

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of November 23-28, 2016

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will be speaking to Matt Harper, and part of the youth team, from the Truth Baptist Church, in South Windsor. They will be talking about their play, "Dreams in the City of Fire" a story that was set in the 1920's but is still relevant for today's culture. The drama is set in the wonderland of Coney Island, NY, 1929. "Dreams in the City of Fire" chronicles the pursuit of fun, excitement, romance, and riches, to reveal in the end how only Christ can truly satisfy. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear a conversation with the interim executive director of the Overseas Ministries Study Center in New Haven. The Center is a place that mission workers from other countries can retreat to for housing and support while they pursue advanced studies they'll use on the mission field. Dr. Darrell Whiteman has been involved in missions work his entire career, but didn't expect to be called to fill the executive director spot at OMSC even on an interim basis. Nonetheless, the Lord is using Dr. Whiteman's experience to provide stable leadership while the Center seeks a new, permanent executive director. Hear about it on the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the lengthy and protracted examination the Connecticut Department of Transportation is in the midst of as it prepares to replace the I-84 viaduct passing through the center of Hartford. The lengthy bridge that takes the highway above city streets has already passed its projected lifespan and continues in service only through continual repairs. It has also split the capital city as similar spans have done all over the country. Hear state Transportation Commissioner James Redeker's remarks from a news conference held right underneath the I-84 viaduct in Hartford on today's WIHS Journal produced in cooperation with the Connecticut Network. The program with Paul Kretschmer airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear one Christian agency speak to reaching the lost in Egypt, a predominantly Muslim country in the Middle East. From Mission Network News, Ruth Kramer interviews a representative from International Needs. To protect his identity, he'll be referred to as "Brother Nathan." As you may know, it can be very dangerous or even fatal to be known to be Christian in the Middle East. Nonetheless, you'll find the testimony of "Brother Nathan," to be compelling. You can hear this interview on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, we continue our emphasis on transportation by airing coverage from the Connecticut Network on the Connecticut Department of Transportation acquisition of new trucks just in advance of the winter snow season. Commissioner James Redeker recently spoke about the retirement of trucks well past their useful lifespan, and the purchase of new trucks to plow and sand the state's highways during winter snow and related bad weather. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
