

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of August 8-13, 2016

Monday & Tuesday: On Monday and Tuesday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Ashia Hussian from the freedom fellowship church in Virginia. She will share her dramatic, life-changing transformation, as she lived a Muslim life for over 18 years, and now a follower of Jesus Christ. She will share how almost wanting to take her own life, the depression and the longing for something more led her to her new life in Christ. You can hear this interview at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here on your live in local station W I HS!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the specialized and targeted work of reaching young people identified as "Millennials" with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Young people, as they often have been, are difficult to reach with the Good News as much as anything, because they're making a transition in life that has a lot of details in it. As Carl Moeller from Biblica points out, world events and technology distract many young people from life essentials including a relationship with Jesus Christ. Hear this conversation courtesy of Mission Network News on the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: August 2016 Hartford Salvation Army Redemption Story hosted by Gerry Williams.

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the Hartford ballpark project. Recently, movement seems to be underway to complete Dunkin' Donuts Stadium which was supposed to be the home of the Hartford Yard Goats. WIHS spoke with Zach Janowski from the Yankee Institute about what the debacle over the field means and what it may portend for the future of similar projects in the future. The budget of Hartford itself is drawing attention to the fragile nature of financing in the Connecticut state capital. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer and Yankee Institute spokesman Zach Janowski today at 3:15; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the work begun after the Sandy Hook School tragedy in Newtown that has culminated with a new school on the property, but not in the same part of the land where the former school stood. A news briefing was held recently featuring Schools Superintendent Joseph Eradi and members of the team responsible for designing and building the new school, that students attending classes at a building in neighboring Monroe could return home to Newtown. Hear this broadcast of the WIHS Journal hosted by Paul Kretschmer airing today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
