Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Gwen Whitham, about “ Mostly Waltz dance “ it is offered by the Hartford Community Dance once a month. On today’s interview Gwen a Christian, who say this dance makes her feel like she is brought back into time. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13pm and 5:49PM right here on live and local WIHS.

Tuesday: Many families are struggling to make wise decisions about college within the context of their own financial situations. Hear Gerry Williams conversation with Elvin Turner who will be the moderator for an event that's taking place February 9th to help families navigate through the complexities of choice and cost for their children attending college. That's happening today at 3:15 am; 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today’s WIHS Journal hear a conversation about what taxation without representation looks like. Most of us heard that phrase while we were in school during a history or civics course. According to the president of the Southern Evangelical Seminary in Charlotte, North Carolina that’s what’s happening right now. Dr. Richard Land says the 9th US House District from his home state has no say in current events because no official winner of the November race has been declared. Hear how this matter has developed on today’s WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: On today’s WIHS Journal hear about the work being done to help those who have been victimized by human trafficking. The state of Connecticut has a task force to deal with that matter that is chaired by Steven Hernandez, the executive director of the Commission on women, Children & Seniors. Hear excerpts from a recent meeting courtesy of CTN today on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.

Saturday: The topic on the February WIHS Healthline broadcast is shingles. That’s a skin & nerve disorder that’s the outgrowth of chicken pox—in fact caused by the same virus that goes dormant in the body, then causes eruptions to those older in life. Lou Carta hosts the conversation today on the WIHS Healthline program at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
