

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of February 1-6, 2016

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Pastor Adam Soderberg (SODA-berg), of the First Congregational Church in Hartford. The interview will highlight Chosen People Ministries, and their presentation of Messiah in the Passover. This is a visual message not only of Israel's freedom from slavery in Egypt, but also of the redemption of individuals from the bondage of sin through the atoning work of Jesus. You can hear more on this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49Pm right here on your live and local station WIHS!

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about calls for changes in student academic performance coming from the Connecticut Education Association. At a recent capitol news briefing, representatives from the C-E-A said student/teacher evaluations should be based on class work, not centered on scores from standardized tests, as has been the case in recent years under "No Child Left Behind" and later initiatives. Hear Sheila Cohen and Mark Waxenberg from the Connecticut Education Association as covered by the Connecticut Network on the WIHS Journal today with Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear a conversation with the Mayor of Middletown, Daniel Drew. The city has what is called a strong mayor, meaning the position is the chief executive officer for Middletown and wields a great deal of authority under the city charter as granted by the Connecticut General Assembly. Hear about Mayor Drew's initiatives for 2016 and beyond, his interests in serving the community on the political scene and working the Common Council and the Board of Education. Mayor Drew will also discuss the issue of moral authority as nominal leader of the community and relationship with members of the legislative delegation to the General Assembly. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear another visit with Wendell Rovenstine on sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ in Asia. Wendell is the spokesman for Bibles for China and he discusses the ministries latest plans for sharing Bibles in China during 2016 in a conversation with Katie Hearth from Mission Network News. The WIHS Journal is grateful for the cooperation we have with M-N-N in sharing Great Commission news from other countries and occasionally from here inside the United States. You can hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On this month's Healthline broadcast with Lou Carta, hear about the health science known as chiropractic and how it may be able to help you with physical problems that, so far, you have had little success in dealing with. On the WIHS Healthline program, Doctor of Chiropractic Robert Shortell will introduce you the listener to what chiropractic care is all about. Many of us have heard of this form of medical care, perhaps even know family and friends who refer to the success they have had in going to a Doctor of Chiropractic, but who themselves know very little about is profession and its practitioners. Hear the February WIHS Healthline with Lou Carta today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
