Title:

Voice: Willie Dejong

Announcer: Comanche County Resident and Dairy Industry Leader Willie Dejong

Willie: Folks, this is Willie Dejong, I want to talk to you about something that has been bothering me for some time now.

Paying taxes is never fun. But we do it because the benefit outweighs the alternative.

But what I've witnessed in this election on Ranger college is wrong.

My momma taught me if you can't say something nice, then don't say anything at all.

If you want to vote 'no' that's fine. . . but don't use your excuse by Attacking Ranger College

You don't attack its students, its teachers or administrators

You don't talk smack or talk down about people who have gotten degrees from Ranger College because they are ~~of~~ what they've done.

WHD OR

Because I have lots of friends who are nurses, welders, fire fighters, dairymen, hairdressers, machinists and hard working people who are just trying to get a little more training to get better jobs and take care of their families.

Voting No is your right. But it's not right to attack those who disagree with you—online, in the coffee shop or at church.

My wife and I will be voting Yes for Ranger College. . because that's our right, too.

Title: Helping our Students

Voice: Lee Ann Ingram

:60

(Disclaimer)

Announcer: Concerned parent Lee Ann Ingram, how much does it cost to go to college today?

Lee Ann: Studies show it can cost as much as $24,000 a year for a Texas public school. 50% or more for private schools.

Announcer: So if you have kids in school today, what do you do?

Lee Ann: Start saving for college early and Vote YES for the Ranger College annexation election. Then be sure and take advantage of local programs like Dual Credits and taking classes at Ranger College.

Announcer: What are dual credits and how much will this save students?

Lee Ann: Tuition rates will be cut by 50% and Dual Credit courses—which are college level courses our students take while still in High School—will go from $80 an hour to $25.

Announcer: Wow, that's a lot less. But, what will it cost us?

Lee Ann: Ranger College will be able to collect about $8 per month from the average homeowner—a worthwhile cost for less than a Domino's pizza or a Happy Meal and a Big Gulp each month.

Voting Yes for Ranger College is a great investment, after all investing in Education is always the right choice.
