Monday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear excerpts of a recent presentation at the Old State House in Hartford hosted by Diane Smith. The issue was "Politicizing History," a conversation on how descriptions of past events are altered to make or reinforce later political objectives. This program has been produced in cooperation with the Connecticut Network. The WIHS Journal airs three times daily, today at 3:15am; also 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, the Reverend Glenn Havumaki will discuss his book entitled Trashed or Treasured? Having served senior citizens for a number of years including at Elim Park in Cheshire, Pastor Havumaki is well qualified to discuss the challenges of the older citizen, and whether society at large appreciates them as a resource of wisdom and practical knowledge. Anissa Porticelli hosts today's WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about ways that debt collectors seek to obtain repayment of a debt, even when you may not even owe any money. With more consumers finding themselves over-extended by credit cards and genuine family emergencies, repayment is a greater challenge. Add in unscrupulous collectors and identity theft and you have the makings of fraud. Hear about it today with Better Business Bureau of Connecticut representative Howard Schwartz on the WIHS Journal. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm today here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: Christine Hahn will be the guest on the next edition of the health-information radio program — Healthline. Ms. Hahn, an epidemiologist for the Connecticut Department of Public Health, will discuss the potential health hazards associated with prolonged exposure to elevated levels of radon gas, how to test for it, and how to mitigate should a problem be found. Healthline is produced by the Middletown Health Department and can be heard Saturday, January 6, at 3:15 a.m., 12:15 p.m., and 5:15 p.m. on WIHS 104.9 FM.
