Text of Announcement:

On October 27, 2005, KTZU was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 1, 2013.

Our license will expire on April 1, 2013. We must file an application for renewal with the FCC by December 1, 2012. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning this station's performance during the last license term commencing on April 1, 2005.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by March 1, 2013.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at Station KTZU, (insert address for location of the Public Inspection File), or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.
