

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of December 25-30, 2017

Monday: On today's WIHS Journal hear a repeat of a broadcast earlier this fall when US 1st District Congressional Representative Joseph Courtney shared the news that the costs of dealing with failing foundations in the northeastern corner of Connecticut could be written off on federal income taxes. This ruling constitutes a major financial boost for those whose homes have impacted by concrete failures. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Tuesday: The Connecticut School Of Broadcasting has been around since 1964. Gerry Williams was out and about and caught up with the president of the school, Jim Robinson. Hear his conversation with Jim today as he talks about the history and more. That's happening at 3:15 a.m. 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on The WIHS Journal News And Public Affairs!

Wednesday: Catch Pt 2 of Gerry Williams conversation with Jim Robinson, president of the Connecticut School Of Broadcasting at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal News And Public Affairs!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the story of a woman who suffered very serious nerve damage during childbirth and lived in excruciating pain for the next fourteen years. The Lord's ministry of healing through prayer has taken that pain away and Joanne Moody now heads of a ministry of prayer called, "Minute by Minute." This conversation airs today on the WIHS Journal airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: The Congress may be in the process of changing Federal student financial aid by reducing the opportunity for many who need assistance from receiving the help they need for post high school education. First District Representative Joseph Courtney addressed the issue at a recent news conference, which you can hear excerpted on today's WIHS Journal. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm today on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
