Monday: The issue on this broadcast was how to develop ideas for business on a deadline. Business values those who can develop good ideas on demand, even when time pressure is a consideration. The guest was Phil Cooke, and the host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was the operation of Child Evangelism Fellowship in Connecticut. The ministry provides after school programs for young people throughout the year. Alan Snow was the guest from CEF who spoke to host Steve Tuzeneu.

Wednesday: The issue of this broadcast was "Trauma Healing," how to help those who have been deeply wounded in mind and spirit as well as body. Katie Hearth spoke with Dean Vander Mey, who has extensive experience with helping those who have survived PTSD. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Thursday & Friday: The issue of the broadcast, a repeat from earlier last autumn, was how to bring two hardened political parties together and become vitally involved in working for the people, rather than fight political battles over every issue. The guest was former Senator Joseph Lieberman and host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was "Peace Over Pain," and the guest was Doctor Kevin Reese. The doctor deals with people who suffer from chronic pain and his method is to work with patients so they can release the tension and fear they feel, which in turn reduces the pain they feel. The host was Gerry Williams.
