Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear the story of one pastor who has lived through personal tragedy and lived to tell others how to live through difficult times. Dr. Tony Nelson has served as a local church pastor at the same time he lost his father and a brother in death. The confusion that arose in Dr. Nelson's mind caused him to enter what he describes as a form of agnosticism. Through the intervention of mentors and family, Dr. Nelson came through with a renewed faith that he shares with others through ministry. Hear about a "Crazy Life," on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear how the local church congregation contributed to the development of Connecticut. The Old State House in Hartford offers a panel discussion on topics of interest to Connecticut residents on an approximately monthly basis. This month, Brian Clouette spoke about regional government in the state and how it began in the earliest towns in the form of churches that helped to anchor the development of communities that started large in area, and were eventually split up into several smaller towns. This broadcast, courtesy of the Connecticut Network, airs today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
