Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Janet Freimuth, the executive director of children in placement. Her office is located in New Haven. This organization works with many troubled families and children in the foster care system. While their goal is complete reunification for families, they're also looking for many volunteers, to help minister and be a companion to many troubled children and families. You can hear more about this interview at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here on your live in Local station WIHS!

Tuesday: Trail Life USA is a Christ Centered Outdoor Adventure, character and Leadership program for boys and young men. Gerry Williams caught up with some of the staff members recently at a Trail Life event. Find out more about Trail Life USA at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal. It's News & Public Affairs!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal we'll hear about a new Christian college that is opening in downtown Boston. The school is based on the traditional model for higher education that has been abandoned by most secular schools, but has been the basis of Christian higher education in the past and will now be in the future. Sattler College has opened with a very small, select student body that becomes the basis of future students at the school. Paul Kretschmer speaks with Zach Johnson, representing Sattler College. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal we'll hear how economic circumstances can affect mission work as easily as any issue in the daily lives of people. From Mission Network News, Ruth Kramer finds out more about the Greek financial crisis of the past few years and how that recovery affects the outreach of the Gospel. From AMG International, Tasos Ioannidis explains how difficult life in Greece is, how the true recovery is just getting underway, and how that has created an ideal field for Gospel witness. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about the concern for toxic drug overdoses that are more common as time goes on. Recently, there was a major incident in New Haven that demonstrated how advance planning and training could prevent deaths. That development even caught the attention of the Drug Czar in the Trump administration. Hear this program featuring Connecticut state representative Sean Scanlon on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
