

WIHS Journal Promos Week of May 4, 2015

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal hear Gary Lovejoy speak about living in the darkness, a story of mental health. That's the title of a book he has written from his experience and training. Dr. Lovejoy is also a marriage and family counselor who also uses that experience to help people with personal issues from a Christian perspective. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: Christian outreach and ministry goes to all corners of the world, wherever people may be. Prisoners are people who need to be reached with the Gospel, and disciplined, too. Crossroads Bible Institute engages in reaching those in confinement with Jesus Christ. Hear a conversation from Mission Network News with Dr. Dave Shuringa about prison ministry on today's WIHS Journal; Paul Kretschmer introduces this interview today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a prisoner program for prisoners preparing for reentry into society. It's being performed at the McDougall facility in northern Connecticut. On today's WIHS Journal, introduced by Paul Kretschmer—you'll hear remarks from Connecticut Governor Dannel Malloy and by inmate Andrew Phillips, who is going through the reentry program. The Connecticut Network has provided coverage. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm, here on WIHS Middletown--Live and Local 24/7!

Monday--

On Mondays WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli will be talking with allergy and asthma specialist Dr. Stephen Apaliski (Apple- Lis- Ski) . Since May is Asthma awareness month, he will highlight the triggers of asthma in adults and children. Mostly they will discuss his book, Beating Asthma: the Seven Simple Principles, which is designed to help you take control of your asthma problems.

You can hear more about this WIHS journal at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local Christian station WIHS.

Tuesday--

On Tuesdays WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Sonja Lewis the author of the book, The Barrenness. With Mothers Day coming this Sunday, it can be a painful place for some to endure, with the loss of a mother, or not having children of your own. Sonja will discuss the blessings of being barren. Sonja Lewis is a former newspaper journalist for The Albany Herald), she has also written for The Guardian, a national newspaper in the United Kingdom.

You can hear more about this WIHS journal at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local Christian station WIHS.

WIHS Journal Promos Week of May 18, 2015

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about politics in Connecticut and the impact that a small, resource limited organization can have. The Family Institute of Connecticut began in Fairfield County and still derives a good deal of income from that region, but is now based in Hartford. Executive Director Peter Wolfgang speaks about the successful effort to shut down doctor assisted suicide in the 2015 session at the Connecticut General Assembly and how a few people with the help of God fight for Biblical morality. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear excerpts from a recent news conference staged at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center in Hartford on the issue of teen driving safety during the summer school break months. Teen driving is a concern year-round, what with new experiences, friends and limited on-the-road time for the young driver. On this program, produced with assistance from the Connecticut Network, Dr. John Rohdis from St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center addresses those concerns, along with remarks from among others, Connecticut Transportation Department Commissioner James Redeker. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

WIHS Journal Promos the Week of May 25, 2015

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear from Mike Farris, founder and executive director of the Home School Legal Defense Association. The changes in society have always affected home schooling, but the inroads of society are more threatening than ever. Mike Farris says the specter of same-sex marriage is the next problem that home schooling will face. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about mission work in a part of the world that is so difficult and even dangerous that the guest must remain nameless to the listener. From Mission Network News, comes the conversation with a staffer from Partners International. It concerns relief work for people in Southeast Asia that have little going for them, and much against them. Tune in for the WIHS Journal hosted by Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a campaign by a number of interested parties to encourage safe teen driving, especially during the summer months. From St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center in Hartford, Doctor John Rondis opens the news conference and introduces Connecticut Department of Transportation Commissioner James Redeker. The commissioner addresses the particular hazards faced by inexperienced drivers and how family and friends can encourage and train young drivers in ways to protect themselves while on the road. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

WIHS JOURNAL Promos the Week of June 1-6, 2015

Monday June 1st

Recently there has been a spike in gun violence in Hartford. There were multiple shootings on Memorial Day weekend and a Pastor was shot while putting memorial day flags outside on church property.

Today and tomorrow, Gerry Williams brings you interviews and excerpts from a prayer rally that was attended by the media, clergy, law enforcement and various community leaders. Today we hear from two Pastor's and from the man who came to the Pastor's aid while he lay on the ground wounded.

That's happening today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm here on 104.9 FM WIHS in Middletown, WHERE WE ARE LIVE AND LOCAL.

Tuesday June 2nd

Gun violence in Hartford has been a problem for Quite sometime now. In the wake of a recent spike, a prayer rally was held Tuesday May 26th outside of a church where a Pastor was shot.

Today you'll hear from Mother's United Against Violence representative, Rev. Henry Brown and more.

That's happening today on the WIHS Journal with Gerry Williams at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on 104.9 FM WIHS IN MIDDLETOWN, YOUR STATION FOR INSPIRATION AND INFORMATION !!!

WIHS JOURNAL PROMOS FOR June 5-6, 2015

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear a presentation about the commemoration of World War One that will be taking place nationwide with the emphasis on activities in Connecticut. From the Connecticut Network, you'll hear excerpts of an outdoor program that took place in front of the Connecticut State Library directly across from the Capitol Building in Hartford. Heard on the program will be Connecticut State Librarian Ken Wiggins and historical consultant Ed Fountain. Hear the WIHS Journal today with Paul Kretschmer—airing at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On the June edition of the WIHS Healthline program, Lou Carta will ask questions and receive answers about Glaucoma, a disease of the eye. Elevation pressure inside the eyeball results in diminished or lost vision. It can happen at any age but tends to occur most often in the older person. The expert on this edition is Doctor Kristy Macarenas from Middlesex Eye Physicians in Middletown. The WIHS Healthline for June 2015 is hosted by Middletown Public Health Department Educator Lou Carta and airs at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown--Live and Local 24/7!

WIHS Journal Promos
WIHS JOURNAL PROMOS- June 8, 2015

Monday, June 8 - On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak to author Michelle Lazurek (LA-zer-ik). They will discuss her book –“You can become the Disciple Whom Jesus Loved”. Michelle will highlight the premise of the book, which is to walk with the apostle John and watch with him as Jesus lovingly interacts with the everyday people He meets.

You can here this WIHS journal at 3:15am, 12:13pm, and 5:49pm right here on WIHS, live and local around the clock!

WIHS JOURNAL PROMOS FOR WEEK OF JUNE 8, 2015

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear some of the story of Ken Baran from the Billy Graham Association. Ken has had a wide ranging and varied life, beginning with substance abuse at an early age, then went to corporate America with McDonald's Corporation, and now on the Graham Association in North Carolina. This excerpt comes from a longer conversation from Assist News Service. The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm with Paul Kretschmer here on WIHS Journal on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about how one physical fitness professional came to see fitness as an act of worship, with an additional opportunity to perform service projects for those who participate. The program is Godfit and John Hayden started it in the last couple of years. Here how taking care of the temple of the Holy Spirit is an act of worship for the believer and a witnessing opportunity. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about assistance going to Vietnamese Christians. The government of Vietnam has cracked down very hard once again on Christians, merely for requesting that the government recognize freedom of faith. From Open Doors USA, Tim Muret will describe what is happening in Southeast Asia and what Christians in America can do. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about questions of funding to rebuild and improve the transportation infrastructure in the nation, and especially Connecticut. A news conference was staged recently featuring Connecticut Department of Transportation Commissioner James Redeker, and US Senators Richard Blumenthal and Christopher Murphy of Connecticut. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

WIHS Journal for the week of June 15-20, 2015

Monday: June is men's health month...and the John Stewart foundation is doing their part in helping to promote and bring awareness of the importance and benefits of healthy lifestyle changes. Today, Gerry Williams speaks with Karyn Joyner, spokesperson for the John Stewart foundation. Hear Karyn share who John Stewart was and what the foundation bearing his name is all about. She will also talk about Healthy Fiesta. Healthy Fiesta is a free health wellness initiative under the John Stewart foundation whose goal is to make health fun and engaging. That's all happening today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on 104.9 FM WIHS YOUR STATION FOR INSPIRATION AND INFORMATION!!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear about some of the causes of hearing loss and what hearing aids can do to restore as much hearing as possible. From Newington, Rich Lastrina represents Beltone in Middletown. On this program, Rich will describe the work he did before entering the hearing aid field and the specialized training he undertook to become qualified to help people with significant hearing loss, regain as much of their hearing as possible. You can hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer and Rich Lastrina today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear about a campaign launched by the Media Research Center to force Disney and it's television network ABC to drop a project featuring a noted atheist and attacker of Christians and their faith. Dan Gainor from the MRC describes the type of program that would air based on the life and activities of Dan Savage. The program today will describe the problem from the MRC perspective that family members can listen to, not something Dan Savage normally uses. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer and Dan Gainor of MRC airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Your station for Inspiration and Information!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear once again of human trafficking, not somewhere else around the world, but right here in the United States. From Mission Network News, Greg Yoder interviews Tim Walberg, US House member from Michigan who seeks to direct legislation choking off trafficking in human beings through the US Congress. The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear about the construction work that is getting closer to competition in New Haven at the junction of Interstates 91 and 95. Interstate 95 was built by 1950s projections for future traffic and that included the so-call Q Bridge or Pearl Harbor Memorial Bridge in New Haven. The replacement under construction for a number of years is now in place, though connecting ramps need to be finished. Hear Connecticut Department of Transportation Commissioner James Redeker along with Governor Dannel Malloy from The Connecticut Network coverage of a briefing on-site. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—your station for Inspiration and Information!

Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the Joni and Friends Wheels for the World mission and how wheelchairs for people in third world countries are obtained. WIHS is hosting a wheelchair drive this week at our studios in Middletown and you are invited to participate. Hear how the equipment is rehabilitated, shipped and distributed. Join Anissa Porticelli today at 3:15am, or at 12:13 & 5:49pm for the WIHS Journal, here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear from an experienced counselor about the depression that many millennial age young adults live with and why it discourages them from taking a spouse in marriage. From Edmond, Washington, Dr. Gregg Jantz will discuss young adults and depression on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. Hear the program at 3:15am, 12:13 or 5:49pm today on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear how a camping ministry is being conducted in Eastern Europe in partnership with evangelical churches seeking to reach young people with the Good News of Jesus Christ. From Mission Network News, Greg Yoder discusses this exciting outreach with Greg Mangione from SOAR International. The WIHS Journal introduced by Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, the transportation infrastructure emphasis that Governor Dannel Malloy has spoken on frequently is visited once again as you hear remarks regarding the future of the Charter Oak Bridge connecting Hartford and East Hartford over the Connecticut River. The current bridge takes Route 15 traffic over the river and also connects to Interstate 91. Hear this broadcast produced in cooperation with the Connecticut Network on today's WIHS Journal. Paul Kretschmer introduces the program airing at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
