

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How issue was addressed	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Some members of the community cannot afford heating oil, and end up using alternative methods to heat their homes instead, taking a dangerous risk.	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder of Reeder Brothers Fuel Company started a 501c3 non-profit project called "Hats for Heat", to provide heating oil to those in our area who need it the most.	In Touch WZXR, WXR	7-Jan	6:30AM	:20	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder talk about the rewarding experience it is to help those in our area who may not feel comfortable asking for assistance, who they find sometimes suffer without heat, or use dangerous space heaters during the coldest months of the year. Hats for Heat seeks to raise funds to provide oil for those without. They are having a basket raffle fundraising event at the Loyalsock Hotel on January 27th and 28th. The community is invited to attend or donate baskets at the fundraiser.
Some members of the community cannot afford heating oil, and end up using alternative methods to heat their homes instead, taking a dangerous risk.	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder of Reeder Brothers Fuel Company started a 501c3 non-profit project called "Hats for Heat", to provide heating oil to those in our area who need it the most.	In Touch WILQ	7-Jan	6:40AM	:20	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder talk about the rewarding experience it is to help those in our area who may not feel comfortable asking for assistance, who they find sometimes suffer without heat, or use dangerous space heaters during the coldest months of the year. Hats for Heat seeks to raise funds to provide oil for those without. They are having a basket raffle fundraising event at the Loyalsock Hotel on January 27th and 28th. The community is invited to attend or donate baskets at the fundraiser.
Some members of the community cannot afford heating oil, and end up using alternative methods to heat their homes instead, taking a dangerous risk.	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder of Reeder Brothers Fuel Company started a 501c3 non-profit project called "Hats for Heat", to provide heating oil to those in our area who need it the most.	In Touch WBZD	7-Jan	7AM	:20	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder talk about the rewarding experience it is to help those in our area who may not feel comfortable asking for assistance, who they find sometimes suffer without heat, or use dangerous space heaters during the coldest months of the year. Hats for Heat seeks to raise funds to provide oil for those without. They are having a basket raffle fundraising event at the Loyalsock Hotel on January 27th and 28th. The community is invited to attend or donate baskets at the fundraiser.
Some members of the community cannot afford heating oil, and end up using alternative methods to heat their homes instead, taking a dangerous risk.	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder of Reeder Brothers Fuel Company started a 501c3 non-profit project called "Hats for Heat", to provide heating oil to those in our area who need it the most.	In Touch WOTH	7-Jan	7:20AM	:20	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder talk about the rewarding experience it is to help those in our area who may not feel comfortable asking for assistance, who they find sometimes suffer without heat, or use dangerous space heaters during the coldest months of the year. Hats for Heat seeks to raise funds to provide oil for those without. They are having a basket raffle fundraising event at the Loyalsock Hotel on January 27th and 28th. The community is invited to attend or donate baskets at the fundraiser.
Some members of the community cannot afford heating oil, and end up using alternative methods to heat their homes instead, taking a dangerous risk.	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder of Reeder Brothers Fuel Company started a 501c3 non-profit project called "Hats for Heat", to provide heating oil to those in our area who need it the most.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP.	7-Jan	11AM	20 Min	Echo Mitchell and Vince Reeder talk about the rewarding experience it is to help those in our area who may not feel comfortable asking for assistance, who they find sometimes suffer without heat, or use dangerous space heaters during the coldest months of the year. Hats for Heat seeks to raise funds to provide oil for those without. They are having a basket raffle fundraising event at the Loyalsock Hotel on January 27th and 28th. The community is invited to attend or donate baskets at the fundraiser.
There are numerous service opportunities in Williamsport during the annual Dream Week celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday starting on Monday, January 15th through Friday, January 20th.	Step Americorp partnered with the James V Brown Library, the Lycoming County United Way, Lycoming and Penn Colleges and others to provide service opportunities and fun, educational activities that help continue the spirit and legacy of Dr. King, living and serving each other in a diverse equal society.	In Touch WZXR, WXR	14-Jan	6:30AM	:20	Carrie Bruning and Rachele Abbott of Step AmeriCorps are joined by President of the Lycoming County United Way, Ron Frick, to describe some of the programs and service opportunities the public can participate in during Dream Week 2024 to spread the love and inclusion suggested by the writing and teaching of MLK, Jr..
There are numerous service opportunities in Williamsport during the annual Dream Week celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday starting on Monday, January 15th through Friday, January 20th.	Step Americorp partnered with the James V Brown Library, the Lycoming County United Way, Lycoming and Penn Colleges and others to provide service opportunities and fun, educational activities that help continue the spirit and legacy of Dr. King, living and serving each other in a diverse equal society.	In Touch WILQ	14-Jan	6:40AM	:20	Carrie Bruning and Rachele Abbott of Step AmeriCorps are joined by President of the Lycoming County United Way, Ron Frick, to describe some of the programs and service opportunities the public can participate in during Dream Week 2024 to spread the love and inclusion suggested by the writing and teaching of MLK, Jr..

№	Наименование	Единица измерения	Количество	Стоимость	Итого
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50
51
52
53
54
55
56
57
58
59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66
67
68
69
70
71
72
73
74
75
76
77
78
79
80
81
82
83
84
85
86
87
88
89
90
91
92
93
94
95
96
97
98
99
100

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How issue was addressed	Column1	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
A Williamsport Army Veteran uses creative writing to seek healing from PTSD and other issues, and wants to offer the experience to other veterans and their spouses by starting a 6-week creative writing group at the Williamsport Vet Center.	A creative writing course is Travis Harman's internship in the Masters Degree program at Wilkes University, and will provide veterans who are signed up for the course an outlet to work through feelings they might have about their service.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	21-Jan	11AM	20 Min	Travis Hartman describes his experiences as a soldier deployed to Afghanistan in the early 2000s, and says how writing and teaching is his way to heal and recover by experiencing success in publishing his writing and hopes to expose his students to the same success.
Williamsport Chamber of Commerce seeks exposure for their events.	Live interview with Jason Fink discussing upcoming events, businesses, etc.	WILQ	25-Jan	8:20AM	20 Min	Jason Fink from Williamsport Lycoming Chamber of Commerce discusses upcoming events in the city of Williamsport and other areas.
A Sunbury couple who work hard to rescue shelter dogs and find them forever homes, is looking for a way to raise money for three dog rescues in Northeast PA.	Planning for "Rock for Rescues 2024" is underway now, with an 80s theme and plans to have iconic 1980s vehicles on site. Ron Keel, national recording artist and former Sturgis entertainer, has agreed to play for the finale of the event.	In Touch WZKR,WCKR	28-Jan	6:30AM	20 Min	Mary and Dennis Marquette described Ron Keel's music history and their own stories of adopting pets through the rescue shelters who are going to benefit from the summer-fundraiser. The Marquettes are seeking an opening act for Ron Keel, and a sound engineer for the event on July 27th.
A Sunbury couple who work hard to rescue shelter dogs and find them forever homes, is looking for a way to raise money for three dog rescues in Northeast PA.	Planning for "Rock for Rescues 2024" is underway now, with an 80s theme and plans to have iconic 1980s vehicles on site. Ron Keel, national recording artist and former Sturgis entertainer, has agreed to play for the finale of the event.	In Touch WILQ	28-Jan	6:40AM	20 Min	Mary and Dennis Marquette described Ron Keel's music history and their own stories of adopting pets through the rescue shelters who are going to benefit from the summer-fundraiser. The Marquettes are seeking an opening act for Ron Keel, and a sound engineer for the event on July 27th.
A Sunbury couple who work hard to rescue shelter dogs and find them forever homes, is looking for a way to raise money for three dog rescues in Northeast PA.	Planning for "Rock for Rescues 2024" is underway now, with an 80s theme and plans to have iconic 1980s vehicles on site. Ron Keel, national recording artist and former Sturgis entertainer, has agreed to play for the finale of the event.	In Touch WBZD	28-Jan	7AM	20 Min	Mary and Dennis Marquette described Ron Keel's music history and their own stories of adopting pets through the rescue shelters who are going to benefit from the summer-fundraiser. The Marquettes are seeking an opening act for Ron Keel, and a sound engineer for the event on July 27th.
A Sunbury couple who work hard to rescue shelter dogs and find them forever homes, is looking for a way to raise money for three dog rescues in Northeast PA.	Planning for "Rock for Rescues 2024" is underway now, with an 80s theme and plans to have iconic 1980s vehicles on site. Ron Keel, national recording artist and former Sturgis entertainer, has agreed to play for the finale of the event.	In Touch WOTH	28-Jan	7:20AM	:20	Mary and Dennis Marquette described Ron Keel's music history and their own stories of adopting pets through the rescue shelters who are going to benefit from the summer-fundraiser. The Marquettes are seeking an opening act for Ron Keel, and a sound engineer for the event on July 27th.
A Sunbury couple who work hard to rescue shelter dogs and find them forever homes, is looking for a way to raise money for three dog rescues in Northeast PA.	Planning for "Rock for Rescues 2024" is underway now, with an 80s theme and plans to have iconic 1980s vehicles on site. Ron Keel, national recording artist and former Sturgis entertainer, has agreed to play for the finale of the event.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	28-Jan	11AM	20 Min	Mary and Dennis Marquette described Ron Keel's music history and their own stories of adopting pets through the rescue shelters who are going to benefit from the summer-fundraiser. The Marquettes are seeking an opening act for Ron Keel, and a sound engineer for the event on July 27th.
Some Middle and High School age girls in Northeast PA counties face "Period Poverty", an inability to afford feminine hygiene products.	The Junior League of Williamsport has started an initiative to raise money for feminine hygiene products to be distributed in schools thanks to supportive teachers and staff members.	In Touch WZKR,WCKR	4-Feb	6:30am	20 Min	Junior League members Lilli Amanda Crum and LaTricia Scutching talk about the efforts they have made to bring awareness to "period poverty", and they describe the anxiety a student might feel if they are unprepared for their menstrual cycle. They encourage anyone involved with teens to help their initiative.
Some Middle and High School age girls in Northeast PA counties face "Period Poverty", an inability to afford feminine hygiene products.	The Junior League of Williamsport has started an initiative to raise money for feminine hygiene products to be distributed in schools thanks to supportive teachers and staff members.	In Touch WILQ	4-Feb	6:40am	20 Min	Junior League members Lilli Amanda Crum and LaTricia Scutching talk about the efforts they have made to bring awareness to "period poverty", and they describe the anxiety a student might feel if they are unprepared for their menstrual cycle. They encourage anyone involved with teens to help their initiative.

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How issue was addressed	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
North Central PA and the region that is served by the First Community Foundation Partnership has numerous non-profit organizations that fail to get good regular media exposure since many have limited budgets and resources.	FCFP began a 30 hour online giving campaign 11 years ago and has since raised over 16 million dollars for qualifying organizations in that time.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	11-Feb	11AM	:20	Erin Ruhl, explains the way the 30-hour fundraiser provides a way for area non-profits in 7 counties to solicit for funds and then be boosted by 175 thousand dollars in stretch funds provided by Blaise Alexander Family Dealerships over the two-day event, hoping to meet their 2024 goal of 2.2 million dollars.
Heart Disease Continues to be a Leading Cause of Death for Men and Women and February is American Heart Month, time to raise awareness about the risk of heart disease.	A doctor can provide newer medications that can treat the problem of heart disease, but only if the patient gets a screening to determine their risk and to get an assessment by a doctor.	In Touch WZXR,WCXR	18-Feb	06:30a	20 Min	Dr. Nancy Fitch emergency physician of Med Express helps raise awareness about Heart Disease, and give tips on how to lower risk factors, and how to improve even if you have a family history of heart disease.
Heart Disease Continues to be a Leading Cause of Death for Men and Women and February is American Heart Month, time to raise awareness about the risk of heart disease.	A doctor can provide newer medications that can treat the problem of heart disease, but only if the patient gets a screening to determine their risk and to get an assessment by a doctor.	In Touch WILQ	18-Feb	6:40a	20 Min	Dr. Nancy Fitch emergency physician of Med Express helps raise awareness about Heart Disease, and give tips on how to lower risk factors, and how to improve even if you have a family history of heart disease.
Heart Disease Continues to be a Leading Cause of Death for Men and Women and February is American Heart Month, time to raise awareness about the risk of heart disease.	A doctor can provide newer medications that can treat the problem of heart disease, but only if the patient gets a screening to determine their risk and to get an assessment by a doctor.	In Touch WBZD	18-Feb	7:00A	20 Min	Dr. Nancy Fitch emergency physician of Med Express helps raise awareness about Heart Disease, and give tips on how to lower risk factors, and how to improve even if you have a family history of heart disease.
Heart Disease Continues to be a Leading Cause of Death for Men and Women and February is American Heart Month, time to raise awareness about the risk of heart disease.	A doctor can provide newer medications that can treat the problem of heart disease, but only if the patient gets a screening to determine their risk and to get an assessment by a doctor.	In Touch WOTH	18-Feb	7:20	20 Min	Dr. Nancy Fitch emergency physician of Med Express helps raise awareness about Heart Disease, and give tips on how to lower risk factors, and how to improve even if you have a family history of heart disease.
Heart Disease Continues to be a Leading Cause of Death for Men and Women and February is American Heart Month, time to raise awareness about the risk of heart disease.	A doctor can provide newer medications that can treat the problem of heart disease, but only if the patient gets a screening to determine their risk and to get an assessment by a doctor.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	18-Feb	11am	20 Min	Dr. Nancy Fitch emergency physician of Med Express helps raise awareness about Heart Disease, and give tips on how to lower risk factors, and how to improve even if you have a family history of heart disease.
A new non-profit that serves Columbia and Northumberland Counties is looking for exposure to raise awareness and funds for "Community Options, Inc" that works to serve individuals with intellectual disabilities.	Community Options, Inc., a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WZXR,WCXR	25-Feb	6:30am	20 Min	Jamie Lyons, the Executive Director of Community Options describes how her team assists clients with intellectual disabilities as they seek resources for housing, employment and more.
A new non-profit that serves Columbia and Northumberland Counties is looking for exposure to raise awareness and funds for "Community Options, Inc" that works to serve individuals with intellectual disabilities.	Community Options, Inc., a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WILQ	25-Feb	6:40am	20 Min	Jamie Lyons, the Executive Director of Community Options describes how her team assists clients with intellectual disabilities as they seek resources for housing, employment and more.

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How issue was addressed	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
A new non-profit that serves Columbia and Northumberland Counties is looking for exposure to raise awareness and funds for "Community Options, Inc" that works to serve individuals with intellectual disabilities.	Community Options, Inc., a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WBZD	25-Feb	7am	20 Min	Jamie Lyons, the Executive Director of Community Options describes how her team assists clients with intellectual disabilities as they seek resources for housing, employment and more.
A new non-profit that serves Columbia and Northumberland Counties is looking for exposure to raise awareness and funds for "Community Options, Inc" that works to serve individuals with intellectual disabilities.	Community Options, Inc., a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WOTH	25-Feb	7:20am	20 Min	Jamie Lyons, the Executive Director of Community Options describes how her team assists clients with intellectual disabilities as they seek resources for housing, employment and more.
A new non-profit that serves Columbia and Northumberland Counties is looking for exposure to raise awareness and funds for "Community Options, Inc" that works to serve individuals with intellectual disabilities.	Community Options, Inc., a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	25-Feb	11am	20 Min	Jamie Lyons, the Executive Director of Community Options describes how her team assists clients with intellectual disabilities as they seek resources for housing, employment and more.
Williamsport Chamber of Commerce seeks exposure for their events.	Live interview with Jason Fink discussing upcoming events, businesses, etc.	WILQ	29-Feb	8:20AM	20 Min	Jason Fink from Williamsport Lycoming Chamber of Commerce discusses upcoming events in the city of Williamsport and other areas.
Residents of the Newberry neighborhood seek funds to complete projects in 2024, including beautification of thestreets and support for other community activities.	"Newberry Community Partnership", a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WZXR	4-Mar	6:30am	20 min	NCP's Bob Woodley describes how a small team of volunteers want to support the Newberry neighborhood, and formed a board that will provide the organization with manpower and volunteer hours to improve Newberry with the funds they raise during Raise the Region.
Residents of the Newberry neighborhood seek funds to complete projects in 2024, including beautification of thestreets and support for other community activities.	"Newberry Community Partnership", a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WILQ	4-Mar	6:40am	20 Min	NCP's Bob Woodley describes how a small team of volunteers want to support the Newberry neighborhood, and formed a board that will provide the organization with manpower and volunteer hours to improve Newberry with the funds they raise during Raise the Region.
Residents of the Newberry neighborhood seek funds to complete projects in 2024, including beautification of thestreets and support for other community activities.	"Newberry Community Partnership", a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WBZD	4-Mar	7am	20 Min	NCP's Bob Woodley describes how a small team of volunteers want to support the Newberry neighborhood, and formed a board that will provide the organization with manpower and volunteer hours to improve Newberry with the funds they raise during Raise the Region.
Residents of the Newberry neighborhood seek funds to complete projects in 2024, including beautification of thestreets and support for other community activities.	"Newberry Community Partnership", a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WOTH	4-Mar	7:20am	20 Min	NCP's Bob Woodley describes how a small team of volunteers want to support the Newberry neighborhood, and formed a board that will provide the organization with manpower and volunteer hours to improve Newberry with the funds they raise during Raise the Region.
Residents of the Newberry neighborhood seek funds to complete projects in 2024, including beautification of thestreets and support for other community activities.	"Newberry Community Partnership", a 501c3 organization qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	4-Mar	11am	20 Min	NCP's Bob Woodley describes how a small team of volunteers want to support the Newberry neighborhood, and formed a board that will provide the organization with manpower and volunteer hours to improve Newberry with the funds they raise during Raise the Region.

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How Issue was addressed	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
The Soap Box Derby Williamsport needs to deepen the bench with willing volunteers who can be a part of the Soap Box Derby this year and going forward, since many of the volunteers may no longer have children participating as racers in the group, and they need to raise funds so that the event can remain free to families who sign up to be in the race.	Soap Box Derby Williamsport, PA is a 501c3 organization that qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th, and through their fundraising, they hope raise funds to keep the event free for participants as well as raise awareness and gain interested volunteers this year - for the race in June and beyond.	In Touch WZXR, WCXR	10-Mar	6:30a	:20	Volunteer Mike Barclay, who is also the Derby announcer on race day, is recruiting new participants and families to be a part of the Soap Box Derby experience. He describes how all families who race, never pay to participate, even if they win and qualify to race in Akron, OH, at the Championship Derby.
The Soap Box Derby Williamsport needs to deepen the bench with willing volunteers who can be a part of the Soap Box Derby this year and going forward, since many of the volunteers may no longer have children participating as racers in the group, and they need to raise funds so that the event can remain free to families who sign up to be in the race.	Soap Box Derby Williamsport, PA is a 501c3 organization that qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th, and through their fundraising, they hope raise funds to keep the event free for participants as well as raise awareness and gain interested volunteers this year - for the race in June and beyond.	In Touch WILQ	10-Mar	6:40a	:20	Volunteer Mike Barclay, who is also the Derby announcer on race day, is recruiting new participants and families to be a part of the Soap Box Derby experience. He describes how all families who race, never pay to participate, even if they win and qualify to race in Akron, OH, at the Championship Derby.
The Soap Box Derby Williamsport needs to deepen the bench with willing volunteers who can be a part of the Soap Box Derby this year and going forward, since many of the volunteers may no longer have children participating as racers in the group, and they need to raise funds so that the event can remain free to families who sign up to be in the race.	Soap Box Derby Williamsport, PA is a 501c3 organization that qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th, and through their fundraising, they hope raise funds to keep the event free for participants as well as raise awareness and gain interested volunteers this year - for the race in June and beyond.	In Touch WBZD	10-Mar	7:00a	:20	Volunteer Mike Barclay, who is also the Derby announcer on race day, is recruiting new participants and families to be a part of the Soap Box Derby experience. He describes how all families who race, never pay to participate, even if they win and qualify to race in Akron, OH, at the Championship Derby.
The Soap Box Derby Williamsport needs to deepen the bench with willing volunteers who can be a part of the Soap Box Derby this year and going forward, since many of the volunteers may no longer have children participating as racers in the group, and they need to raise funds so that the event can remain free to families who sign up to be in the race.	Soap Box Derby Williamsport, PA is a 501c3 organization that qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th, and through their fundraising, they hope raise funds to keep the event free for participants as well as raise awareness and gain interested volunteers this year - for the race in June and beyond.	In Touch WOTH	10-Mar	7:20am	:20	Volunteer Mike Barclay, who is also the Derby announcer on race day, is recruiting new participants and families to be a part of the Soap Box Derby experience. He describes how all families who race, never pay to participate, even if they win and qualify to race in Akron, OH, at the Championship Derby.
The Soap Box Derby Williamsport needs to deepen the bench with willing volunteers who can be a part of the Soap Box Derby this year and going forward, since many of the volunteers may no longer have children participating as racers in the group, and they need to raise funds so that the event can remain free to families who sign up to be in the race.	Soap Box Derby Williamsport, PA is a 501c3 organization that qualified to become one of hundreds of organizations included in the 30-hour Raise the Region fundraiser coming up May 13th and 14th, and through their fundraising, they hope raise funds to keep the event free for participants as well as raise awareness and gain interested volunteers this year - for the race in June and beyond.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	10-Mar	11:00a	:20	Volunteer Mike Barclay, who is also the Derby announcer on race day, is recruiting new participants and families to be a part of the Soap Box Derby experience. He describes how all families who race, never pay to participate, even if they win and qualify to race in Akron, OH, at the Championship Derby.
Fashion pollution takes its toll on the environment, and having a place to purchase vintage clothing and collectibles, as well as items from days gone by, can help items be reused and keep the clothing waste out of landfills, giving consumers a chance to be proactive about the environment in Lycoming County.	The first annual Central PA Vintage Fest was conceived and brought together over 50 vendors that offer upcycled and reused items and collectibles for sale at the Palmsa Factory in Williamsport on March 23rd.	In Touch WZXR, WCXR	17-Mar	6:30am	:20	Tom Scott and Lonnie Wilcox, the coordinators of the Central PA Vintage Fest, described the overwhelming interest in recycling, collecting and upcycling that brought about the decision to offer an annual event to cater to those who want to do their part to save the environment by taking a bite out of fashion pollution by thrifting at the Central PA Vintage Fest March 23rd, 2024.
Fashion pollution takes its toll on the environment, and having a place to purchase vintage clothing and collectibles, as well as items from days gone by, can help items be reused and keep the clothing waste out of landfills, giving consumers a chance to be proactive about the environment in Lycoming County.	The first annual Central PA Vintage Fest was conceived and brought together over 50 vendors that offer upcycled and reused items and collectibles for sale at the Palmsa Factory in Williamsport on March 23rd.	In Touch WILQ	17-Mar	6:40am	:20	Tom Scott and Lonnie Wilcox, the coordinators of the Central PA Vintage Fest, described the overwhelming interest in recycling, collecting and upcycling that brought about the decision to offer an annual event to cater to those who want to do their part to save the environment by taking a bite out of fashion pollution by thrifting at the Central PA Vintage Fest March 23rd, 2024.

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How issue was addressed	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Fashion pollution takes its toll on the environment, and having a place to purchase vintage clothing and collectibles, as well as items from days gone by, can help items be reused and keep the clothing waste out of landfills, giving consumers a chance to be proactive about the environment in Lycoming County.	The first annual Central PA Vintage Fest was conceived and brought together over 50 vendors that offer upcycled and reused items and collectibles for sale at the Pajama Factory in Williamsport on March 23rd.	In Touch WBZD	17-Mar	7am	20 Min	Tom Scott and Lonnie Wilcox, the coordinators of the Central PA Vintage Fest, described the overwhelming interest in recycling, collecting and upcycling that brought about the decision to offer an annual event to cater to those who want to do their part to save the environment by taking a bite out of fashion pollution by thrifting at the Central PA Vintage Fest March 23rd, 2024.
Fashion pollution takes its toll on the environment, and having a place to purchase vintage clothing and collectibles, as well as items from days gone by, can help items be reused and keep the clothing waste out of landfills, giving consumers a chance to be proactive about the environment in Lycoming County.	The first annual Central PA Vintage Fest was conceived and brought together over 50 vendors that offer upcycled and reused items and collectibles for sale at the Pajama Factory in Williamsport on March 23rd.	In Touch WOTH	17-Mar	7:20am	20 Min	Tom Scott and Lonnie Wilcox, the coordinators of the Central PA Vintage Fest, described the overwhelming interest in recycling, collecting and upcycling that brought about the decision to offer an annual event to cater to those who want to do their part to save the environment by taking a bite out of fashion pollution by thrifting at the Central PA Vintage Fest March 23rd, 2024.
Fashion pollution takes its toll on the environment, and having a place to purchase vintage clothing and collectibles, as well as items from days gone by, can help items be reused and keep the clothing waste out of landfills, giving consumers a chance to be proactive about the environment in Lycoming County.	The first annual Central PA Vintage Fest was conceived and brought together over 50 vendors that offer upcycled and reused items and collectibles for sale at the Pajama Factory in Williamsport on March 23rd.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	17-Mar	11am	20 Min	Tom Scott and Lonnie Wilcox, the coordinators of the Central PA Vintage Fest, described the overwhelming interest in recycling, collecting and upcycling that brought about the decision to offer an annual event to cater to those who want to do their part to save the environment by taking a bite out of fashion pollution by thrifting at the Central PA Vintage Fest March 23rd, 2024.

Woman who are undergoing chemotherapy or have had a mastectomy seek warm clothing while they undergo treatment for breast cancer, so volunteers from "Girlz in the Hoodie" found a solution.	Through various fundraising events like golf tournaments and selling raffle tickets to give away a 1974 Volkswagen bus decorated in pink and white, Girlz in the Hoodie can provide sweatshirts for those who want or need one, as well as scholarships for students who have lost a mother figure to breast cancer.	In Touch WZXR,WCXR	24-Mar	6:30am	20 Min	Anthony Mussare, a founding member of Girlz in the Hoodie" described the team that came up with the concept for the non-profit and the organization they formed that was fueled by the desire to help those who are being treated for breast cancer, and the backstory about where the VW bus came from that they will raffle off in October 2024, that helps spread the word about their scholarship and hoodie giving mission in Lycoming County and the world.
Woman who are undergoing chemotherapy or have had a mastectomy seek warm clothing while they undergo treatment for breast cancer, so volunteers from "Girlz in the Hoodie" found a solution.	Through various fundraising events like golf tournaments and selling raffle tickets to give away a 1974 Volkswagen bus decorated in pink and white, Girlz in the Hoodie can provide sweatshirts for those who want or need one, as well as scholarships for students who have lost a mother figure to breast cancer.	In Touch WILQ	24-Mar	6:40am	20 Min	Anthony Mussare, a founding member of Girlz in the Hoodie" described the team that came up with the concept for the non-profit and the organization they formed that was fueled by the desire to help those who are being treated for breast cancer, and the backstory about where the VW bus came from that they will raffle off in October 2024, that helps spread the word about their scholarship and hoodie giving mission in Lycoming County and the world.
Woman who are undergoing chemotherapy or have had a mastectomy seek warm clothing while they undergo treatment for breast cancer, so volunteers from "Girlz in the Hoodie" found a solution.	Through various fundraising events like golf tournaments and selling raffle tickets to give away a 1974 Volkswagen bus decorated in pink and white, Girlz in the Hoodie can provide sweatshirts for those who want or need one, as well as scholarships for students who have lost a mother figure to breast cancer.	In Touch WBZD	24-Mar	7am	20 Min	Anthony Mussare, a founding member of Girlz in the Hoodie" described the team that came up with the concept for the non-profit and the organization they formed that was fueled by the desire to help those who are being treated for breast cancer, and the backstory about where the VW bus came from that they will raffle off in October 2024, that helps spread the word about their scholarship and hoodie giving mission in Lycoming County and the world.
Woman who are undergoing chemotherapy or have had a mastectomy seek warm clothing while they undergo treatment for breast cancer, so volunteers from "Girlz in the Hoodie" found a solution.	Through various fundraising events like golf tournaments and selling raffle tickets to give away a 1974 Volkswagen bus decorated in pink and white, Girlz in the Hoodie can provide sweatshirts for those who want or need one, as well as scholarships for students who have lost a mother figure to breast cancer.	In Touch WOTH	24-Mar	7:20am	20 Min	Anthony Mussare, a founding member of Girlz in the Hoodie" described the team that came up with the concept for the non-profit and the organization they formed that was fueled by the desire to help those who are being treated for breast cancer, and the backstory about where the VW bus came from that they will raffle off in October 2024, that helps spread the word about their scholarship and hoodie giving mission in Lycoming County and the world.

Woman who are undergoing chemotherapy or have had a mastectomy seek warm clothing while they undergo treatment for breast cancer, so volunteers from "Girlz in the Hoodie" found a solution.	Through various fundraising events like golf tournaments and selling raffle tickets to give away a 1974 Volkswagen bus decorated in pink and white, Girlz in the Hoodie can provide sweatshirts for those who want or need one, as well as scholarships for students who have lost a mother figure to breast cancer.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	24-Mar	11:00A	20 Min	Anthony Mussare, a founding member of Girlz in the Hoodie" described the team that came up with the concept for the non-profit and the organization they formed that was fueled by the desire to help those who are being treated for breast cancer, and the backstory about where the VW bus came from that they will raffle off in October 2024, that helps spread the word about their scholarship and hoodie giving mission in Lycoming County and the world.
---	---	----------------------------	---------------	---------------	---------------	--

Backyard Broadcasting, Williamsport Pennsylvania Issues and Programs Quarterly Report 1st Quarter, January 1, 2024 - March 31, 2024

Issue	How issue was addressed	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Williamsport Chamber of Commerce seeks exposure for their events.	Live interview with Jason Fink discussing upcoming events, businesses, etc.	WILQ	28-Mar	8:20AM	20 Min	Jason Fink from Williamsport Lycoming Chamber of Commerce discusses upcoming events in the city of Williamsport and other areas.
First responders and military veterans can be overwhelmed by emotions after they cease service, return home or as they continue to run towards danger willingly. They need a place where they can work through trauma and trust issues with like-minded veterans and other volunteers willing to help in an outdoor atmosphere without having to spend their resources.	An over 23-hundred acre camp called Camp Freedom was opened in Northeast PA near Carbondale that serves military veterans, first responders and Gold Star Families for free, that provides outdoor activities, camaraderie and opportunity to heal from trauma and other wounds suffered through PTSD.	In Touch WZXR,WCXR	31-Mar	6:30am	20 Min	Executive Director of Camp Freedom, Matt Guedes, describes the atmosphere of healing that can be found at Camp Freedom. As an army veteran and minister, he seeks to facilitate healing for those who need it at the camp through activities that build trust and camaraderie. As a partner with Danny Koker of Kounts Customs, Guedes explains that they raise money annually through special motorcycle and car builds that are auctioned off at Camp Freedom events.
First responders and military veterans can be overwhelmed by emotions after they cease service, return home or as they continue to run towards danger willingly. They need a place where they can work through trauma and trust issues with like-minded veterans and other volunteers willing to help in an outdoor atmosphere without having to spend their resources.	An over 23-hundred acre camp called Camp Freedom was opened in Northeast PA near Carbondale that serves military veterans, first responders and Gold Star Families for free, that provides outdoor activities, camaraderie and opportunity to heal from trauma and other wounds suffered through PTSD.	In Touch WILQ	31-Mar	6:40am	20 Min	Executive Director of Camp Freedom, Matt Guedes, describes the atmosphere of healing that can be found at Camp Freedom. As an army veteran and minister, he seeks to facilitate healing for those who need it at the camp through activities that build trust and camaraderie. As a partner with Danny Koker of Kounts Customs, Guedes explains that they raise money annually through special motorcycle and car builds that are auctioned off at Camp Freedom events.

First responders and military veterans can be overwhelmed by emotions after they cease service, return home or as they continue to run towards danger willingly. They need a place where they can work through trauma and trust issues with like-minded veterans and other volunteers willing to help in an outdoor atmosphere without having to spend their resources.	An over 23-hundred acre camp called Camp Freedom was opened in Northeast PA near Carbondale that serves military veterans, first responders and Gold Star Families for free, that provides outdoor activities, camaraderie and opportunity to heal from trauma and other wounds suffered through PTSD.	In Touch WBZD	31-Mar	7am	20 Min	Executive Director of Camp Freedom, Matt Guedes, describes the atmosphere of healing that can be found at Camp Freedom. As an army veteran and minister, he seeks to facilitate healing for those who need it at the camp through activities that build trust and camaraderie. As a partner with Danny Koker of Kounts Customs, Guedes explains that they raise money annually through special motorcycle and car builds that are auctioned off at Camp Freedom events.
First responders and military veterans can be overwhelmed by emotions after they cease service, return home or as they continue to run towards danger willingly. They need a place where they can work through trauma and trust issues with like-minded veterans and other volunteers willing to help in an outdoor atmosphere without having to spend their resources.	An over 23-hundred acre camp called Camp Freedom was opened in Northeast PA near Carbondale that serves military veterans, first responders and Gold Star Families for free, that provides outdoor activities, camaraderie and opportunity to heal from trauma and other wounds suffered through PTSD.	In Touch WOTH	31-Mar	7:20am	20 Min	Williamsport Firefighters, Stephen Yonkin and James Baker, shared the importance of cancer screenings for career fire fighters and how they joined the effort to raise funds to provide the tests for all the local firefighters, and hope they can raise awareness for this issue.
First responders and military veterans can be overwhelmed by emotions after they cease service, return home or as they continue to run towards danger willingly. They need a place where they can work through trauma and trust issues with like-minded veterans and other volunteers willing to help in an outdoor atmosphere without having to spend their resources.	An over 23-hundred acre camp called Camp Freedom was opened in Northeast PA near Carbondale that serves military veterans, first responders and Gold Star Families for free, that provides outdoor activities, camaraderie and opportunity to heal from trauma and other wounds suffered through PTSD.	In Touch WWPA, WMLP	31-Mar	11am	20 Min	Executive Director of Camp Freedom, Matt Guedes, describes the atmosphere of healing that can be found at Camp Freedom. As an army veteran and minister, he seeks to facilitate healing for those who need it at the camp through activities that build trust and camaraderie. As a partner with Danny Koker of Kounts Customs, Guedes explains that they raise money annually through special motorcycle and car builds that are auctioned off at Camp Freedom events.