

KZYZ 90.7 FM & KZYZ 91.5 FM
PO Box 1
Philo, CA 95466

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

Quarterly Report: July-September 2022

During the 3rd quarter of 2022, KZYZ & KZYZ provided coverage of issues of importance to Mendocino County and adjacent communities in Northern California. Examples of programming that address important issues are listed below.

ISSUE	PROGRAM TITLE & DESCRIPTION	DATE/TIME	DURATION
Race, Identity and Culture	On Good Ancestors and Local Treasures, host Corine Pearce spoke with family wellness advocate Katie Ray, an enrolled member of the Round Valley Indian Tribes, along with Priest Martinez, tribal council member, community organizer, and cultural educator member of the Little River Band of Pomo Indians in Redwood Valley.	7/4/22 9am	59mins
Agriculture and Environment	On The Farm and Garden Show, host Elizabeth Archer spoke with Greg Graziano of Graziano Family of Wines about everything from viticulture to sparkling wine.	7/21/22 3pm	59mins
Science and Technology	On Point and Click Radio, Bob and Jim followed up on the new online privacy risks in a post Roe vs Wade world. As well as a roundup of other news items, with listener calls.	8/10/22 7pm	59mins
Arts and Entertainment	On Art Waves, hosts Victor Palomino and Marty Durlin spoke with Deep Valley Arts Collective, about their Medium Art Gallery, and members of Flynn Creek Circus about circus art and their new show, Balloons, Bird, and other flying things.	8/16/22 9am	59mins

Education	On The Mendocino College Radio Hour, host Julie McGovern shared happenings on the Mendocino College campus, including scholarship opportunities, cultural and athletic events, featuring an interview with Mendocino College Student Trustee Leo Rodriguez.	8/29/22 9am	59mins
Medicine and Health	On Mind Body Health, hosts Dr. Marvin Trotter and Cob spoke with Arlene Flores DO about her journey to Mendocino County, the difference between a MD and DO, her experience in the residency program, as well as taking listener calls.	9/13/22 9am	59mins
Politics and Government	On Corporations and Democracy: Hosts Steve and Annie talked with Chuck Collins and Helen Flannery of the Institute for Policy Studies, the authors of a new study on "Gilded Giving," how charities dependence on Mega-donors is skewing public policy toward the interests of the wealthy.	9/15/22 7pm	59mins