

WIHS Journal Promos for July 20-25, 2015

Monday & Tuesday

On Monday and Tuesday join WIHS for a two part Journal, as Anissa Porticelli will be talking with Carrie Gordon Earll the vice president of government and public policy at Focus on the Family, where she oversees the ministry's issue analyst staff providing expertise on a range of public policy topics. The interview will highlight the ruling of the Supreme Court and legalizing same sex marriage. Carrie will provide tips for individuals, and the church, on how to handle this latest ruling. You can hear more about this WIHS journal at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local Christian station WIHS.

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear a conversation with a member of the General Assembly delegation from Middletown. 100th District Representative Matt Lesser became a co-chair of the Banking Committee this year and will discuss that and other concerns on today's WIHS Journal. Some problems consumers face can be dealt with only on the federal level; other questions are being addressed by Connecticut taking the lead on solutions. The WIHS Journal hosted today by Paul Kretschmer can be heard at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about Robo-Calls, that problem you have when your phone rings and no one is there, OR a marketer wants to sell you something. Robo-Calls are auto-dialed and hit every phone in a block of phone numbers, even if you're on the "Do Not Call" list. Hear Senator Richard Blumenthal of Connecticut and Charles Bell of Consumers Union, publisher of "Consumer Reports" magazine discuss regulating Robo-Calls on today's WIHS Journal hosted by Paul Kretschmer. The program airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about routine violations of human and religious rights in the Indian subcontinent. India is the one the largest countries in the world, both in land area and in population. India has been a nominally free country since independence after World War Two. But—what is guaranteed in the Indian constitution isn't always what happens in daily life. Citizens belonging to religious minorities in particular have suffered injury and death at the hands of Hindu extremists. Hear Jonathan Bollback from, "Help India Kids" discuss this growing issue on the WIHS Journal today hosted by Paul Kretschmer. The program airs at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm today on WIHS Middletown--Live and Local 24/7!
