

WIHS Journal Promos the Week of May 23-28, 2016

Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to the director of The New England School of Supernatural Ministry. Mandy Adendorff, will go into detail of her testimony of healing from learning about the supernatural. The school is a ministry school for all ages, and offers, a one-year program and is part time. The school's motive is to see believers flourish in their walk with the Lord. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS.

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the views of educators on the issue of teacher evaluation—should it be linked to the standard testing all students must take in Connecticut schools, or to the actual results of classroom teaching followed by normal class work tests? Two officials from the Connecticut Education Association spoke about that recently in Hartford, as well as a representative from administrators. Hear this broadcast, produced with the assistance of the Connecticut Network on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear Greg Yoder speak to evangelistic efforts directed toward children. Yoder is now the executive director of Keys for Kids Ministries, formerly known as the Children's Bible Hour. In a conversation with Ruth Kramer, Greg Yoder describes how receptive children are to the Good News of Jesus Christ, and how Keys for Kids provides materials for use anywhere in the world to meet that curiosity and draw youngsters into the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. Hear this conversation today, assisted by Mission Network News on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear excerpts from a news briefing conducted by Connecticut Senior Senator Richard Blumenthal on defense of the United States. The measure is known as the National Defense Authorization Act. It covers what the defense department will be authorized to do in terms of materials to protect and defend the country. Members of Connecticut industry who help produce the materials for the defenders to do their job are also heard in this presentation, produced with the cooperation of the Connecticut Network. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear an interview with a chaplain assigned to the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team. Ginger Sanders serves with the outreach of the Billy Graham Association that ministers to people caught up in disasters and those who seek to help and serve them at a time of intense need. Ginger Sanders speaks from the heart of one who knows firsthand what needs to be said and the support needed by those in perhaps the most trying time of life. Hear this broadcast produced in cooperation with Dan Wooding from Assist News Service. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
