

WIHS Journal Promos for the week of March 14-19, 2016

Monday & Tuesday: On Monday and Tuesday you can hear a two-part interview with Anissa Porticelli, and Micheal Campbell. He will highlight his ministry group "Conquering Chemical Dependency through Christ". Micheal will share his deliverance with a 30-year addiction to IV Heroin. You can hear more about this testimony and the group at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear a re-broadcast of a conversation on why Millennials are avoiding commitment and marriage. Our guest is Dr. Gregg Jantz, founder and head of a ministry known on the web as "A Place of Hope." It's a facility intended to help those with unusual challenges not previously addressed in a successful way. Dr. Jantz will discuss how concerns, in the world as it is now, challenges young people facing life in the world as it may become, and how that in turn challenges the notions of adult. Life. Hear today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear excerpts from a news briefing at the state capitol in Hartford on the issue of small business operations by veterans of military service to the United States. State Senate majority leader Martin Looney hosted the briefing, describing how he feels the state can assist veterans with their dreams of owning and operating a small business. He also introduced a range of leaders from veterans groups and the US Small Business Administration dedicated to making opportunities happen. This coverage was produced by the Connecticut Network and airs through their cooperation over the WIHS Journal. Hear this broadcast today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear about a project to give foster children in Connecticut a voice through a publication produced by "Connecticut Voices for Children," a non-profit organization that seeks to advocate for children in unusual circumstances wherever they may live. Connecticut Voices for Children operates out of offices in the New Haven area, but has outreach all over the state. Today you'll hear Cyd Oppenheimer and Bianca Rey speak about a publication released earlier this winter that has stories from foster children throughout Connecticut. They spoke from two locations in a conference call with Paul Kretschmer. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
