Public Affairs Programming	Virginia Focus	Sep 11 and 18,2022	30 minutes	Literacy Volunteers Winchester If you thought you knew everything there was to know about your local literacy volunteer organization, think again. At one time, adult education referred to being taught remedial and basic reading and writing skills. Adults who attended these classes often felt shame for their lack of knowledge. However, today's programs encompass a wider focus to include not only basic reading and writing, but broader, higher-level skills that include GED prep classes, becoming computer literate , and more. Let's talk to Andy Gail, the Executive Director of Literacy Volunteers Winchester.	Weekly program airing Sunday mornings at 7am. Two episodes run back to back for a total of 60 minutes.

Public Affairs Programming	Virginia Focus	Sep 18 and 25,2022	30 minutes	Federal Tort Claims Act The United States federal government was ordered to pay over $230,000 to victims of one of the largest mass shootings in the country where 26 people died and 22 more suffered injuries. This case was tried in federal court through the Federal Tort Claims Act and found the U.S. Government 60% liable for failing to provide the shooter's prior domestic violence convictions to the FBI. The case is similar to the mass shooting at Virginia Tech and others except the feds settled those cases and admitted their wrongdoing. The results of this case could have long-lasting effects on all states, including Virginia. On Virginia Focus, we're talking to a lead attorney in the Sutherland Springs Mass Shooting Case, Jamal Alsaffar.	Weekly program airing Sunday mornings at 7am.
