

October 19-24, 2015 WIHS Journal Promos

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will be speaking to Anthony Daley the youth pastor of the Family Worship Center in Hartford. They will discuss its Youth and family conference with the theme "Normal is not working". It will highlight the need for change in the church that is geared for the youth, so they will stay plugged in as youth and adults. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS.

Tuesday: On Tuesdays WIHS journal Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Dell Chamberlain, from the Crossroads Community Church in East Hartford. The topic today is on the retreat they will hold for women with the theme "Heading to High Places". Dell, feels that women, need a reprieve from the every day life and take time to renew with other women, at the same time getting closer to God. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS.

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about Reclaiming Halloween, one of a number of holidays that the creator of a website called Celebrating Holidays speaks about today. Angie Mosteller is based in San Diego, but thanks to the world-wide-web, she provides ideas, information, and the rationale that many holidays in America have been co-opted or even distorted by secular forces. Angie Mosteller will explain how All Hallows Eve, recognizing the faithful in Christ became something else and how that situation can be reversed. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear the last portion of a recent conversation with State Senator Dante Bartolomeo of Meriden, whose district includes much of Middletown. The senator describes the interests she currently advocates for from the floor of the state senate and the cooperation she receives from her legislative colleagues. One major point in the program today is working to keep the Middlesex Community College branch in Meriden open. The conversation today continues and concludes a lengthy conversation, much of which was aired recently. WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm, here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the difficult place Turkey is in at the present time as refugees from the Middle East flow through that country on their way to a new life elsewhere. From International Needs, Rody Rodehaver discusses the challenging political, religious and human needs sides of this story, present in the news so often. Mission Network News reporter Katey Hearth interviews Rody Rodehaver. Hear the challenge of bringing the Good News in the midst of human disaster on today's WIHS Journal. The conversation airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49ppm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, cyber thieves test personal safety and financial security countless times a day. With so much commerce, personal services and the like handled remotely, it pays for everyone to take the appropriate steps to protect themselves. From the Connecticut Consumer Protection Department, Commissioner Jonathon Harris is joined by Connecticut Better Business Bureau representative Howard Schwartz to offer tips on how to protect yourself from cyber thieves. This broadcast is made possible through the cooperation of the Connecticut Network, and airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
