

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Second Quarter, 2022

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

May 23-28, 2022

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was the May is Foster Parents Month. The month emphasizes the part that foster parents play in the life of the child who needs a home when they're own parents are unable to care for them. The guest was Helen Richardson, and the host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was a volunteer organization in Rockville Connecticut who comes along side the alcoholic and helps them as they seek the road of sobriety. was interaction and concern for lower grade school students by their teachers. The guest was Dr. JA Miller, who has spent time teaching and has a firsthand experience of the subject. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Wednesday & Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was the disinformation campaign that appears to be underway in the United States. Doctor Jane Orient has made a point of watching and commenting on issues in the marketplace of ideas. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was about the observations and lessons learned by Heather Carter of Texas who developed a form of cancer a few years ago and spent time on line, especially at the Tik Tok site. She discussed the people and their lives. The program host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue of this broadcast was about the work and mission of relationship between the state of Israel and Saudi Arabia. President Donald Trump made it his business to bring the two countries together. The guest was Felice Friedson and the host was Paul Kretschmer.