Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, we'll listen in to a public hearing recently where Middletown residents spoke to the Common Council about the naming of the new middle school. For almost 100 years either a high school or middle school has been named after former President Woodrow Wilson, who spent a couple of years teaching at Wesleyan University early in his career. Now, some Middletown residents would like to name the new middle school something else. Hear the remarks of city residents on today's broadcast. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, we'll listen in to a meeting to discuss the definition of various kinds of service animals. In addition to seeing-eye dogs and other assistance animals for the disabled, there are emotional comfort animals and other service animals. However, the laws of Connecticut don't completely match up with the Americans with Disabilities Act. So, work is underway to rationalize those differences. Hear today's WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear the kickoff of the 18th annual Operation ELF. That's a program that assists the families of deployed service personnel all year long but especially during the holiday season. Major General Francis Evon (EE-von) and Connecticut Lieutenant Governor Susan Bysiewicz will be heard on today's WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown!
