Wednesday: Join Gerry Williams for his third and final segment of his coverage of Soulfest. Today you'll hear his conversation with long time Christian music artist field Phil Keagy. That's happening today at 3:15 a.m.; 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, the topic is one that remains in the news, year in and year out. It's calls for more comprehensive background checks on those who wish to purchase one or more firearms. Go into a retail shop and you have to fill out a form before you can complete the purchase. Buy a weapon in a private sale and there are no forms. Senator Chris Murphy has become the voice of those who continue to call for more stringent checking. Today, a news briefing as the Senator spoke about his attempts to strike a compromise with the Trump Administration, something the National Rifle Association opposes. Hear today's WIHS Journal, produced with the cooperation of the Connecticut Network on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Saturday: On this month's WIHS Healthline with Lou Carta, the issue is healthy or unhealthy; your home may fall into either category. You spend a lot of time at home, is it safe, lead and radium free and avoiding other hazards to healthy? Or does your home need some inspection time and work to remedy shortcomings? Today, Middletown Public Health Department Community Educator Lou Carta discusses these questions and their answers with Kim Plozjai (PUH-low-zuh) from the State Department of Health. The WIHS Healthline airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm on WIHS Middletown!
