Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear a conversation with Michael Massing, long time journalist discussing the provocative topic, "How Martin Luther Paved the Way for Donald Trump." Michael Massing read the history of the Protestant revolution over a number of years—culminating in a lengthy book in light of the evangelical Christian alliance with Donald Trump's presidential campaign. Hear this conversation with Paul Kretschmer today on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about an effort to enlist the support and action of the local church to evangelize those who have not yet the Good News of Jesus Christ—the Gospel that brings life to the lost. The effort is called, "Imagine Zero" and is a ministry of the Seed Company, a Wycliffe Bible Translators affiliate. As it says on their website, Imagine Zero intends to help the local church become a part of fulfilling the Great Commission. Mark Matlock talks about this effort with Paul Kretschmer. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.

Saturday: On this month's WIHS Healthline broadcast the issue is lung cancer, one of the major killers of people of all ages. Michelle Kahn is from the American Lung Association and she will answer the questions of Middletown Health Department community educator Lou Carta. The WIHS Healthline airs the first Saturday of every month through the cooperation of the Middletown Health Department and WIHS Public Affairs. Airtimes are 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
