

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by WRAM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of: September 1, 2015 to September 30, 2015. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Health	Morning Show Interview	2-Sep	8:20 AM	10 MINUTES	With Medicare D season on the way, the Strom Center in Monmouth is getting prepared for the rush of incoming enrollment appointments in both Warren and Henderson Counties. The Strom Center is urging people to fill out their medication forms and return them as soon as possible. Also, they will be offering Medicare meetings the first week of October to cover changes in plans and other Medicare changes. For more information about the Strom Center's Medicare programs, make sure to contact them at 734-5677 with any questions you might have.
Education	Morning Show Interview	12-Sep	8:20 AM	10 MINUTES	Regional Superintendent, Jodi Scott, says that the teacher evaluation program will begin full implementation in the 2016-2017 school year. Scott said the ultimate goal overall for the program is consistent improvement with their teachers. Scott also added that the current school year will serve as a pilot year for the program, and hopes that the program will be a success in the improvement of teacher-student interactions.
Agriculture	Morning Show Interview	14-Sep	8:20 AM	10 MINUTES	A major focus of the WRAM 2015 Fall Ag Roundtable was discussion about the Waters of the U.S. Ruling recently put through by the EPA. David Erickson talked about the push within the senate to gain support against the Clean Water Rule. Ray Defenbaugh added to the discussion on the Waters of the U.S. Ruling that he believes that farmers working independently to produce food, without government control, is a good thing overall for the country. He stated that a fear many farmers may have is that they will be controlled by the government in everything they do.
Education	Morning Show Interview	18-Sep	8:20 AM	10 MINUTES	The West Central School Board met this week to discuss the budget during a scheduled hearing and then approved the budget on Wednesday night. Superintendent Paula Markey describes the 2015-2016 budget. Superintendent Markey was also recognized as a safety committee designee based on emergency plans submitted to emergency responders at the board of education meeting. The School Board also approved the dedication of the Zach Bundy Memorial Bench in honor of the former student who passed away last year. The Memorial Bench will be located at the High School.

Community	Morning Show Interview	22-Sep	8:20 AM	10 MINUTES	Nancy Mowen, of the Jamieson Community Center, says that state funding currently is a big issue for the Jamieson Center, especially for their senior nutrition program. Mowen says that state funding is a significant portion of their budget. Mowen added that although the budget is a big issue for the center, they are still committed to continuing the senior nutrition program as long as people still need meals.
City Government	Morning Show Interview	29-Sep	8:20 AM	10 MINUTES	At the city council meeting Monday night, city administrator, Lowell Crow, states that a big part of the discussion was the state budget. With many state functions being shut down, Crow said that individual city projects in Monmouth are being affected as well. Crow added that although gaming proceeds make up a small percentage of the Monmouth budget, he has seen the strong effect it has on other communities within the state.

OTHER INTERVIEWS

EVERY WEEK, INTERVIEW MARK PHILLIPSON OF THE WARREN COUNTY FSA OFFICE ABOUT DCP PAYMENTS/USDA POLICIES

EVERY DAY WRAM FEATURES AN AGRICULTURE SEGMENT REGARDING GRAIN, LIVESTOCK, MARKETS, AND LEGISLATION