Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the challenge and rewards of ministering to overseas college students studying away from home in the United States. From the Assist News Series, "Front Page" radio comes this conversation hosted by Dan Wooding, and featuring Bill Bray and Debra Yarde. This minister to overseas students and mentor the mission workers who encounter students and share the Gospel with them. This broadcast airs today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the practice of "fusion voting," where a major party candidate for public office is also endorsed and appears on the ballot on behalf of a minor party candidate. That means such a candidate appears on two lines of the ballot, which can influence the outcome of an election. Such was the case where Dannel P. Malloy appeared on both Democratic and Working Families party ballot lines. Malloy beat Thomas Foley the Republican candidate by 26-thousand votes and 20-thousand of them were cast on the Families party line. Hear the WIHS Journal today with Paul Kretschmer and investigative reporter Marc Fitch from the Yankee Institute at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
