December 9-14, 2019

Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be talking with Meliza Surdi from California. She's a recording artist and some of her songs have touched the hearts of many even here locally. You can hear about her songs and her music coming up on this journal at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM and 5:49 right here on WIHS

Tuesday: Over the summer Gerry Williams covered a lot of events. Today you'll hear one of them in the way of a Gospel Fest sponsored by Bible Way Church of our Lord Jesus Christ of Meriden. That's happening today at 3:15am; 12:13pm and 5:49pm on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear what a government meeting can sound like when a number of members and the mayor are new to the job. Middletown has replaced a number of the Common Council members and the mayor has not presided over a city and it's governing council before. So everyone is learning on the job. Today's feature can be heard at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, we'll explore a possible future if the ocean water level continues to rise with dire consequences for communities large and small. Aris Papadopolus is a retired building contractor but has already spent a number of years looking into the danger of high water in low-lying areas including New York City. He has established a think tank to discuss and offer possible solutions. Hear him on the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: On Saturdays WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli, will be speaking to author Lori Sanchez, of the ministry finding friends everywhere. Lori is on her fourth book and her last book she has dedicated it to any parents with special needs children. In this interview you will also hear from Ben Carol who has special needs. His story will warm your heart. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:15PM and 5:10PM right here on live and local WIHS!
