Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be talking to a local author Rick Stockwell, about his book The Wall. It is a novel to educate and alert Christians on the sense of urgency for salvation for our friends and family, so they don't end up in the lake of Fire. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on live and local WIHS!

Tuesday: On Tuesdays WIHS journal you can learn about a local ministry the Orphan Grain Train. The ministry provides many services to CT and in different countries. The local director Rich Clepps will elaborate on all the needs and blessings they provide. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on live and local WIHS!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear the first conversation about the 2019 Connecticut General Assembly session with Marc Fitch from the Yankee Institute for Public Policy. It's not the same place it was in a year ago. A new two-year session has begun; there are new faces and familiar faces. The Democratic caucus in each chamber is firmly in charge and there's a new governor as well. Marc Fitch, the investigative reporter for the Yankee Institute will help sort out expectations from this year's legislative work. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: Joshua Harrison with Audio Scripture Ministries tells MNN's Lyndsey Koh about the organization's Christmas theme this year and how it ties into their year-round ministry distributing audio Bibles. ASM distributed audio bibles in 56 countries this past year and hope to do more in 2019. Hear about this dynamic ministry on today's WIHS Journal in cooperation with Mission Network News. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: Urban Alliance is a collective impact organization located in East Hartford, Connecticut. Motivated by the love of Christ, as people of faith and hope, they have a deep desire to respond to the brokenness of the Greater Hartford community.
