

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of July 31—August 5, 2017

Monday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, catch an update on where the state budget stands at the end of July 2017. From the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, Marc Fitch will explain that while the Connecticut House may have approved a concessions package negotiated by Governor Malloy and state employees, the Connecticut Senate has not yet approved the package. Concessions now may not make much of a long-term difference in the Connecticut state government. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Tuesday: On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak with authors Bob Sloan and Tucker Mays about their experiences in being fired from jobs when they were 50. They wrote the book "Fired at 50," and want to share strategic and quicker ways to your perfect job simply by networking with others. You can hear this conversation on today's WIHS Journal airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday: On Wednesday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking with Susanna and Julianna Bennett who are both faithful volunteers at WIHS going back some years. They will share information about the history of WIHS Radio now in the process of research and writing. WIHS Radio will be publishing a book about the history of the station since its inception back in 1969. Today on the WIHS Journal, the two will share more of their ideas and the vision the station has for its future, in which listeners can take part. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm right here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal we feature a re-airing of an interview centering on academic freedom and how some teachers in higher education are persecuted for their faith and beliefs. Robert Oscar Lopez was teaching in California at a state university where he ran into intense opposition from a colleague who had the school administration's support of her actions. Hear Robert Oscar Lopez described what that experience was like on the WIHS Journal. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Healthline program, the topic for the month is kidney health and disease. As Middletown community health educator Lou Carta phrases it, many people have no idea where their kidneys are, what they do or how to take care of them. To answer questions about the kidneys, Carol Robinson from the National Kidney Foundation office in Cheshire is on hand to provide expert information and advice. The WIHS Healthline hosted by community health educator Lou Carta, airs the first Saturday of every month at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
