insurrection had to say.

August 7th - From evictions to forbearance, Americans in debt, this week on 'America: Changed Forever.' Correspondent Jeff Pegues speaks with CBS News Capitol Hill Correspondent Nikole Killion and Logan Mohtashami of HousingWire.

August 21st - How our beautiful American Cities are changing, but also suffering this week on 'America: Changed Forever.' Correspondent Jeff Pegues looks at how the COVID-19 pandemic has disrupted our migratory practices and what that means for states, counties, exurbs, suburbs and cities.

"The Takeout with Major Garrett" – Saturdays at 6 p.m.

July 10th - Peter Greenberg, CBS News Travel Editor and host of the Eye on Travel podcast joins Major Garrett to discuss the return of summer travel, tourism labor shortages and air travel safety issues.

July 17th - CBS News senior national correspondent Charlie D'Agata joins Major Garrett this week on 'The Takeout.' D'Agata, who recently returned from a reporting assignment in Afghanistan discusses the final withdrawal of US troops, the state of the Afghan government and the Taliban's surge.

July 24th - Major Garrett is out to lunch again. For the first time since March of 2020, CBS Chief Washington Correspondent Major Garrett and the crew of the Takeout hit the road. Major breaks bread with Maryland Governor Larry Hogan at Galway Bay pub in Annapolis, MD. They discuss Maryland's vaccination rates, the need for an infrastructure bill and Hogan's political future.

July 31st - Major has lunch with Dr. Leana Wen, emergency physician and public health professor at George Washington University, at Village Square Cafe in Baltimore, MD. They discuss the CDC's new guidance on masks, the spread of the Delta variant and Wen's latest book, LIFELINES: A Doctor's Journey in the Fight for Public Health.

August 7th - Major Garrett has lunch with Governor Ralph Northam (D-VA) this week on 'The Takeout.' The two dine at Mama J's in Richmond and discuss new COVID-19 guidance, critical race theory and the upcoming Virginia gubernatorial election.

August 14th - This week on 'The Takeout,' CBS News Chief Washington Correspondent Major Garrett speaks with Surgeon General Vivek Murthy about the debate over masks in school, vaccine misinformation and the Biden administration's efforts to ban menthol cigarettes.

August 21st - Major speaks with Craig Whitlock, investigative reporter at The Washington Post, to discuss Afghanistan's fall to the Taliban, the history of America's longest war and his new book The Afghanistan Papers: A Secret History of the War.

August 28th - Filmmaker Lucy Walker joins Major Garrett to talk about her documentary "Bring Your Own Brigade." She also discusses how climate change impacts the ongoing wildfires and why the wealthy hire private firefighters to save their homes on this week's episode of "The Takeout with Major Garrett."

September 4th - Climate Change, this week on 'The Takeout.' CBS News Chief Washington Correspondent Major Garrett is joined by CBS News senior national & environmental correspondent Ben Tracy and CBS News meteorologist and climate specialist Jeff Berardelli to discuss the effects of climate change on our planet and way of life.

September 11th - General David Petraeus (Ret.) reflects on his time commanding U.S. forces in Afghanistan and Iraq, as well as his time as director of the CIA, as he joins Major Garrett to evaluate successes and failures of the war on terror in this week's episode of "The Takeout."

September 18th - Award-winning documentary filmmaker Ken Burns joins Major Garrett to discuss his new four-part documentary on Muhammad Ali, this week on 'The Takeout.' Burns and Garrett discuss the legendary boxer's career, his opposition to the war in Vietnam and his lifelong feud with fellow boxer Joe Frazier.

September 25th - Dr. Anthony Fauci joins Major Garrett, this week on 'The Takeout.' The current Director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases and the Chief Medical Advisor to President of the United States talks booster shots, whether to expect another COVID wave this winter and the differences between working for Presidents Trump and Biden.

"Eye on Veterans" – Sundays at 5 p.m.

July 11th - The unusual career of Marine Corps veteran Derek Abbey, a former combat F/18 fighter pilot and team member of the Marines Special Operations Unit (MARSOC), Derek's days flying combat missions in Iraq, Project Recover: keeping the promise to bring America's service members Missing in Action home, and what it's like to go deep into the Pacific Ocean discovering crash sites and service members Missing in Action since WWII

July 18th - Summer travel destinations with Navy veteran, historian and beer enthusiast Michael Embrich (M'Brick), Vet favorite spots from Louisiana to California, Chicago to KC and a spot deep in the heart of Texas, and the best places for Vets to retire with WalletHub.com financial analyst and author Jill Gonzalez,

July 25th - Controversial coffee?? Vet owned Black Rifle Coffee Company finds itself at odds with a big part of their customer base. Jobs for vets with free training in the private sector. USAF Veteran Janelle Fields talks about how she got a job as an app developer for Salesforce.com. Workshop for Warriors in San Diego: training vets for high demand jobs

August 1st - The mission failure in Afghanistan with Army veteran and DoD Intelligence contractor Pete A. Turner, why this combat vet thinks the return of the Taliban is inevitable after spending 70 months on the ground in Afghanistan meeting with local leaders, elders and AFG military. The disparity between alcohol and cannabis use penalties in Military Law with former Navy Officer Thibaut Delloue: the double standard that is hurting both active and retired military

August 8th – The origins of Brazillian Jiu Jitsu, a martial art that can be traced back to a single family. Fundamentals that allow elite combat soldiers to control their breathing and overcome their fear with Brazillian Jiu Jitsu Master Rickson Gracie. Overcoming the loss of loved ones in our lives, and the best places for vets to retire with WalletHub financial analyst Jill Gonzalez.

August 15th – The VA's Stable Housing Program for vets at risk of becoming homeless, with Veterans Affairs Director of Clinical Operations Dr. Keith Harris. The American Made Heroes awards given to veterans making significant contributions to their communities, with Air Force veteran and honoree Eddie Ramirez and retired Army Captain Mary Tobin. The Special Operations Warriors Foundation and how it supports Special Ops and their families, with retired Major General Clay Hutmacher

August 22nd – The elephant in the room: chaos in Afghanistan. What went wrong: with Afghanistan combat vet and Former Army Ranger/Special Forces member Jack Murphy. The quick collapse of the Afghan Army: with Afghanistan combat veteran and Green Beret Herb Thompson. The humanitarian crisis unleashed by Afghanistan's defeat: with Iraq & Afghanistan Veterans of America VP of Government Affairs and Navy vet Tom Porter. What Afghanistan veterans should remember about their service there during these difficult and emotional times

August 29th – The race to save Afghan interpreters and other at-risk allies from impending Taliban retribution, with insight from Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America founder Rick Reickhoff. Army veteran and Afghanistan expert Max Zeller. Newly arrived Afghan interpreter Nazar. Plus, what Americans who want to help can do right NOW

September 5th – Mandatory Covid vaccines for all branches of the U.S. Military with microbiologist, virologist and Army veteran Dr Nate Fischer and pharmacist and US Army Central Command veteran Dr. Margert Felix. Team America: a group of veterans working behind the scenes to get our allies out of Afghanistan, with former Marine Corps Intel Officer Richard Ian Porter. "The Twenty-Year War"; a closer look at the veterans of the war in Afghanistan with former Army Rangers Tom Amenta, Dan Blakely and photographer Beau Simmons

"60 Minutes" – Sundays at 6 p.m.

July 4th - Bill Whitaker reports on how Russian spies used a popular piece of software to unleash a virus that spread to 18,000 government and private computer networks. Ken Burns, the filmmaker known for his exhaustive documentaries on American subjects, gives Scott Pelley a glimpse into how his films are made, the message he wants to convey with them and how he became the person he is today. Sharyn Alfonsi reports on the band that desegregated Mardi Gras parades in New Orleans and is now playing through the pandemic.

July 11th - On this week's "60 Minutes," evidence of Syrian President Bashar Assad and his regime's legacy of war crimes. Scott Pelley reports on the effort to gather and maintain evidence against President Assad, for the acts of terror he perpetrated against his own people during Syria's civil war. Ten year after a powerful earthquake and tsunami caused a massive nuclear meltdown in the Daiichi Power Plant, Lesley Stahl reports on the unprecedented cleanup efforts. And two-time Pulitzer-winner Colson Whitehead opens up to John Dickerson about his writing process, his wide variety of interests, getting rejected and "the space of very little hope" he found himself working in when he wrote "The Underground Railroad" and "The Nickel Boys."

July 18th - On this week's "60 Minutes," Scott Pelley hears how families are remembering loved ones lost to COVID-19. Many adults with autism are having a hard time finding a job, but more companies are discovering the unique skills and potential people with autism offer. Anderson Cooper tells us more. And Holly Williams reports on how a group of schoolboys worked together to survive 15 months stranded on an island.

July 25th - On this week's "60 Minutes," Sharyn Alfonsi reports on how Curtis Flowers, tried six times for the same crime, was saved from death row. Bill Whitaker introduces us to the nine members of the Wright family, who are professional saddle bronc riders who rank among the best in the world. Five years after Prince's death, his estate released songs from his previously unreleased album, "Welcome 2 America." Prince wrote and recorded the album before embarking on his 2010 "Welcome 2 America" tour. But he didn't perform songs from it. The songs first premiered right here on "60 Minutes," Here's Jon Wertheim.

August 1st - On this week's "60 Minutes," Anderson Cooper reports on the nerve-racking Mars landing of the rover Perseverance, the painstaking process of launching the tiny helicopter Ingenuity, and the extraordinary images the two have already sent back to Earth. In his new book, Michael Lewis profiles people who tried to sound the alarm about COVID-19 as officials failed to act. John Dickerson tells us more. And Lesley Stahl profiles Darren Walker, a gay, African American man, and Founder of one of this country's largest and most storied philanthropies, the Ford Foundation.

August 8th - On this week's "60 Minutes," Inside the attack that almost sent the U.S. to war with Iran. David Martin speaks with troops who were there as an Iranian ballistic missile attack rained down on Al Asad Airbase in Iraq. After years of trying, Anderson Cooper finally get a peek inside the workshop at Boston Dynamics, where robots move in ways once only thought possible in movies. Montana's grizzly and human populations have both risen substantially since 1975, when the bears were protected under the Endangered Species Act. Bill Whitaker reports on conservation efforts that have led to grizzly recovery, and the farmers, ranchers and residents now encountering these ferocious animals.

August 15th - On this week's "60 Minutes," after passengers on the Costa Luminosa cruise ship fell ill with COVID-19 in March 2020, Americans were flown to Atlanta after reaching Europe. Passengers say what happened next was nothing short of a nightmare -- Sharyn Alfonsi reports. In 46 prisons across Kenya and Uganda, the Justice Defenders organization is training hundreds of inmates, many of whom don't have their own lawyer, to become paralegals and attorneys -- Anderson Cooper has the story. Companies are already testing driverless trucks on America's roads. The technology will bring untold profits, but it may cost thousands of truckers their livelihoods -- Jon Wertheim reports.

August 22nd - On this week's "60 Minutes." David Martin reports on the new efforts being put forth to address inequality in the military, this time under the watch of the country's first Black secretary of defense, Lloyd Austin. Renowned sportswriter Dave Kindred has covered the biggest moments and brightest stars in sports for more than half a century, but now he tells Jon Wertheim he has found his most fulfilling work: writing about girls high school hoops in central Illinois. And a new volcano has erupted into existence in Iceland. Bill Whitaker reports on the mesmerizing scenes.

August 29th - Seventy-five percent of microchips, the tiny operating brains in just about every modern device, are manufactured in Asia. Lesley Stahl talks with leading-edge chip manufacturers, TSMC and Intel, about the global chip shortage and the future of the industry. Bill Whitaker reports on the regular sightings of unidentified aerial phenomena, or UAP, that have spurred a report due to Congress. And Norah O'Donnell talks to Washington Football Team QB Alex Smith, about his comeback from nearly losing his leg.

September 5th - On this week's "60 Minutes," Bill Whitaker reports on the Pentagon projects that helped combat COVID-19 and may help end pandemics forever. The Ritchie Boys were responsible for uncovering more than half the combat intelligence on the Western Front during World War II. For the many German-born Jews in their ranks, defeating the Nazis was heartbreakingly personal. Jon Wertheim has their story.

September 12th - This week marks the 54th season premier of "60 Minutes, and 20 years since the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001. Firefighters who were at the World Trade Center that day share their stories with Scott Pelley.

September 26th - On this week's "60 Minutes," overworked and under-resourced fire chiefs battling wildfires are getting backup from new hi-tech helicopters that can fight fires 24/7. Bill Whitaker tells us more. In an interview with Lesley Stahl, embattled Wyoming Republican Liz Cheney, who was ostracized by her party for voting to impeach President Donald Trump, discusses her decisions and re-election prospects. Alexey Molchanov now holds 24 records in free diving and promises to go even deeper. Sharyn Alfonsi has his story.

“Weekend Roundup” – Saturdays at 5 p.m.

July 10th - Pfizer says it will seek emergency FDA authorization this summer for a booster shot to its Covid-19 vaccine, but both the FDA and CDC say fully vaccinated Americans don't need a booster right now. This as the Delta variant is causing spikes around the world. And Kaleidoscope this week is a chat with anti-violence advocate Tio Hardiman in Chicago with what needs to be done to shut the gunfire down.

July 17th - Covid-19 cases are surging in some 46 states, and health experts are blaming a combination of unvaccinated people and that highly contagious Delta variant. Host Allison Keyes gets the latest from infectious disease expert Dr. William Schaffner at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. And this week in the Kaleidoscope, Allison talks with Eric Adams, the democratic nominee in the New York City Mayor's race.

July 31st - On the CBS News Weekend Roundup with host Allison Keyes, new CDC data finds that the Delta variant is much more contagious than experts previously thought and could spread as quickly as chicken pox. The report has prompted the agency to urge vaccinated people to wear masks indoors where coronavirus rates are high. Allison is joined by infectious disease expert Dr. Virginia Banks with the Northeast Ohio Infectious Disease Associates. In this week's Kaleidoscope, Allison speaks with astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson at the American Museum of Natural History about this and other burning topics, including UFO's.

August 7th - On the CBS News "Weekend Roundup" with host Allison Keyes, a warning from the CDC about the increasing surge in daily Covid-19 cases, which are now at the highest level since February due to the Delta variant and unvaccinated people. Some companies tell employees they must be fully vaccinated by October. Despite reports of breakthrough infections among fully vaccinated people, CBS's Dr. Jon LaPook tells Allison he sees a bright side. Finally, In a two-part special extended Kaleidoscope, we discuss the new pandemic eviction moratorium. Allison speaks with Ronald Leonard in Daytona Beach, who thought he might become homeless. Allison also speaks with a landlord in Washington, DC who is also a tenant, about how she has been affected by the eviction moratorium and shares her take on the situation.

August 21st - On the CBS News "Weekend Roundup" with host Allison Keyes, the CDC says Covid-19 hospitalizations for people under 50 are at the highest level since the start of the pandemic as infections spike driven by that Delta variant. Some scientists are taking issue with the President's decision to recommend booster shots. CBS News Chief Medical Correspondent Dr. Jon LaPook breaks it all down. In this week's Kaleidoscope, the Taliban takeover and the dangers women and activists are facing in Afghanistan. Allison is joined by Yasmeen Hassan, global executive director of the human rights organizations Equality Now, who breaks down just how grave the situation is for women in Afghanistan.

August 28th - On the CBS News "Weekend Roundup" with host Allison Keyes; President Biden is vowing revenge after an Islamic State suicide bomber killed dozens, including U-S Service Members, just outside of the Kabul airport. Allison speaks with an Afghan American woman living in the U-S who lost three family members in that attack about her fears for her family. In this week's Kaleidoscope, the debate within the LGBTQ community over whether to update the Gilbert Baker's Rainbow Pride Flag. Allison is joined by Eric Stanley, a professor of gender and women's studies at the University of California, Berkeley.

September 4th - On the CBS News Weekend Roundup with host Allison Keyes; the death toll continues to rise after Hurricane Ida batters the Gulf Coast before dumping record-breaking rains on the Northeast. Cleanup continues as both regions try to dry out. CBS's Jim Krasula also joins Allison from New Orleans. Major controversy over Texas' strict new abortion law, with the president blasting the Supreme Court for allowing it to take effect. Allison gets the latest from CBS's Nikole Killion, along with reaction from both Planned Parenthood's Iantje Metzger and National Right to Life Committee President Carole Tobias, who is pleased. In this week's Kaleidoscope, we discuss the fears that have come to a head for families and women now that the Biden administration has pulled the last U.S. troops out of Afghanistan. U.S. Country Director Naheed Samadi Bahram at Women for Afghan Women, joins Allison to discuss what is happening there, and what is needed to help the Afghan refugees streaming into the U.S.

September 11th - On the CBS News "Weekend Roundup" with host Allison Keyes; September 11th -- 20 years later. Nearly 3-thousand lives were lost at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and aboard Flight 93. 343 firefighters alone died in New York City. We hear from Battalion Chief Jake Lemonda, former president of the Uniformed Fire Officers Association, about what that terrible day was like, and what firefighters need now. Monica Iken-Murphy, who lost her husband Michael, poured her grief into founding the non profit September's Mission Foundation, and fought to secure the World Trade Center site for what is now the National September 11 Memorial and Museum. She spoke with Allison ahead of this weekend's annual ceremonies. From air travel, to security to the immigration system, the attacks on September 11th changed the U-S forever. We hear from CBS's Steve Futterman, CBS's Peter King, and CBS's Lilia Luciano. We'll also hear from CBS's Jeff Pegues on what the attacks meant for the Muslim community. In this week's Kaleidoscope, a discussion about the trauma and illness suffered by those in Lower Manhattan on September 11th. Lila Nordstrom was a senior at Stuyvesant High School, just blocks away from the World Trade Center. She founded the advocacy group StuyHealth, after seeing how her fellow classmates returned to school less than a month after the attacks, and became ill. Allison speaks with Dr. Monica Sweeney, who organized group therapy sessions at the Bedford-Stuyvesant Family Health Center after the attacks, and says people should still get help if they need it. CBS's Jennifer Keiper reports on how schools are dealing with teaching the history of the September 11th attacks. Finally, CBS' Monica Rix has last words from those who were lost. These remembrances or interviews were recorded by StoryCorps in partnership with the National September 11 Memorial & Museum.

Face the Nation – Sundays at 6:30 a.m. / 7 p.m. during NFL season

July 4th - This week on Face the Nation, guests include White House COVID-19 Response Coordinator Jeffrey Zients, Mayor of Surfside, Florida Charles Burkett, Gov. Kate Brown (D) Oregon, Gov. Spencer Cox (R) Utah, Rep. André Carson (D) Indiana and Former FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb.

July 11th - This week on Face the Nation Dr. Anthony Fauci discusses the confusion regarding COVID-19 booster shots and CDC recommendations, United Airlines CEO Scott Kirby and Jeh Johnson, Former Secretary of Homeland Security.

July 18th - Guests this week on Face the Nation include Mayor of Springfield, MO, Ken McClure, Former FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb; Former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Adm. Michael Mullen, Former Director, Cybersecurity and Partner of the Krebs Stamos Group Infrastructure Security Agency Chris Krebs; David Becker, Executive Director and Founder, Center for Election Innovation & Research; and CBS News Business Analyst Jill Schlesinger

August 15th - On this week's "Face the Nation," White House Chief Medical Adviser Dr. Anthony Fauci joins Guest Moderator Nancy Cordes to discuss booster shots and keeping children safe as they return to school. Set to become New York's first female governor in under two weeks, NY Lt. Governor Kathy Hochul discusses the fallout of Governor Cuomo's resignation and her vision for the state. House Republican Whip Rep. Steve Scalise joins us to discuss efforts to increase vaccinations as his state of Louisiana battles one of the nation's worst COVID surges. Broward County School Board Chair Dr. Rosalind Osgood talks about how to keep children & staff safe in the wake of losing four teachers to COVID-19 in just 24-hours. The latest on the situation in Afghanistan with CBS News Foreign Correspondent Roxana Saberi and CBS News National Security Correspondent David Martin.

August 22nd - This week, how President Biden is addressing fallout after Afghanistan quickly falls to the Taliban. We hear from CBS's Foreign Correspondent Roxana Saberi, Former UN Ambassador Nikki Haley, Former Ambassador to Afghanistan Ryan Crocker. Plus, U.S. Secretary of State Antony Blinkin joins us to discuss the Administration's next steps with Afghanistan. Fearing life under Taliban rule, several Afghan citizens and allies are desperately seeking escape. CBS's Holly Williams reports there are also increasing concerns that ISIS could use the chaos in Kabul to carry out an attack. CBS News Meteorologist Jeff Berardelli has the latest on Tropical Storm Henri. And Former FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb joins us with the latest on the coronavirus, the Delta Variant, vaccines and more. CBS's Major Garrett guest-moderates this week's "Face the Nation."

August 29th - On this week's "Face the Nation," guest moderated by Ed O'Keefe, CBS News Foreign Correspondent Charlie D'Agata and CBS News National Security Correspondent report the latest on the violence in Kabul, Afghanistan. White House National Security Advisor Jake Sullivan joins us to discuss President Biden's evacuation and defense strategy in the wake of a deadly ISIS-K attack on the Kabul airport. We'll hear from Former U.S. Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence Sue Gordon, who offers thoughts on the Biden administration's response to a deadly ISIS-K attack and the threats going forward; Plus, Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-SC) discusses America's ongoing exit from Kabul and the security landscape moving forward. Hurricane Ida is expected to strike the Gulf Coast 16 years to the day as Hurricane Katrina. We hear from CBS News Meteorologist Jeff Berardelli and CBS News Correspondent Omar Villafranca. We will also hear from Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards and Baton Rouge Mayor Sharon Weston Broome. Finally, Former FDA Commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb breaks down the intelligence community's latest review on COVID's origins and what's next after FDA's approval of Pfizer's vaccine.

September 12th - On this week's "Face the Nation," we'll discuss President Biden's new vaccine requirements with former FDA commissioner Dr. Scott Gottlieb. Meanwhile, the GOP plans to sue the Biden administration over the president's executive orders to require Covid vaccinations for as many as 100 million people in the US. GOP Chairwoman Ronna McDaniel will tell us why she thinks the mandate is "unconstitutional." With CDC data showing child hospital admissions are higher in states with lower population vaccination, how are hospitals dealing with the surge in pediatric patients? We'll hear from Texas Children's Hospital Pathologist-In-Chief Dr. James Versalovic. Kids comprise more than one in four new COVID-19 cases across the U.S. New reports indicate the Pfizer vaccine could be approved by the FDA for use in children between 5-11 by the end of October. CBS's Mark Strassmann reports. There are concerns mounting on Capitol Hill about an upcoming right-wing rally in the nation's capital, how are lawmakers preparing for potential unrest following the January 6 attack? We'll talk to Rep. Liz Cheney. (R-WY.)

According to U.S intelligence officials, the Taliban claiming victory in Afghanistan is emboldening jihadist extremists and fueling propaganda. Charlie D'Agata reports that sources on the ground say "al Qaeda is intrinsically linked with the Taliban." The FBI released a report Saturday that shows September 11 hijackers had contact with Saudi Arabia associates in the U.S., though it did not include evidence that the Saudi gov't was complicit. Holly Williams is in Riyadh with a look at how the country is fighting extremism. CIA Deputy Director Michael Morell and Rep. Adam Kinzinger (R-IL) discuss the fight against terrorism 20 years after 9/11.

Finally, 20 years ago, the terror attacks on 9/11 illustrated some of the worst humanity has to offer. But in reaction, some of the best -- courage in the face of danger, unity at an intensely divisive moment. "Face the Nation" moderator Margaret Brennan has more on how a politically divided US could use more unity today.

September 19th - This week on 'Face the Nation with Margaret Brennan', an interview with former FDA Commissioner Scott Gottlieb about his new book 'Uncontrolled Spread: Why COVID-19 Crushed Us and How We Can Defeat the Next Pandemic.'

September 26th - This week on 'Face the Nation with Margaret Brennan', guests include the President of Turkey Recep Tayyip Erdoğan.

Viewpoints – See attached sheet for content information

Mondays and Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. (prior to Daylight Savings Time). Sundays at 6:00 a.m. (after Daylight Savings Time)

Radio Health Journal – See attached sheet for content information

Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. (prior to Daylight Savings Time). Sundays at 7:30 a.m. (after Daylight Savings Time)