

WIHS Journal Promos the week of March 21-26, 2016

Monday: The Passion Of The King is in its 9th season. You have an opportunity to see this epic Biblical musical this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Crossroads Community Cathedral in East Hartford. Hear the creator of this production, Brent Grosvenor (Gro-v-nor) talk about the Genesis and Evolution of this powerful musical. That's today at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the Journal at 104.9 FM WIHS Middletown—Live and Local!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On Tuesdays and Wednesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Ernestine Shepherd. Her story is quite intriguing, she's a deep woman of faith, 79 years old, and was just featured in Ripley's believe it or not for Granny's six-pack. She's been featured on many television programs, such as the 700 Club, CNN, Good Morning America, Anderson Cooper, and her famous platform is being featured in the Guinness Book of World Records for the oldest female bodybuilder. She will also be coming here to Middletown Connecticut for a woman's health conference in April. You could hear her story and more about her personal life and testimony at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM, right here on your live in local station WIHS!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the views of educators on the issue of teacher evaluation—should it be linked to the standard testing all students must take in Connecticut schools, or to the actual results of classroom teaching followed by normal class work tests? Two officials from the Connecticut Education Association spoke about that recently in Hartford, as well as a representative from administrators. Hear this broadcast, produced with the assistance of the Connecticut Network on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear Greg Yoder speak to evangelistic efforts directed toward children. Yoder is now the executive director of Keys for Kids Ministries, formerly known as the Children's Bible Hour. In a conversation with Ruth Kramer, Greg Yoder describes how receptive children are to the Good News of Jesus Christ, and how Keys for Kids provides materials for use anywhere in the world to meet that curiosity and draw youngsters into the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. Hear this conversation today, assisted by Mission Network News on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the concerns of the minority Republicans in the Connecticut General Assembly over the prospect of state worker layoff notices. Senator Len Fasano is the minority leader in the state senate and in a capitol news briefing, he explained the various alternatives his caucus has developed that meet budget cut expectations, while minimizing layoffs. The Connecticut Network provided his briefing and you can hear it on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
