Monday: MLK School in Hartford recently held their annual career day where various people working in various occupations come to talk to the kids about their careers. Gerry Williams was on the scene to cover the event. Catch it on today's Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm. It's the WIHS Journal News & Public Affairs.

Tuesday: Catch Gerry Williams final segment of his Out And About coverage of the MLK Schools annual Career day. That's happening today at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal. It's News & Public Affairs!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about written assistance for people facing very serious emotional hurts. Dr. Edward Moody, Jr. calls his booklet series "First Aid for Emotional Hurts." Among the areas covered are: grief, addiction, depression, children with emotional problems and veterans. Dr. Moody is a trained Christian counselor with degrees from several institutions with practical experience working with people. Hear about, "First Aid for Emotional Hurts," on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about a Christian response to the Hashtag Me Too movement. The world has watched with unusual fascination for the past year as one man after another has been accused of sexual and assault on women, especially in the media. From Teach Beyond, Wyndy Corbin Reuschling talks about Biblical mandates for behavior between men and women. She talks about it with Ruth Kramer from Mission Network News. Hear it today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about the vital services of blood collection and distribution conducted by the American Red Cross. Up to forty percent of blood collection, testing and distribution is carried on by the American Red Cross. Hear from Kelly Isenor (IZ-nur) representing the Massachusetts & Connecticut Region on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.
