Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	1/5/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	In today's culture, there's pressure to define ourselves by worldly standards, but for Christians, true identity is found in Jesus, not in worldly achievements or possessions. Focusing on wealth or success can lead to pride, envy, constant comparison, worry about finances, and disillusionment, as these pursuits never truly satisfy. Letting money or success define us can make us believe our worth is tied to our work, income, or spending, leading to a lack of peace and misguided identity.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	1/9/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	You won't find the word "budget" in the Bible, but it does say a lot about stewardship— and budgeting is stewardship. Having a spending plan and sticking to it is the only way to control your money, stay out of debt and gain peace of mind about your finances. When you practice faithful stewardship, you no longer have to worry about your money, because you've accepted that it's God's money. He owns everything. So budgeting is a key part of stewardship.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	1/18/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Miriam Neff back on the program. She's the founder and president of Widow Connection , a ministry dedicated to helping women overcome and thrive after the loss of a husband. She's also co-author, with her daughter Valerie Neff Hogan, of Wise Women Managing Money .
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	1/24/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Sharon Epps is the president of Kingdom Advisors , our parent organization. Kingdom Advisors is a group dedicated to training financial professionals to guide and advise you according to biblical principles.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	1/30/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Tim Macready is head of Global Multi-Asset Investing with BrightLight , an EverSource Wealth Advisors Team. Initially, there were hardly any faith-based options in private markets, but now there are 50 to 100 faith-based private market funds and hundreds more in broader impact investing. Most are still for qualified or accredited investors, but I'm optimistic that faith-integrated private market investments will become available to everyday investors soon.

Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	2/8/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Generosity is not just about giving but trusting God with our finances, demonstrating faith in His provision, multiplication, and enrichment. Generosity shifts our reliance from money to God. By trusting God with our soul, we should also trust Him with our finances, embracing our role as stewards of His resources. Art Rainer's insights remind us that financial stewardship and generosity are integral to our spiritual lives and our maturity in Christ, underlining the importance of trusting God with every aspect of our finances.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	2/13/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Rob discusses the reasons parents might consider lending money to their children for a house purchase, such as reducing the interest the child must pay and helping if the child does not qualify for a mortgage due to debt-to-income ratio issues or insufficient credit history. He emphasizes the importance of understanding the implications of lending versus gifting money, the potential risks involved, and ensuring any loan is legally documented.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	2/20/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Research shows men and women often have different financial priorities, emotions related to money, interests in financial topics, negotiation tendencies, and risk levels in investing, which can lead to conflict in marriages.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	2/29/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Aligning Values: We are encouraged to make financial decisions that align with our Christian values, including supporting companies with godly practices and investing in opportunities that honor God's principles. Faith-Based Institutions: In the world of finance, there are institutions that prioritize faith-based principles. Christian Community Credit Union is one such example, offering banking solutions that align with our beliefs. Survey Insights: Recent surveys have shown a strong desire among Christians for banking practices that reflect their values, with many considering switching to faith-based institutions like Christian Community Credit Union.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	3/8/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	LLC, or Limited Liability Company. This business structure protects you from personal responsibility for the company's debts or liabilities. C-corp ... the C-corp is different from LLC as it does not allow a "flow through" treatment of profits and losses for tax purposes. S-corp ... This structure has the best features of both the LLC and the C-corp.

Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	3/11/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Both a will and a trust may be necessary for comprehensive estate planning, especially for those with minor children or a preference for privacy and control over asset distribution. Consulting with a state attorney, preferably with a Certified Kingdom Advisor designation for alignment with Christian values, is advised for drafting these essential documents.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	3/19/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Comparing retirement planning to a preflight checklist underscores the critical importance of preparation. Just as pilots meticulously ensure the safety of their flight, individuals approaching retirement need to assess various aspects of their financial life to ensure a smooth transition into retirement. This analogy highlights the need for thoroughness and attention to detail in retirement planning, especially for those within a decade of their planned retirement date.
Economy/ Finances	FaithFi	3/26/24	12:30 pm	25 mins	Disappointment is inevitable, but discouragement is a choice. People love to look into the future. We all have hopes, and dreams, and expectations about what we want our life to be. So, we make plans. Plans to save, serve, build a family, work, travel, learn, grow...you name it. Planning is part of what it takes to make our dreams come true. And there's nothing wrong with planning. Planning is an important part of being a good steward of whatever God has entrusted to you. But here's the problem. Our plans don't always succeed. Dreams fail. Expectations go unmet. And then, disappointment happens...maybe more than we want to admit.

Education	Bridging the Gap	2/21/24	8:00 am	25 mins	In this gospel, Matthew writes of Jesus as the King of Israel. Jesus and the disciples are discussing the temple buildings when Jesus speaks a prophecy of the coming destruction of the temple, thought to be nearly impossible at that time. Then, he tells of the coming tribulation, of wars and famines, of falling away and false prophets who will mislead many. Godless, atheistic, Marxist views are a sign of the times we are living in, “But he who endures to the end will be saved.” These perilous times will end with the coming of the Son of Man.
Education	Bridging the Gap	2/28/24	8:00 am	25 mins	Today on Bridging the Gap, Lloyd Pulley shows us that being poor in spirit will lead us to sorrow over our condition. That sorrow in turn will drive us to God, to turn from sin and repent. Repentance seems to be an unpopular concept in our day. Some have even attempted to present the Gospel without it. However, as we'll soon see, there is no salvation without repentance. That's a message clearly taught in the New Testament.

Education	Bridging the Gap	3/14/24	8:00 am	25 mins	Christians today experience persecution of varying degrees, and yet the message from the Bible is that we should rejoice and be exceedingly glad in the light of it. Today we'll wrap up our detailed examination of the beatitudes. We trust that you have a Bible available and that you're ready to join us in Matthew five, verses ten through twelve.

Education	Bridging the Gap	3/22/24	8:00 am	25 mins	Today on Bridging the Gap - Pastor Lloyd Pulley returns to his study of the Sermon on the Mount. We'll go to Matthew chapter five verses seventeen through twenty. If you have a Bible nearby, you might find your place there now as we join Lloyd to examine what Jesus said about the Law - New Testament and Old!
Education	Bridging the Gap	3/26/24	8:00 am	25 mins	God is very specific in His word about everything related to our lives here on earth, and our eternal life as well. This is a part of Lloyd's ongoing study of the Sermon on the Mount. That is found in Matthew's Gospel in chapters five through seven. We'll be in chapter five, verses twenty one through forty eight today.
