CONNECT NY #102: RECEIVERSHIP IN STATE EDUCATION

Airdate/Time: 1/30/16, 1pm

Length: 60-minutes

Description: Under the new state receivership plan, schools labeled “persistently struggling” will be given one year to improve student performance. Hear from Commissioner MaryEllen Elia, superintendents responsible for turning schools around, and stakeholders who think the plan could set up schools for further failure, and others who think receivership is the only option to save struggling schools. The show features Cheryl Atkinson, assistant state education department commissioner, Sam Radford, president of district parent coordinating council of Buffalo, Marguerite Vanden Wyngaard, Ph.D. Albany City Schools superintendent, Tim Kremer, New York State School Boards Association executive director, and Kevin Ahern, Syracuse Teachers Association president.

CONNECT NY #103: TESTING, OPTING-OUT AND PARENTAL ENGAGEMENT

Airdate/Time: 2/6/16, 1pm

Length: 60-minutes

Description: On this edition of Connect:NY: Opting out. The movement among parents to refuse to allow their children to take Common Core-aligned standardized tests has been growing in New York. State Education Commissioner MaryEllen Elia responds to parents and other stakeholders who feel the tests have become too long and/or too difficult. Meet parents who are frustrated by their inability to help their children with Common Core aligned homework.

CONNECT NY #104: SCHOOL FINANCING

Airdate/Time: 2/13/16, 1pm

Length: 60-minutes

Description: This episode of Connect NY focuses on the topic of school equity and financing. In 2006, the Court of Appeals ruled in Campaign for Fiscal Equity v. State of New York that the state had not met its constitutional obligation to provide adequate school funding to students in New York City. In 2007, the legislature remedied the issue by instituting a new, more generous funding formula. But the recession put a hold on that flow of funds. Now a second lawsuit is wending its way through the legal system to address what the plaintiff’s call the legislature’s constitutional failure. State Education Commissioner MaryEllen Elia and school finance experts from around the state discuss both the financial and political considerations of the current state aid formula; how it could be changed; and the underlying reasons for the system’s inherent inequity.

FINDING YOUR ROOTS #301: THE STORIES WE TELL

Airdate/Time: 1/5/16, 8pm; 1/7/16, 2:30am
Length: 60-minutes

Description: Professor Gates continues the quest he begun in African American Lives 1 and 2 and Faces of America delving into the genealogy and genetics of an all new group of famous Americans. The series combines history and science in a fascinating exploration of race, family, and identity in today's America. This first episode reveals the unsolved mysteries behind the family stories of political organizer Donna Brazile, actor Ty Burrell and artist Kara Walker as they learn how the legacy of slavery has shaped their identities.

THE MARCH

Airdate/Time: 1/18/16, 10pm; 1/21/16, 4:30am
Length: 60-minutes

Description: Witness the compelling and dramatic story of the 1963 March on Washington, where Dr. Martin Luther King gave his stirring "I Have a Dream" speech. This watershed event in the Civil Rights Movement helped change the face of America. The film reveals the dramatic story behind the event through the remembrances of key players such as Jack O'Dell, Clarence B. Jones, Julian Bond and Andrew Young. Supporters and other testimonials of the March include Harry Belafonte, Diahann Carroll, Roger Mudd, Peter Yarrow and Oprah Winfrey, in addition to historians, journalists, authors and ordinary citizens who joined some 250,000 Americans who thronged to the capital on that momentous day to peacefully demand an end to two centuries of discrimination and injustice. Denzel Washington narrates.

BRIDGING THE DIVIDE: TOM BRADLEY AND THE POLITICS OF RACE

Airdate/Time: 2/15/16, 9pm; 2/17/16, 4:30am; 2/20/16, 1pm

Length: 60-minutes

Description: Thirty-five years before the election of President Barack Obama, the question of race and the possibility of bridging racial barriers were put to the test in an overlooked story in American politics: Tom Bradley's 1973 election as Mayor of Los Angeles: the first African American mayor of a major U.S. city with an overwhelmingly white majority. BRIDGING THE DIVIDE tells the story of how Bradley's coalition of African Americans, Jews, white liberals, Latinos and Asian Americans united a divided city, brought inclusion and access, and set the foundation for inter-racial coalitions that encouraged the elections of minority candidates nationwide, including President Barack Obama. At the same time, the film examines the complexities and contradictions of Bradley's career as a bridge builder.

THE BLACK PANTHERS: VANGUARD OF THE REVOLUTION – INDEPENDENT LENS

NJTV NEWS WITH MARY ALICE WILLIAMS #5183

Airdate/Time: 3/11/16, 5:30pm

Length: 30-minutes

Description: This episode covered the down to the wire talks before the NJ Transit strike was averted. Both sides say they're hoping to cobble together the first contract in five years. Meantime commuters consider alternative transportation. Some long-time residents down the shore could lose their certificates of occupancy until they elevate their homes to meet higher building standards but the stairs required leave some seniors with no alternative. And bottled water's the alternative in Newark school buildings. The taps at half the schools were shut off this week because of lead-laced water – a problem that dates back decades.

NJTV NEWS WITH MARY ALICE WILLIAMS #5185

Airdate/Time: 3/15/16, 5:30pm

Length: 30-minutes

Description: Christie comes home to boost a booming job market but can't steer clear of resentment for his time on the trail stumping for Trump when detractors say he should have been here. Last spring's opt-outs and dismal PARCC test scores have left tens of thousands of high school seniors scrambling to graduate. Should PARCC scores be a requirement for graduation? And how to clear up congestion at the ports. The Truckers Association's calling for increased access and efficiency because if truckers can't move cargo, commerce stalls out.
