

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of July 18-23, 2016

Monday:

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear how Biblica in Europe is making the Bible available to the educationally or developmentally disabled. Becky Miles works with Biblica in Europe and explains to Mission Network News how the Bible is produced to help those who could not read or understand conventional text, how to know the truths of God's Holy Word. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the mayor of Middletown discuss how the life of the driver on Route Nine will change as the Department of Transportation finally corrects the exits alongside the city center after more than fifty years. Route Nine was planned and built with two stoplights in what was otherwise a limited access highway. Drivers have confronted mile long backups, rear end collisions and time wasting traffic for years. Mayor Daniel Drew will describe how that will change, along with the challenges of budgets. That's today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the work of investigative reporter Marc Fitch from the Yankee Institute for Public Policy. The Institute seeks limited but effective state government in Connecticut, and from an office in the state capital of Hartford, produces policy papers, publicizes waste, suggests effective changes and highlights change. Investigative reporter Marc Fitch provides much of the research that goes in the Yankee Institute work. Hear about that on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the importance of ports in the economy of Connecticut, on the day the State Pier in New London came under control of the state. In excerpts from the Connecticut Network, Transportation Commissioner James Redeker, State Treasurer Denise Nappier and Governor Malloy spoke to the significance of trade through Connecticut ports on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
