

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of May 16-21, 2016

Monday:

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a ministry that seeks to help people in third-world countries deal with illnesses like Malaria. The conversation comes by way of Mission Network News and features Deb Lammert from Blessings International. She discusses how people in countries with less or no effective medical care are prey to diseases that have been wiped out in developed countries. In a very real way, visiting such a lesser-developed country is like stepping back in time. Hear this conversation, conducted by Ruth Kramer from Mission Network News. The WIHS Journal hosted by Paul Kretschmer, airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday & Thursday: The Bible teaches that personal faith should influence our attitudes and actions in all the aspects of life. Finances certainly fall within that guidance. On today's WIHS Journal, hear financial affairs counselor Dan Celia discuss how that directive can become actual and real in your life. Dan Celia heads up a ministry known as "Financial Freedom" which maintains a website and radio broadcast. Hear how you can honor God in managing your finances. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear a re-broadcast of a conversation on why Millennials are avoiding commitment and marriage. Our guest is Dr. Gregory Jantz, founder and head of a ministry known on the web as "A Place of Hope." It's a facility intended to help those with unusual challenges not previously addressed in a successful way. Dr. Jantz will discuss how concerns, in the world as it is now, challenges young people facing life in the world as it may become, and how that in turn challenges the notions of adult. Life. Hear today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear another update on how the state of Connecticut is dealing with the threat of the Zika Virus. Recently, a report arose on a young woman who visited her fiancé in Central America and found upon arrival at home, that she tested positive for Zika Virus. Governor Dannel Malloy held a news briefing at a club supporting Hispanic affairs, a club with a special interest because frequent travel to Puerto Rico drives home, literally the danger of exposure to Zika. The commonwealth of Puerto Rico is an especially "hot" spot for Zika Virus infection, which causes birth defects in the children born of infected mothers. Hear this report, produced in cooperation with the Connecticut Network today on the WIHS Journal. The program, hosted by Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
