

KZYZ 90.7 FM & KZYZ 91.5 FM
PO Box 1
Philo, CA 95466

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

Quarterly Report: October-December 2022

During the 4th quarter of 2022, KZYZ & KZYZ provided coverage of issues of importance to Mendocino County and adjacent communities in Northern California. Examples of programming that address important issues are listed below.

| ISSUE                      | PROGRAM TITLE & DESCRIPTION  | DATE/TIME       | DURATION |
|----------------------------|--|-----------------|----------|
| Medicine and Health        | On Wildoak Living, host Johanna spoke with Charlie Seltzer about a program called Healthy Living with Chronic Pain.  | 10/6/229am  | 59mins   |
| Arts and Entertainment     | On Art Waves, hosts Victor Palomino and Marty Durlin presented interviews with several members of The Anderson Valley Artists about their 20th annual Open Studios Tour: Antoinette Von Grone, Saoirse Byrne, Rebecca Goldie, Marvin Schenk. They also spoke with Dan McDonnell and Cob, creators of Magic Milk, the second silent musical.                              | 10/18/229am | 59mins   |
| Race, Identity and Culture | On Pride Nation 101, hosts Chad Swimmer and Roland Cory Medina spoke with Tatum, Kashia Pomo person and a member of Women With Bows, an organization of queer indigenous people working for the betterment of their community. They ask the question: how are we more than just ones and zeros? What does it mean to be non-binary and how is gender a social construct. | 11/4/227pm  | 59mins   |

|   |  |                 |        |
|---|--|-----------------|--------|
| Politics and Government                   | On Forthright Radio, host Joy LaClaire spoke with David Daley, author of RATF'D and UNRIGGED, as well as Paul Pierson, author of LET THEM EAT TWEETS, to discuss the results and ramifications of the midterm elections.   | 11/11/229am | 59mins |
| Crime and Law EnforcementReligion | On Byline Mendocino, Host Alicia Bales spoke with Mike Geniella, veteran local reporter, about the extraordinary story of Sister Jane Kelly, who came to him in 1999 to report sexual abuse by a priest in her Catholic church in Ukiah after two years of inaction by church officials. When the Santa Rosa Diocese declared bankruptcy under the weight of 130 lawsuits by survivors, Mike reflected on Sister Jane Kelly's legacy and the role local journalism played in exposing the abuse. | 12/15/229am | 59mins |
| Education                                 | On Inside Education, host Michelle Hutchins, County Superintendent of Schools, interviewed members of the County Board of Education. She explored all topics of County Board Governance and why these leaders chose to serve on the County Board of Education.   | 12/22/227pm | 59mins |