

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

July 31-August 5, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was a program to build homes for servicemembers who have been disabled. "Homes for the Brave" arranges for the construction homes that are adapted for those who need changes in their home in order to live in it successfully. The guest was Vincent Santelli and the host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday & Wednesday: The issue on these broadcast was the creation of a new church in Wallingford by a former athlete and body builder. The congregation is known as "Elevate Church" and the Pastor is the Reverend Gerald Baker. The host for these programs was Gerry Williams.

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was about an upcoming live streamed event on the world wide web promoting pro-life perspectives on life. Representative Stephanie Louise spoke about the event and why members of "Students for Life USA" believe in protecting the unborn and work to promote that perspective on higher education campuses.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was the work of "Ministry Pack," a ministry based in Connecticut that provides packages of materials for missionaries in locations especially in third world countries around the globe. The Reverend Richard Dill is the head of the organization and told how it does its work. The host was Steve Tuzeneu.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was the story of a young Christian musician who is building a ministry of music at the age of 19. Daniel Harper is the son of Christian parents and determined through prayer that faith-driven music is what he is being called to. The guest was Gerry Williams.