

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Second Quarter, 2022

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

May 9-14, 2022

Public File

Monday: The issue of this broadcast was an alternative method of reforming the government of the United States by use of Article Five of the Constitution. That article allows the states to call a convention to amend the Constitution. The guest was Bill Guiffredo, and the host was Steve Tuzeneu.

Tuesday & Wednesday: The issue on these two broadcasts was how a well regarded sports reporter and anchor for ESPN left that world behind and become involved in evangelistic ministry. Jason Romano was the guest and host was Gerry Williams.

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was the work of reconciliation between ethnic & racial groups when clergy from across the country get together by on-line meetings. Bishop Derek Grier explained how the group of clergy got together through the Internet and are planning steps to draw groups together and find common ground. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was about the work of Israel to reconcile and find common ground with the Muslim states of the Middle East. The meetings and commercial connections are the outgrowth from the work of former President Donald Trump. Felice Friedson spoke to leaders from several countries. The program host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue of this broadcast was about post-traumatic stress disorder and how a ministry known as "Warrior Set Free" works to help those still recovering from what they encountered while on active duty in a war zone. From the ministry, Steve Prince was the guest and the host was Paul Kretschmer with Katie Hearth.