

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Fourth Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

December 18-23, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was information about an upcoming Christian opportunity for women called “Fashion & Comedy Night.” Guest Savandra La Trease provided an introduction to the event and invited listeners to come to it. Anissa Porticelli was the host.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was the “Wreathes Across America” event held at the State Capitol in November. An explanation of the event staged and hosted by the American Legion and Wreathes Across America was conducted by Art Sandyl of South Windsor. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was about the debate in Congress about how and whether military and humanitarian aid should be directed to Ukraine in its war with Russia. From the Hudson Institute, Peter Rough provided some perspective and possible options for Congress to consider. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was the illegal rollback of motor vehicle odometers in the United States. From Carfax, Patrick Olson explained how the procedure is done, why people seek to avoid taxes and sell cars for more than they’re worth and how to avoid being cheated when you buy a used car. Paul Kretschmer hosted.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was asking people on the street “What is the Meaning of Christmas” to you. Gerry Williams visited several locations around the greater Hartford area that asked questions and recorded their responses.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast being brought up to date on the work of “Faith Care” a ministry serving the medical needs in other countries as well as low income residents in the greater Hartford. Chief Executive officer Peter Schnatz provided the update and was questioned by Gerry Williams.